

Selects Undefeated

by Tony Carroll

Another two weeks of play have passed in the UPEI intramural hockey league and the play has been nothing short of brutal. The Freshmen have been having problems of late as they only collected one win in league play. But on the bright side of things, the Freshies are still recruiting and players from Rustico de Sud, Lennox Island and surrounding areas. The Freshmen even went to a Weight Watchers meeting to sign Derwin Banks.

Glen "Paperweight" Gaudet's play has been on and off as of late and so has his relationship with Cheryl. However, he has been coming on steady lately because he is back in love. Now that we are on the topic, Mike "Acne Cream" James was also signed but he was scouted at a place called Jim's. Something must have been wrong with Mike because he signed the card Tracy Cantwell. The only time I saw Mike with his mouth shut occurred when he was kissing Tracy on GJ's dance floor.

Getting back to hockey, M & M have been doing so-so in league play. Mean Machine beat the Freshies in a real squeaker.

The Freshmen lost to Blanchard Hall 10 to 6 in their next game. The coach, Kenny "Cornhusker" MacDonald said that the loss was due to two players not being dressed. They are Scotty "Buchwheat" MacDonald and Mark "Curling Stone" o'Rourke. Scotty couldn't make it because he was Luke Skywalker at Capital Mercury Auto and also because he had to play with kids. As for Mark, he was getting his legs fixed. He is short and his legs look like he rode forty miles on a horse and just got off. Mark, a staggering four-foot tall, could be 6'4" if he straightened his legs.

Now to talk about the hottest team in the league - The Sophomore Selects. Since losing two Christmas tournaments the Selects, under a new head coach, have rung up five straight victories. These were over Freshmen, Engineers, Mean Machine, Korakin and Blanchard. The Selects will try to keep this streak alive as they play host to the JR's slumping Juniors. The Selects have the best goals against and goals for in the second semester. After talking with statistician Shane Monahan, one finds that the Selects are recently holding up first place in the eight team league. Also, four of the top penalty minute leaders belong to the Selects. Just goes to show the great mixture on the Selects team. They mix skill with skating and finesse, and also blend in a little toughness. These are the qualifications necessary to belong to the Select hockey team. This is why training is so rigorous and why many players have not made the Selects.

To all the other players, don't feel bad because you never made the Selects this year. Tryouts will begin in September. So just keep working on your skills and don't give up. Many of our current players got here by hard perseverance and dedication. But don't get your hopes up because not everybody makes the team.

hog king nets 19

Blanchard Hall with three of their recruits had planned to destroy Bernie 1 in basketball action last week. Blanchard's leader, Judy MacDonald was quoted as saying, "We needed a tough defense to avoid the fast breaks by supporters for Bernie 1 who showed, King and Bradley are asking for renewals on their pro contracts. The final score was a close one, Bernie 1 nipped Blanchard 23-19, with Hog King netting 19 points. (Hey George, got any more playing room?)

On the rougher side of women's basketball, Daze Students and Bernie 2 really battled'er out. Wimp Morrison and No Shorts Drake played strong for Daze Students, but unfortunately Red Jacked Doran, Bernie 2's biggest asset, made her add appearance during the game as she was working the control room at the same time. How about that Barb? You hire control room workers who are avid sports minds and Vince hires basketball refs who read Playboy Magazines and try to blow a whistle at the same time!

The latest action in broomball saw Bernie 1 whip Daze Students 3-0 in an earlier scheduled game. Only a few short weeks before that date, these two teams met for the Christmas finals, where in overtime, Daze beat Bernie 1. How about that. They're even more successful than Phil Brown's Mean Machine. (They are also better looking too, Phil!)

That's about it for this week and remember Vince, Loni's got her eye on you'.
