MEETING LAST NIGHT.—The meeting in the Philharmonic Hall last night was addressed by Mr. L. H. Davies, M. P., and Hon. D. Laird, F. Peters and D. Farquharson. Mr. J. H. Good, President of the Young Liberals Association, presided.

A DISAPPOINTMENT.—A large number of ladies and gentlemen went to the Y. M. C. A. last evening expecting to attend the debate announced in yesterday's papers, but were disappointed to find that the Executive, fearing that there were too many counter attractions, had postponed it.

WOMAN AND HER INFLUENCE.—Rev. U. G. Miller lectured in the Christian Church, Great George Street, last evening, on "Woman and Her Influence in the World." The lecture was very interesting throughout, and was attentively listened to by a large audience. Rev. G. C. Palmer presided. A vote of thanks was tendered the lecturer, and a collection was taken in aid of the "Y's."

A MISTAKE POINTED OUT.—Somebody has put in circulation a statement said to have been made by somebody in Moncton: "I am not a Liberal, but I am free to confess that for the first time in twenty years I believe that the Liberals are going to carry the elections." The man in Moncton is mistaken. This is not the first, but the fifth time in twenty years that the Liberals have been going to carry the elections.—St. John Sun.

MARRIAGE BELLS.—The marriage of Mr. Benjamin P. Cole, of Bellevue, and Miss Emma N. Montgomery, daughter of Mr. David Montgomery, Registrar of the Prince County Registry Office, was solemnized at 8 o'clock on Thursday evening, in the presence of about forty of the immediate friends of the contracting parties. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Dill. Mr. and Mrs. Cole have The Examiner's best wishes.

THEY DIED ABROAD.—The Pioneer learns that on Wednesday, the 26th ult., a telegram went over the telegraph lines announcing the sad fact that Mrs. Herbert, who resided in Lacombe, Northwest Territories, during the late summer for the good of her health had died. It is also stated on the best of authority that her mother, Mrs. Johnson, who was also out in Lacombe, is also dead. She was staying at her son's or son-in-law's, and met with an accident. The cellar hatch had been up and she fell through, breaking her leg, from which she never recovered. She was about 60 years of age.

ENTERTAINMENT AT ST. PETER'S BAY.—A musical and dramatic entertainment came off at St. Peter's Bay on the 31st ult., for the benefit of the Catholic church. The Anderson Hall was well filled with an appreciative audience, so that the entertainment was a success financially as well as otherwise. The solos were beautifully rendered, and the choruses were sustained. The young lady who presided at the organ did her part in a most effective manner, as also did the violinist, who stirred the hearts of all. Too much praise cannot be given the Dramatic Club. The two dramas were well selected. All the actors played their parts to perfection, and were received with rounds of applause. May we hear from them soon again.

INDISTINCT CIRCUMSTANCES.—A case of destitution, verging on starvation, is reported from Rocky Point. The family of Mr. William Smith, husband, wife and five children, live in a little hut about 10 by 12 feet, without a partition. There are no windows in this hovel and no floor. The stove is bad and smoky; the children are barefooted and clothed in cotton rags. For the past two weeks there has been no flour nor food of any kind in the house. Only immediate aid, it is said, can save the family from starvation. It is said the father of the family is almost altogether blind for the poverty of his family. It is said he is free to take all the dry wood from Mr. Newson's farm but instead of doing so he has turned up the floor of his hovel for fuel. He merits no thanks, but his children deserve charity if their lives are to be saved.—Guardian.

The Post, the favorite organ of the foreign office, says: "The tripartite land commission in Samoa has concluded its work. The result is that German claims have been almost completely recognized. According to the Post 75,000 acres have been allotted to the Germans, 36,000 to the English, and 21,000 to the Americans. This allotment gives the Germans 75 per cent. of their claims, the English 4 per cent. and the Americans 3 per cent."

J. C. Robillard, one of Montreal's best known citizens, who has been sojourning in New York for two months, writes to a friend as follows: "Business in all lines is in a ruinous state, and trade is more prostrated in fact than in the midst of the war of secession. There are at least from fifty to sixty thousand houses, lots, stores, etc., to let, and 25 per cent., if not more of the tenants can absolutely pay no rent. If you see Mr. Hogan, of the St. Lawrence hall, tell him that none of the hotels here are making their salt, and that over one hundred millions have been lost in stocks alone. IN MEMORY

OF ANGELO, DAUGHTER OF EDWARD COADY, DIED FEBRUARY 12TH.

Silent—Hope's last sweet whisper; Vanished—that angel face; Gone is the soul of our darling To a happier resting place!

Echoes of heavenly murmurs Greeted her dying ear; And the angels carried our dear one To that bright, celestial sphere.

We hear not her step on the stair-way, We hear not her voice, so low, Murmur the happy memories Of the vanished "long ago."

There's a chair by the fireside empty, There is missing a fair child-face; And eyes of patient suffering And tender heavenly grace.

She is gone to her Lord and Father, To her blessed home above; And we long for our vanished darling, And her clinging, childish love.
