JOBBIARY

Inserted by friends and relatives as a tribute to the deceased. KENNETH MACDONALD Relatives and friends were shocked beyond measure on learning of the death of Kenneth Macdonald who passed away suddenly, as the result of an accident, on February 11th, 1962.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Kenneth Macdonald wish to thank their pastor, Rev. W.D. Macdonald, Mr. Fred Perry of Perry's Funeral Service, the many friends at home and abroad who sent mass cards, flowers and messages of sympathy, and their good neighbors who did everything possible to help.

RAN SPAFFISHING

QUEBEC (CP)—Spaff fishing for salmon will continue to be prohibited in Quebec, new restrictions set by the department of game and fisheries showed Tuesday. Spaff fishing for other species also will be restricted in certain areas to be designated hereafter by the department.

REMAINS

The remains were forwarded on February 14th, to the home of his brother, John J. Macdonald, North Lake, Mass. Macdonald, too ill to travel, was forced to remain at home, but four brothers of the deceased accompanied the remains. Sister Augustine, of the nursing staff of the Sisters of St. Joseph, Kirkfield, Ont., left by plane on receipt of the sad news, to be with the family and especially to comfort her grief-stricken father.
