In Memoriam
ISIDORE A. GALLANT

In memory of the late Isidore A. Gallant who passed away at the Charlottetown Hospital on June 8, 1954. He was the son of the late Amedee Gallant and Mary Gallant. After receiving his education at Rustico Cross School, he entered Prince of Wales College where he graduated as first class teacher. He taught school in the western part of the Island for a number of years, then decided to go to the U. S. A. where he obtained work as conductor, then motorman on the street cars in Dorchester, Mass. After some twenty years of service he then decided to go to Florida. After three years he returned to P.E.I. where he met Mrs. Agnes Blaquiere and they were married on November 25th.

Mr. Gallant took up farming in Rustico and was very successful. Having heard of Credit Unions Mr. Gallant began studying it, getting others interested in it also. Then he finally decided to form one, the St. Augustine Credit Union. He was made treasurer of this Union, holding this office for some twenty years or so until his hearing became too bad to give justice to the members. But he continued to give assistance to the members as much as he was capable of.

Mr. Gallant took great interest in discussing and promoting all parish and community affairs. His passing was deeply mourned by all who knew him, old and young. He leaves to mourn his widow Mrs. Gallant and a step-daughter Mrs. now a Sister in Indo China, also the following brothers and sisters: Angus A. Rusticoville; Joseph, Bindloss, Alberta; Domy, Trenton, New Jersey; Nicholas, Mount Carmel; Peter R., Camille and Frank, Oyster Bay, and Mrs. Frank J. Arsenault, Summerside.

The funeral which was largely attended by relatives and friends, took place from his late residence on Thursday morning, June 10th, 1954 to St. Augustine R. C. Church where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by the parish priest Rev. Clarence Pitts, who also conducted the service at the grave. The pall bearers were Emile Gallant, Mathias Doucette, Hubert Blanchard, Felix Pineau, Cyril Buote, Thomas Kneabone. R. I. P.

HAMPTON

Mrs. Murchison MacEachern returned from the Prince Edward Island Hospital on January 8, accompanied by the "Lucky Me" 9 lb. Centennial Baby Boy, born there on January 1st.

The following University students, have returned to their respective Alma Mater, following Christmas and New Year holidays enjoyed at the homes of their parents: Miss Dorothy Baxter, to Mt. Allison University; Mr. Ian MacQuarrie, to Dalhousie, and Mr. Donald MacQuarrie, to Regina, Sask., where he is employed with the Shell Oil Co.

Mr. Gordon Dixon, accompanied by Mr. Bill Cameron, has returned from an enjoyable motor trip through the Maritime, Ontario, and the New England States, where they visited relatives and friends.

Friends of Mrs. Joseph Dunsford are much pleased to learn that she has been discharged from the P. E. I. Hospital, following a successful major operation, and is convalescing while visiting relatives and friends in the City.

Relatives and friends are expressing interest in the announcement by Mr. and Mrs. Levi Prest, Grosse Isle, Magdalen Islands, of the engagement of their daughter Miss Theresa C. MacPhail, to Clifford R. Gass, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Gass, Appin Road, marriage to take place in the near future.

An enjoyable community reception and welcome to the community, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Buell, was fittingly carried out at Hampton Hall on January 8, where, in the presence of a large gathering of friends and neighbors, an address, expressive of the sentiment of all present, was read and presented to the Buell family, accompanied by gifts of money, smokers set, complete, and a fine electric reading lamp. Dancing wilded away the concluding hours of the evening's entertainment.

The concluding service of the Week of Prayer was held in Tryon Baptist Church on Jan. 8. Rev. Dr. Barass was assisted by Rev. Messrs. Baxter and Archer. Responsibilities of parents toward their children was set forth in

Cards of Thanks
Mrs. Isidore A. Gallant wishes to express her sincere appreciation to those who sent flowers, Mass cards, letters of sympathy, and all those who helped her in recent bereavement.

BREADALBANE

The friends of Mrs. Lorne Seaman, Breadalbane, are sorry to hear of her illness.

The Breadalbane United Church Ladies' Aid held a social evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Ripley on Thursday, January 13.

Mrs. Grant Willis and little son, Merrill Willis, North River, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Murray, Breadalbane, during the week-end of Jan. 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Sanderson and family, Charlottetown, were visitors to Breadalbane on Sunday, Jan. 16.

Mrs. George Buchanan, Fredericton, was a recent guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Seaman, Breadalbane.

Mrs. Hammond Newson, Breadalbane, was a visitor at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edilson Heaney, Clinton, during the week of Jan. 9th.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Chappell, Ottawa, are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Chappell, Breadalbane.

The inspiring address of the speaker, Rev. Mr. Archer, in the address of the evening, to a large, representative, and attentive audience.

Included among week-end callers, visiting the widely advertised Centennial baby boy (now a resident of Hampton) and his parents, were, Hon. Frank Myers, M. L. A. and Mrs. Myers, to offer congratulations.

Unfavorable roads and weather conditions were not a deterrent to the attendance at the services of public worship in this pastoral charge on January 9, to hear the impressive message taken from the words: "It is the Lord; Let Him do what seemeth good," and to blend their voices in song with the choir, in this service CE.

NEW GLASGOW

The new fallen snow has given the countryside an appearance of the season's beauty, although it has interfered with the motor traffic. But then one has the thrill of setting behind old fashioned and enjoying an old fashioned sleigh ride. What could be more fun?

Mrs. Elsie Andrews accompanied by her son Fred spent the holidays with her mother Mrs. Somers and brother Ira.

Miss Elva Stevenson of the Civil Service Ottawa accompanied her brother Robert and Mrs. Stevenson of Saint John to their Island home, arriving on Christmas eve, where they were the guests of Mrs. R. W. Stevenson and family. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McDonald also gave them a dinner party on Sunday. Leaving on return to their respective homes on Sunday evening.

Mr. George Stevenson was the welcome guest of his mother Mrs. Lorenzo Stevenson and other members of the family for the past couple of weeks. He also renewed many old time acquaintances.

Mr. Errol Stevenson of Fort William, Ont., who has been spending a happy holiday and the festive season with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Stevenson, left on return Friday morning.

Mr. Hilton McMillan of Edmontan, spent the Christmas holiday season with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McMillan. Mrs. McMillan and two children Garry and Sandra arrived two months ago. Hilton left on return Friday eve.

Miss Louise Dorion is spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Angus Dorion.

Among those entertaining friends during the holidays were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dickieson and Mr. and Mrs. Leith Dickieson where square dancing was enjoyed at the respective homes.

Mrs. Warfield Orr was a welcome guest at the Andrew home during the holidays.

Mrs. Chalmers Laird was hostess to the Mission Band on Sunday afternoon. Miss Myrna Smith led the devotional period, during which several carols were sung. Mrs. Andrew read a chapter of Chant of India, also gave several scenes in flowergraph which were quite interesting. The following are the new slate of officers, which were installed by Mrs. Foster Seilar: president, Myrna Parkman; treasurer, Howard Laird; secretary, Gloria Houston; leader and World Friends secretary, Mrs. Andrew. Next meeting is to be in New Glasgow School house at date to be decided. At the close Mrs. Laird, assisted by Mrs. Bruce Moffatt served dainty refreshments, which were greatly appreciated.

Miss Shirley Moffatt was hostess to the Brookfield Young Peoples Union on New Year's eve. About thirty young people along with Rev. Mr. Blaikie took part in a very interesting program, which was in keeping with the Spirit of Christmas. Mrs. Davis Moffatt assisted by her daughter Shirley and Marion served a delicious lunch. All left for their homes with the feeling the old year had an enjoyable ending, and with the hope that the New Year will be a bright one for the work of the Y. P. U.

Mr. and Mrs. Heath Houston entertained a number of their friends to a card party recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Nicholson also were entertaining, where another card party was enjoyed.

Among those returning to their studies were Donald Hill to P. W. C. and Marion Moffatt and Sheila Dickieson to Notre Dame Academy.

Mr. and Mrs. Millar Orr were dinner with all the delicacies 5th, the occasion being the birthday of Wm. Andrew. A chicken Continued on page 14
