Are Children Prettiest in Hoods or Hats? A great many look at their best in dainty bonnets or hoods, and so we bought largely of these in a variety of styles. A great many more look better in hats. We did not overlook this fact, and so in Hats, too, we show several pretty novelties in a large variety of colors. Call and see them. WEDDING BELLS.

A very pretty wedding ceremony took place on Tuesday, Oct. 16th, at St. Elizabeth's Church, Springfield. The contracting parties were Mr. Wilfred Daniel Macdonald, of Brookfield, and Miss Caroline Adelaide, youngest daughter of Mr. William Oakes, of Bradalbane. The bride-maid was Miss Flora J. Kennedy, of Bradalbane, and the groomsmen Mr. Daniel McDonald, of Springton. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. A. W. Daniel. The church was beautifully decorated and Miss Heelan presided at the organ. The bride received many beautiful and costly presents. We wish the young couple unbounded happiness.

At Georgetown, on Tuesday morning, after the arrival of the Souris train, Mr. George W. Morrow and Miss Laura Stewart, both of Souris, were united in holy matrimony by the Rev. E. T. Woodard. The weather was exquisite, and should be regarded as a good omen for future happiness. Mr. Joseph White acted as groomsmen, and Miss Minnie Morrow as bridesmaid. There were a very neat travelling dress in place of the costume prepared for the occasion. It is supposed that the mind of Mr. White was so upset on account of losing his bachelor friend that he allowed the value of the wedding dress to remain in sweet repose on Souris platform. On dit, that Mr. Joseph has already opened up negotiations for the purchase of the costume, as he is likely to require it if a certain lady in the near future. The lack of the dress did not, however, prevent a very merry party enjoying a sumptuous wedding breakfast at the house of Mrs. Anken. The party left by the afternoon train for Souris, carrying with them the good wishes of their many friends.

The reverend gentleman made an appropriate reply. The function took place at an "At Home" of the C. E. Society at the residence of Mr. William Boyver, Great George Street.

The Rev. A. W. Mahon of Marshfield left the Island this morning. He spent last Sunday in Souris with the Rev. J. G. Cameron and preached a most eloquent and impressive sermon in the afternoon in Bay Fortune Church. We are very glad to see that the health of the rev. gentleman was much restored last winter during his sojourn down south, and his many friends more confidently hope that a rest for the winter months will render him able to take up his work for the Master again at no distant date.

The Summerside Journal commenting upon the recent railway changes says: "In the promotion of the salary adjustments, however, we are sorry to find that one specially deserving case, that of Mr. R. M. Young, Assistant Storekeeper, has been overlooked. Mr. Young has been in the employ of the Prince Edward Island Railway for the past fourteen years, during which time he has proved himself a faithful, hard-working and efficient officer. During that period he has had no increase in his salary, which is small, entirely too much so for an official of his capability and experience. We trust, therefore, that the Department will take his case into favorable consideration, and that he will very soon receive at least that increase of salary to which he is unquestionably entitled, by reason of long service and faithful and efficient discharge of his official duties. This is only asking for our just rights, as the late re-adjustment has resulted in a considerable saving."

Heaven's Eye is Strengthened by the use of glasses. Yours will be also. Sooner or later every eye must come to spectacles. The instant such aids to sight are needed, they should be supplied without the least delay. The thoughtless are very apt to attend to the matter only when the necessity has become so serious that much harm has been done before the remedy is applied. The proper course is to have your eyes examined to determine scientifically just what your sight requires to render it in the highest degree useful. We can furnish any glass that can be desired. It may be inviting blindness to do without the great sight-savers and sight-strengtheners.
