INJUN MO NO THREAT

BY CIMN

Travelling news

Mary "Injun Mo" Morrison is no threat to the contending basketball teams in the Christmas Tourney. Carolyn Drake, the only daze student from the previous week needed help badly. But, Hampton, then you know you're in trouble Injun Mo and Carolyn Drake teamed up with a quiet, reserved Montaguier, Sharon Nicholson. Now, if that that's not a stacked team, I don't know what is!

This trio bombed the other Bernie 1 Team: 20-10 in the early basketball game. The referee for the game, Dave Gallant, was so exhausted from keeping up with the brilliant play that he needed a break at 10 minutes into the game to recover. Come on Dave! You're getting paid and all the girls do is look pretty.

Blanchard Hall, even with the help??? of Daze Students, Injun Mo and Crolyn, could not even come close to Jackie's girls, Bernie 2, Ronald "Red" Murphy proved outstanding in the game and gave Judy MacDonald, Blanchard Hall, a run for the points. Bernie 2 doubled Blanchard Hall 20-10, and rumour hath it that Karillee Landers is looking for Cathy Chandler's position.

I also heard that a certain Daze Student has an eye for a particular basketball ref. Maybe Vince should think of reffing. That way, the girls could concentrate on the game and the Athletic Dept. would save money they now shell to referees.

Bernie 2 might be good on the court but when it comes to broomball, hell, they never show up. Bernie 1 took advantage of the ice time and went ahead and practiced. If you ever want a forward for your Hockey Panthers, Jack, just come to Bernie 1 the Bernie 1 Team has a player who misses wide open nets, too!

See ya latter!!

Jokes of the Week: George Brett: Baseball has been very, very itchy to me.

in for the last 30 seconds. We feel these athletes deserve more recognition and, were there such a trophy here, we feel that Neil would receive our nomination for this year. We can't imagine that there would be any argument from any of the players or from anyone who saw the "Shine" he got in a recent team workout. Great going Neil!! The Panthers close out play for the semester this weekend when Saint Thomas U. visit for two games. We don't know much about them except that we hear they are fast, rough and greatly improved over last year's team. We might also note that they have a league record of 2-4, the same as our boys. We would appreciate a couple of wins to go into the New Year with a 500 record. Merry Christmas.

C.I.A.U. Scholarships

WINNIPEG (CUP): The federal minister of fitness and amateur sport has come out in favour of Canadian universities offering athletic scholarships.

Speaking at the University of Manitoba, Gerald Regan said he would support the idea of scholarships to entice athletes to stay in Canada.

Asked what the federal government could do about the mass athlete exodus to American college campuses, Regan agreed that scholarships would be helpful.

"And I am supportive of any plan capable of keeping athletes in Canada," the minister said.

The University of Manitoba plans to begin offering athletic scholarships next year. There has been some concern that the Canadian Inter-collegiate Athletic Union (CIAU) which governs Canadian inter-university athletics, would change the amateur status of University of Manitoba athletes if they received scholarships.

The CIAU now has a policy that schools offering scholarships can no longer compete in the CIAU.

Spokespeople for the U. of Manitoba have said that the CIAU may soon overturn that policy and let scholarship-offering schools compete.

Regan said scholarships from private funds may be necessary if the provinces do not adequately finance the universities' athletics programs and amateur sport in general.

He said his department would like to help but the loss of revenue from lotteries to provincial jurisdiction means more money cannot come from the federal government.

Provincial and municipal governments, he said, should supply funding for athletic facilities which would entice athletes to stay in the country.
