One reason why Scott's Emulsion cures weak throats, weak lungs, makes rich blood, and strengthens puny and delicate children is because all its parts are mixed in so scientific a manner that the feeblest digestion can deal with it.

This means, purest ingredients, most evenly and delicately mixed, best adapted for those whose strength has failed or whose digestion would repel an uneven product.

Man-of-war Pets.

Books about pets seem to have been set going in great numbers by the London Spectator's collection of "dog stories." The classifications are rapidly extending.

"The parrot has been Jack's prime favorite in all ages, and at least one story told of Tommy's pet. This particular parrot was an inmate of Cochrane's ship on the occasion of a cruise on the Norwegian coast. The hospitable Norwegians were invited to visit the British frigate. Ladies were hoisted on board by means of a chair fastened to a rope running over the yard. Whenever the chair reached the deck the order was given, 'Let go!' While one of the lady visitors was still in midair the ship's parrot yelled out, 'Let go!' And down she went into the sea, chair and all.

Approves Purloining of Umbrellas.

At a banquet given in London by the Guild of Metropolitan Cabmen, writes a correspondent of the Chicago Record, the Prince of Wales, who was in the chair, bore a glowing tribute to the honesty of the fraternity, mentioning that during the last year several thousand pounds in money, jewels and securities that had been forgotten in London cabs had been either restored by the drivers to the losers or else turned over to the police. The prince added that there was only one form of lost property which no hack driver ever had been known to return—an umbrella.

SPECTACLES.

Over twenty-five years I have been in the Spectacle business and during that time have fitted hundreds and hundreds of persons. Some had put off getting glasses so long that they could not see a large 4 inch letter A without going within 2 or 3 feet of it, and might have gone blind if they had put off getting glasses much longer.

E. W. TAYLOR, City

Warning!

I wish to inform the public that several parties are travelling the country using my name and pretending to be selling Spectacles for me. Mr. C. H. White is the only traveller that I employ. He is competent to test eyes and fit Spectacles properly. If any others call and say they are selling for me please ask them to show their licence.

E. W. TAYLOR,
