The carol service in the First Methodist church last evening given by the church choir was one of well-selected and beautiful music. The carols themselves were all sung well, "Come to the Manger in Bethlehem" being the best. In the rendition of the choruses, "And the Glory of the Lord," Handel, and "Gloria Patri, by Barnby, the choir displayed its strength and perfect balance. Mrs. Roome sang Tennyson's "Crossing the Bar" to Sir Arthur Sullivan's music. She was accompanied by Miss Large on the violin and on the organ by Prof. Watts. Miss Large also gave a violin solo. The quartet by Mrs. Roome, Mrs. Watts, and Messrs J. A. Moore and F. H. Beer was very beautiful. The soprano and base and the enchanting alto and tenor made it one of the best. Prof. Watts rendered some delightful instrumental music, the "In Paradisium" of Dubois being particularly excellent. A selection from Guilment was played in a way that will not lessen his reputation as an executant. The National Anthem closed the service.
