

NEWSY NOTES

By J. A. Clark, D.Sc.

British Plans
The following information was secured from the December monthly news letter issued as "This is Britain": Ten thousand young women have joined the British Territorial (reserve) army.

Television
Last year, when we were in Britain, we had an opportunity to see friends television and Glendon-on-Sea, Essex County, seventy-five miles from where it was being broadcast from the Skyline, on the grounds of the Festival of Britain.

Athlete Fellowships
The Athlete Fellowships for research in engineering were first established for Canadian students in 1951. The selection boards meet at eleven Canadian Universities, to choose, each year, 38 young Canadian "Athlete Fellows".

The Wenvoe giant transmitter, near Cardiff in Wales, the fifth and most recent BBC Station, was opened in August, and will reach in Wales and the West of Scotland, another four and a half million potential viewers.

Christmassy programme schedules have been arranged, and drama, variety shows, children's features, pantomimes and Yuletide parties will be distributed from the main London studios throughout the television network of Britain.

IN MEMORIAM

LESLIE LAWRENCE EDWARDS

It was on November 22nd, the saddest time of all the year when leaves are falling and all nature seems to be dying, that the angel of death visited the Dartmouth County Hospital and took from this earth to his true home in Heaven, Leslie Lawrence Edwards, dearly beloved son of Lawrence Alfred and Mrs. Edwards (nee McDonald).

Leslie, as he was most familiarly known to his many young friends, was just past nineteen years of age, having been born on June 5, 1933. He was a very intelligent and lovable boy, and had the happy faculty of making friends easily.

Despite the best of medical treatment and careful observation in the Victoria General Hospital, Halifax, his condition did not improve and later resulted in blindness. He was then enrolled in the Halifax School for the Blind to try to further his education and fit him for life in the dark road that must of necessity be his.

The great profusion of flowers, beautiful wreaths and sprays, as well as the numerous cards and messages received by his parents, all testify in glowing terms to the popularity of this young man with all his friends who now unite their sorrow with that of his parents, brothers and sisters, namely Rita, Tona, and Cathy, and brothers Borden and Wilfred, all of whom are at home.

His funeral which was very largely attended took place from the home of his grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McDonald, 75 Ambrose Street, where service was conducted by the Rev. T. H. B. Somers who also held the service at the graveside in the People's Cemetery. Hymns sung were "Abide With Me" and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus".

Wreaths: Mother, Daddy, Sisters and Brothers; Joe and Kay Henderson; Chief and Petty Officers H. M.C.S. Wallaceburg, Halifax.

Christmas At Sanatorium

The Provincial Sanatorium Commission takes this opportunity of thanking all firms, organizations, and individuals who assisted in making the Christmas Season at the Sanatorium so pleasant.

Thanks are due also the Rotary Club for their annual visit to the children in both the Tuberculosis and Polio sections. Details of this visit were carefully arranged by Mr. F. A. Large, chairman of the youth committee. Mr. Charles Wilkins as Santa Claus dispensed beautiful gifts of clothing and toys which had been attractively wrapped by Miss Iphigene Arsenault and Miss Verna Darrach of the Red Cross Society.

On Christmas Eve, through the kindness of R. T. Holman Limited, Santa Claus, accompanied by his assistant playing the accordion, and Mr. R. E. Sellers visited each patient in the institution, distributing candy and fruit to all.

Mission Band Holds Christmas Concert At New Glasgow

The Sunbeam Mission Band gave a beautiful Christmas service on the evening of December 21st in the United Church, which was prettily illuminated with trees, icicles, lights and candles. During the Nativity scene, which was under a bright star.

The members of the choir in their pretty gowns, came quietly up the aisle singing a Christmas carol as they took their places in the choir loft. They were followed by the shepherds and Wise men, who gathered around the cradle, five little girls in pretty yellow dresses came on the scene and sang a carol.

A large congregation enjoyed the children's service which was under the leadership of Mrs. Gough and Mrs. Andrew, assisted by Miss Elsie Stevenson, Mrs. Murray Orr and Mrs. Elbert Hill. The program presented was as follows: Quiet music was played as members entered, and the call to worship was delivered by Mrs. Gough. The hymn, Jesus Child, Us Shine was followed by the Purpose, prayer and a recitation, "Welcome", by Evelyn Jean Moffatt. Solo—Joan Stevenson. Recitation: "He Was Only A Babe"—Ella Laird. Solo—Linda Orr. Recitation—Norma Parkman. Exercise—Ruth and Stewart Johnston. Scripture lesson—Doris Andrew. Prayer—Rev. Geo. Gough. Recitation—Carol Cole. Story in Song—Aronna McAusland. Exercise: "Gifts for the World"—by Mrs. Murray Orr, Myrna Smith, Chester Moffatt, Marjorie Cole, Orville Smith, Jimmie Stevenson, Marion Moffatt, Freddie Andrews, and Nellie Andrew, followed by a duet, "Sweet Peace", by Avonna and Doris, and recitation by Howard Laird. Hymn: "Angels We Have Heard On High". Recitation—Myrna Smith. Exercise: "The Guiding Star"—Nellie Andrew, Avonna McAusland, Marion Moffatt, Hazel Parkman and Myrna Smith, with the choir singing "A Star Of Wonder". Quartette: "Silent Night"—Myrna, Avonna, Nellie and Doris. Offering and the dedication, "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow". Solo: "O Holy Night"—Doris Andrew. The Christmas Story by Mrs. Gough. Pageant: "The First Christmas"—Marjorie Cole and Jimmie Stevenson, Mary and Joseph. The shepherds were Chester and Charles Stevenson, while taking the part of the Wise Men were Lyall Parkman, Freddie Andrews and Orville Smith.

The little cherubs who sang "Away in the Manger" were, Carolyn, Evelyn and Ruth. In the choir were Miss Anne Stevenson, Mrs. Murray Orr, Myrna, Avonna, Marion, Doris, Nellie, Norma and Hazel, who sang as a duet, "Hark The Herald Angels Sing". Hymns sung during the pageant were, "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear", "While Shepherds Watched Their Flocks By Night", "O Little Town of Bethlehem", "We Three Kings of Orient Are". The congregation joined in the closing carol, "O Come All Ye Faithful". Benediction was pronounced by Rev. George Gough.

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of Mrs. Alden Moase who departed this life, January 3rd, 1949. Peacefully sleeping, resting at last, Her weary trials and troubles are o'er, In silence she suffered, in patience she bore, Till God called her home to suffer no more. Fondly Remembered by Husband and Family. IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of Mrs. C. M. Howatt, who departed this life, January 3rd, 1951. The passing years can never change My thoughts of her so dear, Fond memories linger every day, Remembrance brings her near. Somewhere beyond the sunset, Where loveless never dies, The lives in the land of glory, midst the blue and gold of the skies. Sadly Missed and Lovingly Remembered by Her Family and Brother Sidney.

TIMELY NOTES ON TOPICS CONNECTED WITH Silver Fox and Mink Farming

The Canadian Fur Auction Sales Company (Quebec) Ltd. mink offerings just prior to Christmas created a lot of interest, and despite the large offerings in previous auctions 50 per cent of the 66,000 skins was disposed of. Buyers were Canadian and New Yorkers principally. Good quality pelts were in best demand. Standards consisted of nearly 45,000 skins, 3,000 of which were second. The demand for the better dark mink including females was a feature and as a whole prices were little changed from the previous offerings, although some of the in-between grades appeared to be a little weaker. As mentioned, both New York and Canadian dealers favored the best grades of fine dark mink.

Pastel Mink was figured 60 per cent sold. The demand was spirited and although the collection was not quite as good as the previous one there was strong buying for Canadian accounts and the best grades by New York dealers. The cheaper grades did not receive the same attention. Silverblue mink attracted brisk buying especially for the best qualities including Breath of Spring. Again it was Canadian and New York dealers who bid against each other for the quality grades. Prices were on a par with previous sale. Miscellaneous mutations were about 60 per cent sold but this figure does not give the full picture as Sapphires which were outstanding in both quality and price were practically 100 per cent sold, and Whites had a turnover of 75 to 80 per cent. The weak spot was the Aleutian offering, which attracted only limited interest and of which a small percentage was sold. Sapphires reached a top price of $60.50 for males and Whites brought as high as $50, also for males. Moderate interest was shown in Kohinur and Blu Frost.

Here is a brief of prices:—Ranch mink 1 part 2, dark males, $16.50 to $34.50; females, $11.50 to $17; extra dark and dark males $13 to $30.50; females, $9.75 to $15; 1 part 2 dark males, $12 to $19; females, $9.25 to $12.25; Pastels, 1 part 2 males, $24.50 to $39; females, $12 to $19.50; Silverblue 1 part 2 males, $19 to $26; females $13.75 to $15; Breath of Spring males, $27 to $45.00; females, $14.25 to $22.50; Stewart 1 part 2 males, $21 to $32; males, $14.50 to $17.

Ed Gold, who gives a running comment once or twice a week on the fur-trends, has the following: Many fur accessories departments have been humming to the tune of the cash register ring this month thanks to the happy increase in dyed black fox muffs and tiny mink piece stoles. Small scarfs, collarets, single skins for attachments and even fur bracelets were also drawing traffic, although the fox muff seemed to have captured the popular priced merchandise while mink in almost any tiny form appeared desirable. One comment on the above is that now the black fox muff is moving it may not be too long before other types of fox furs will be taken up, but of course one reason for the black fox muff selling so readily is that the price is only $22.

the guest of Miss Dawnella Adair for the New Year's holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lidstone of Summerside have as their guests Miss Annie MacFadyen and Miss Nancy White of Charlottetown.

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Melanson and three children arrived on Wednesday evening from Gander, Newfoundland, to spend some time in Summerside with Mr. and Mrs. Elizabeth Rogers before leaving for Sydney, N. S., where they have been transferred.

Mrs. Creelman MacArthur entertained a number of friends at her home one evening this week during the festive season.

Miss Helen Holman, student at the Toronto Conservatory of Music, is spending the Yuletide season with her mother, Mrs. Emma Holman, Summerside.

Mrs. Fred Bingham, Summerside, entertained at her home on Tuesday evening when three tables of bridge were in play.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Currie returned this week to their home in Summerside after spending a few days in Chatham, N. B., with their son-in-law and daughter, Flight Lieutenant and Mrs. Stuart Martin.
