

The Right Honorable the Countess of Westmorland, and a numerous party, returned to town on Saturday evening from an excursion to Three Rivers.

We are unavoidably compelled to postpone the insertion of the Report of the meeting at the Scotch Church, on Tuesday last, upon the Glebe Land question, until our next.

We feel pleasure in announcing, that Mr. Lawrence M'Laren, of Hermitage, late pupil of Mr. Mackie-son, Surgeon, Charlottetown, continues to acquire repeated academical distinctions in his medical career.
In addition to two prizes, which he formerly obtained at the University, we quote the following, from the Glasgow Herald:

"Portland-street School of Medicine, Session 1839-40.
Senior Class of Anatomy—Second Prize, Lawrence M'Laren, Prince Edward Island."

"Andersonian University, Session 1839-40.—Senior Class of Practice of Physic—Prize, Lawrence M'Laren, Prince Edward Island."

TO THE EDITOR OF THE COLONIAL HERALD.

Sir: In order more fully to explain the munificent privilege granted by the British and Foreign Bible Society to their Auxiliaries, in reference to furnishing the poor with copies of the Scriptures, for the use of Schools, referred to in the accompanying advertisement—may I request of you to give insertion to the circular and regulations issued by the Committee of that Society upon the subject, and published in the Bible Society Reporter—copies of which I send you.

I am, Sir, respectfully yours,
J. WADDELL,
Corresponding Secy. P. E. Island Auxiliary Bible Society.

June 20th, 1840.

To the Committee and Officers of the Auxiliary and Branch Bible Societies and Associations.
British and Foreign Bible Society, January 15, 1840.

Dear Friends—Our Committee have recently had the subject of a more liberal supply of the sacred Scriptures being afforded to Sunday Schools brought under their notice. Together with this interesting subject, another, not less important, has undergone much consideration, viz. How to make the Scriptures more accessible to the people generally, than they have hitherto been. The great interest excited upon the subject of Education in all quarters, and the portentous aspect of the times, have both had much weight in the minds of our Committee during their deliberations.

We have now the satisfaction of acquainting you with the result, viz:

1. To offer, on the part of the Society, to supply schools for the poor of every kind with copies of the Nonpareil Bible, which costs the Society 2s. 6d., at Eighteen-pence; the New Testament (Brevier), which costs the Society 1s. 6d., at Sixpence.

2. To withdraw the restriction hitherto laid upon all copies supplied for Sunday Schools; and to allow the children to carry the books home, and to furnish themselves with copies at the prices named. The children in all other Schools, it is designed, shall enjoy the same advantage.

3. To allow, on the part of the Auxiliaries, Branches, and Associations, a general sale of this particular Bible and Testament, at the peculiarly low prices that have been named.

We need hardly point out to you, that, in the adoption of these measures, the Committee feel that they are making a very considerable sacrifice on the part of the Society; but they proceed with the greatest cheerfulness, actuated as they are by one simple desire to promote the general interests of religion in their own beloved country, in the present singularly eventful and interesting crisis of its history.

They are further persuaded, should the funds of the Society be materially impaired by this extensive boon, that the friends of the Society will not be backward to answer any call that the Committee may deem it necessary to make on their increased exertions and liberality, to supply the deficiency.

ANDREW BRANDRAM, } Secretaries.
GEORGE BROWNE, }

The following are the Supplementary Regulations alluded to last month:

It is to be distinctly understood that the object in view, in this great reduction in price, is to benefit the poor, and to facilitate the possession of the Holy Scriptures by every young person in Sunday and other Schools throughout the kingdom; and that it is not intended to authorise the sale of Bibles or Testaments to Booksellers, or any other party, for the purposes of pecuniary advantage.

In carrying this important measure into practical effect, it is necessary to observe:—

1. That the distribution, both to Schools and to the poor, shall be made through the medium of our Auxiliary and Branch Societies and Associations.

2. That in order to guard against an abuse of the privilege thus granted, every order from the Committee or Superintendent, or other recognized Officer of a School, shall be in writing, and shall specify the average number of children attending such School. Payment to be made to the Secretary or Depository of the local Society or Association, before the books are delivered.

3. That Schools which are not situated within the limits of an Auxiliary or Branch Society or Association, shall be at liberty to apply directly to the Parent Society, in order that such applications be referred to the nearest Auxiliary, or to the Agent of the District.

4. That all applications from non-Subscribers, for liberty to purchase Bibles and Testaments at these greatly reduced prices, for distribution among the poor, be considered and decided in the Committee of the local Society or Association. And that all applications from Annual Subscribers of One Guinea and upwards, for liberty to purchase beyond the extent of their present privilege, be subject to the same regulation.

5. It is recommended that the copies of these two Editions of the Scriptures, similarly bound, which are now on hand in the Depositories of our local Societies, be issued at the reduced price of 1s. 6d. and 6d. If it be deemed of importance by any Society, the loss may be placed to the account of the Parent Society.
