

Just Look At What You Get Now In The Patriot!

P.E.I.'S BEST BUY!

Yes, The Patriot has become one of Canada's truly great newspaper bargains. It now features a giant weekend edition, with upwards of 100 pages each Saturday --- the Island's first paper in technicolor, packed with exciting magazine features and including 16 pages of four-color comics. Its news and other services have been modernized and expanded. And yet, with all the EXTRAS The Patriot now offers, it still costs subscribers only 30 cents a week, home-delivered in Charlottetown and Summerside. The big Saturday issue costs 10 cents if purchased separately, but all its features are given as a bonus to Patriot subscribers --- P. E. I.'s best newspaper buy.

PROFIT FROM THIS BONUS

EVERY DAY:

Of course it is news—late news—local news—world news—complete news—all brightly presented that makes The Patriot P.E.I.'s new-day newspaper. It carries TODAY'S NEWS TODAY to the Island's urban homes. The Patriot's enlarged force of reporters, photographers and editors, coupled with the full graphic report of The Canadian Press, make its news services unexcelled. Its editorial page and sparkling women's, sports and comic pages also hold top favor readers.

FAVORITE MAGAZINE:

Each Saturday issue of The Patriot now proudly includes Weekend Magazine, the favorite publication of all-Canada. Produced in full color and packed with the work of Canada's top writers and photographers, Weekend Magazine incorporates all the main features formerly presented the Island in The Standard magazine, which it replaces. There's a place for this great magazine in every home.

FUN FOR THE FAMILY:

Canada's "first family of funnies" now appears in The Patriot each Saturday in a four-color comic section of 16 pages. The favorite fun figures of the whole family move through the pages of this big entertainment section—Li'l Abner, Joe Palooka, The Berrys, Little Orphan Annie, Steve Canyon, Mary W. Mickey Finn, Red Ryder, Dick Tracey, Moon Mullins, Smitty, Rivets, Pogo, Dennis Menace, Gasoline Alley and Grin and Bear It.

Just 30c per week, home delivered! Single Weekend edition 10c per copy at your news-stand.
