OCTOBER 16, 1893.

OUR ELECTION LAWS.

The Government have published, in pamphlet form, the statutes respecting the Legislature which were passed at the last session...

agriculture under free trade from the London Times: "The Lancashire Tenant Farmers' Association have issued a manifesto calling attention to the continued and deepening depression in agriculture...

—The Imperial Federation Journal for October says: "The successful opening of the line of Pacific steamers between Vancouver and Australia ports has naturally given an enormous stimulus to projects of trade between Australia and Canada."

NEWS NOTES.

On Monday, 713,646 people paid for admission to the World's Fair. Over one thousand birds for the Canadian poultry exhibit at the World's Fair were recently sent from London.

Every British subject, by birth or naturalization, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards—not disqualified under the disfranchisement act—may vote, if he has duly performed or committed his statutory labor within twelve months of the date of the writ of election.

QUALIFICATION OF VOTER FOR LEGISLATIVE COUNCILS.

Every man being a British subject of the age of twenty-one years or upwards, who owns real estate of a freehold or leasehold tenure of the value of three hundred dollars and twenty-five cents, or who owns lands partly freehold and partly leasehold, amounting together in value to three hundred and twenty-five dollars, and who has owned and been in possession of the same for six months' previous to the date of the writ of election is entitled to vote for a councillor.

THE KIND OF WOMAN TO KNOW.

The woman with a loving heart is sure to look upon the bright side of life, and by her example induce others to do so. Her sense is good reason for all the unimportant events which others call bad luck. She believes in silver linings, and likes to point them out to others.

SOME NICE QUESTIONS.

SIR.—We have had quite a nice lot of money spent on our road last week. The rain, however, did considerable damage to the work. We presume Fortes and McDonald will plough the road up again before the frost comes. We prefer dealing directly with the grit candidates, as the necessity of obtaining a certificate from the supervisor is dispensed with. A cheque on the bank or goods will be taken for the same, as before. Can you tell us, Mr. Editor, if there is any obligation, moral or otherwise, on a person to vote grit because he has a job ploughing up the road; also please state if a man 20 years of age is prohibited by the act from working for pay on the road.

MARRIAGE BELLS. Hundreds of friends united today in good wishes for the abundant happiness of a young couple who, this morning, joined lives in matrimony. In the chapel of the Immaculate Conception Church, Dr. Hugh Walker, a well-known dentist, and Miss Delia J. Smith, until recently a teacher in the public schools, were married. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Fr. Walker, D. D., of Prince Edward Island, a brother of the bridegroom, and he also celebrated the nuptial Mass, which followed. Rev. Fr. Joyce, O. M. I., Superior of the Oblate Fathers, assisted, and Mr. Charles P. Smith, brother of the bride, served the Mass. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin, en train, with pearl embroidery, a veil, and carried a pearl-bordered prayer book and a bouquet of bride's roses. Miss Katherine F. Smith, the bride's attendant, was gowned in white mousseline de soie. Miss Margaret Smith and Miss Katherine Reidy were also in the bridal party, and all wore crests of white satin. R. J. McCormack, of Dorchester, was best man, and Messrs. E. P. McOsker and M. A. Reidy were ushers. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride by the D. L. Page Co. The floral decorations were by Whittier. There were many beautiful evidences of the esteem of friends. Dr. and Mrs. Walker took the noon train for Chicago, after congratulations from friends.

A Very Narrow Escape.

A man's life saved because he had on one of Prowse Bros' strong overcoats. While two gentlemen from the city and the man from the neighboring village were out shooting on the river in a boat, one day last week, one of their number was knocked overboard and his companion caught his coat tail and managed to get him back into the boat. The man himself feels sure that the strength of the coat and the man putting saved his life and would strongly advise anyone wanting an overcoat that can't be disconcerted to go to Prowse Bros, where they keep nothing but the best.

OTTAWA, Oct. 13.—Several letters were received in the city today from J. R. Hooper. One was to the editor of a local paper in which Hooper protests against the efforts made to prejudice him in the eyes of the public. He says he has a good defence and will meet his accusers at the proper time. He is confident of a fair trial by a jury. He found guilty he will pay the penalty with his life. All that he asks is fair play and British justice.

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 13.—The Union Pacific has passed into the hands of receivers. President Clarke, Comptroller Mink, and Government Director Anderson were appointed. The application was made by the executors of the Ames estate, by a son-in-law of Sydney Dillon, by director Atkins and by independent stockholders. HAMILTON, Ont., Oct. 13.—In the drill hall this evening the Canadian Club, in celebration of the anniversary of the battle of Queenston heights, gave an entertainment, of which the leading feature was a patriotic address by Sir Oliver Mowat, Ontario's premier. Sir Oliver's address occupied less than half an hour in delivery, but every line of it breathed for Canada. Sir Oliver's address was, as I do not want annotation. You are as glad as I am that Canada is still part of the British empire; to know that all British history is our history, and that the patriots, statesmen, soldiers, poets and philosophers of the old land still belong to us as well as to every other portion of our mighty empire. That a change will come is certain, but the absence of any satisfactory scheme has prevented that change hitherto.
