

Local and Other Items.

FIRST SLEIGHING OF THE SEASON. BE EARLY to the concert and secure a good seat.

POLICE COURT.—This morning one Scott Act case was dismissed.

A CROWDED HOUSE is predicted for St. James' Y. M. L. A. Concert this evening.

FOR $8 you can have a good Nap Reecer made to order.—John McLeod & Co. dec 2 21

WE would invite attention to our large stock of winter Gloves, which we offer very cheap.—John McLeod & Co. dec 2 21

Y. M. L. A.—Concert this evening in St. James' Hall. Choice choruses, solos, vocal and instrumental music and readings. Price of admission, 15 cents.

DON'T forget the concert in St. James' Hall to-night. Read the programme and decide to go.

WON'T GIVE THE GHOST SHILLER.—One of the citizens of Northport, Cumberland, N. S., imagines his house is haunted, and is going to move his porch from the main house, as he thinks the ghost is in that part.

ARRIVED ALL RIGHT.—The steamer SIMON DUMAS from this port, with potatoes shipped by F. T. Newbery & Co., arrived at N. W. York all right. She will leave to return to Charlottetown on Thursday morning next.

"STORMY, cheerless weather! Everybody must be in the blues." Medicine at St. James' Hall to night—popular concert.

CIGARETTES, 5 cents per package; also, following at 10 cents: "C. P.," "Vanity Fair," "Athlete." Genuine Turkish, 30 cents for package of 20 cigarettes, at Watson's Drug Store.

BEAUTIFUL XMAS GOODS.—At the store there will be displayed a large assortment of beautiful Christmas goods at Watson's Drug Store, marked low in defiance of competition and to clear during the holiday season.

THE WILLIAMS PIANO.—Have you a Williams Piano? If not, come to the Williams Piano and Organ Co's office, Lower Queen St., and exchange your present piano or organ, and secure this leading piano that is securing the trade formerly given to American pianos.

POTATOES GETTING SCARCER.—The shipment of potatoes from Harvey Station, York Co., N. B., to St. John still continues, but the tubs are getting scarce. St. John dealers were there a few days since, but arrived too late to secure any.

OUR Christmas Cards and Booklets are now ready. We have a finer assortment than ever this season. Come and see for yourselves.—HAZARD & MOORE dec 2 1w cod

WORKING DAY AND NIGHT.—The New Glasgow Chronicle says: The Nova Scotia glass works are now working full time day and night. About 150 men are employed, and the pay roll amounts to about $1,000 per week. Some beautiful new designs and patterns in the line of tableware are now being run out. The business is daily increasing.

FARM AND STOCK.—The farm and stock of Mr. Buchanan will be sold by public auction, on Tuesday, the 2nd day of December next. The farm is situated at Lower Montague, and is one of the best in King's County. The stock is very superior and includes the fine trotting stallion, Almont M. See advertisement.

SOME GOOD CHAIRS.—It is boasted that there is not a domestic cigar in Watson's Drug Store—all imported goods. The stock has been added to this week by importations of the following brands: "Newton," "Pickard," "Spanish Girl," "Puritanita," "El Rico Queen's," "Mannel Garcia," Genuine "Little Queen's," "Figaro," "Lauriston," etc.

SMOKERS!—While the storm was raging everyone at Watson's Drug Store was busy opening up their goods—the largest assortment and best value in pipes, cigar and cigarette holders and cases, pouches, etc., ever imported at any time in Charlottetown. Those who contemplate giving presents at Christmas to their friends who smoke—and smokers themselves—should inspect the stock at the first opportunity.

A COAL SEAM DISCOVERED.—A correspondent writes to the Michibucto Review: Mr. Windup, of P. E. Island, while in the act of sinking an artesian well for Mr. Simon Bourgeois, says that after boring to the depth of thirty-eight feet the instrument came in contact with an eleven-foot seam of coal. The discovery forms the chief topic of conversation at present, and may eventually be a great boon to the place.

TO START A TOWN.—We learn from one of our exchanges that W. V. Brown, of Yarmouth, has purchased a block of 2 1/2 acres of land just south of the line of the W. & A. R., and running to the Camp-meeting grounds in Berwick, N. S. He proposes to show some of the American enterprise in getting it populated as a town. A plan has been prepared on which grounds for public lawns are appropriated in the centre and lots laid all around. The first man building a factory gets a corner lot 100x95 feet. Lot for post office and custom office in one corner is offered free. Church lot also free, 200x103 ft. All the balance is laid out in store and house lots.

FOR BERMUDA.—The bark Claribel, Captain John Walsh, loaded by A. Horne & Co., for Hy. C. Outerbridge, Hamilton, Bermuda, cleared yesterday, with a cargo valued at $12,070, made up as follows: 3000 bush garnet potatoes; 7000 bush black oats; 300 posts and poles; 100,000 laths; 25,000 feet of lumber; 3,000 brick; 13 b. l. oatmeal; 75 tubs butter; 2 cases harness; 1 cheese; 1 bl. ham; 1 bl. oyster; 2,250 codfish; 30 caddies tobacco; 25 tons hay; 25 ladders; 140 tons coal; 50 bush turpins; 125 cases canned fish; 1 crate cabbages; 34 horse on deck.

THE SPRINGHILL COLLIERIES.—The News says: Very few persons realize what an output of over 2000 tons of coal daily from the Springhill collieries means. Never before has the capacity of the different slopes been so highly taxed. Everything is running at high pressure. Day after day between thirteen and fourteen hundred persons find profitable employment. This in turn gives indirect employment to a large population. This draws its food supplies from the surrounding agricultural districts and thus the health and vitality of the collieries is perceptible along the line of the Intercolonial Railway as far as Quebec.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

Gladstone and Parnell.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.

The Women's National Industrial League of America has sent Hon. W. E. Gladstone a copy of its resolutions, unanimously adopted, endorsing and approving his course in requesting Parnell to retire from the leadership of the Irish party. The resolution will also be sent to Parnell.

CORK, Dec. 1.

The unfavorable opinion of the delegates of the National Party in the United States appears to be causing a reaction amongst Parnell's constituents in favor of the Irish leader's retiring.

LONDON, Dec. 1.

The meeting of the Irish members of the House of Commons to-day lasted until 11 30 to-night, when it adjourned till noon to-morrow, without action. Parnell made a speech in his own behalf. He displayed great passion throughout. In the House of Commons the Tithes Bill passed its second reading.

Schooner Ashore.

MONCTON, Dec. 1.

The schooner Reality, from Tignish, P. E. Island with potatoes, went ashore three miles east of Pt. Du Chenet this afternoon and the crew had considerable difficulty in getting through the heavy surf. Captain Miller got badly chilled, requiring attention on reaching the shore. The vessel and cargo will probably be saved.

Major-General Herbert, the new commandant of the Canadian militia, passed through here this evening, on his way to Ottawa.

Sad Suicide.

FREDERICTON, Dec. 1.

Last evening when Dr. J. H. Bridge, of St. Mary's returned from Church he was horrorstruck to find his wife dead on her bed. When he and his daughter went out after tea she was in her usual health and they left her alone as was the custom without the least apprehension. A cup standing within reach of the deceased was discovered with white crystals deposited pronounced to be strychnine. Dr. Coulthard, coroner, is holding an inquest.

Ottawa Notes.

OTTAWA, Jan. 1.

Sheriff Curtis has been appointed Returning Officer in the Charlottetown Scott Act election.

The Deputy Minister of Finance left for England to-day.

A telegram from Regina states that the Northwest Assembly prorogued to-day without voting supplies.

The general impression here is that the unaccountable action of the majority during the past session has seriously delayed the possibility of granting responsible government to the territories.

Labor Difficulties.

QUEBEC, Dec. 1.

The ship laborers have done so much harm in this port that a large deputation waited on Premier Mercier to-day, and asked that the charter of the Ship Laborers' Society be abolished.

Another Strike.

SPRINGHILL MINES, Dec. 1.

To-day all the pits are idle because of the refusal of the pit boys to work till one of their number, discharged for neglect of duty, is reinstated.

Another Incendiary Fire.

LAST night about half-past eleven, in the midst of the storm, the fire bell sounded. The fire proved to be in Fitzpatrick's livery and boarding stables, in the rear of the Pickard premises, Grafton Street, and adjoining the stable in which the last fire was started. The fire was so far advanced when discovered that nothing in the burning building could be saved. Two horses were burned. One was owned by W. H. Aitken, Esq., and the other by the proprietor of the stables. Both were valuable animals. Two buggies, a quantity of harness, robes, rugs, wraps, etc., and what fodder there was on the premises were also destroyed.

From Fitzpatrick's stables the fire spread to the adjoining building, which was occupied by the Woolen Company, Mr. Geo. D. Davis and a Mr. McMillan. Mr. Davison's two horses, Mr. McMillan's horse, and some hides, cracked feed, etc., that were in the burning building were fortunately saved.

The stable in which the fire started was destroyed; and the adjoining building was badly gutted. The first-mentioned building was rented from Mr. Pickard, of Rustico, and the latter belonged to Mr. Robertson, of Rustico. The Pickard building was insured; but we have not heard that the Robertson one was. Mr. Fitzpatrick had no insurance.

The firemen were on the scene in good time, considering the heavy travelling, and worked hard to keep down the flames.

The fire was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary. Mr. Fitzpatrick says that the stables were locked for the night before six o'clock because of the storm prevailing. It seems too bad that some clue cannot be obtained that will lead to the identity of the dastardly fire-bug.

Personal.

We regret very much to learn that George Peake, Esq., was taken suddenly ill yesterday, while making preparations for his child's funeral. His case is, we are informed, one of complete nervous prostration.

Jacques Renaudin, who fought with Napoleon I. at Jena, Friedland, Eylau, has just died in Paris, at the age of one hundred and six.
