JUST RECEIVED.—Meiklejohn's Grammer at the Diamond Bookstore.

THE MUTCH HOUSE closes for the season on Saturday, the 12th inst.

PASSY BOOKS.—A full assortment at ten cents each at at the Diamond Bookstore.

EXQUISITE.—A beautiful lot of fancy handkerchief boxes just opened at the Diamond Bookstore—cheaper than ever.

REQUIRING REPAIR.—The platform around the Market House, especially on the south side, is in a very delapitated condition.

RENTED.—The large store known as the British Warehouse, has been leased by one of our dry goods merchants.

SCHOLARS.—Get a Combination Companion for your school requisites for 5 cents at the Diamond Bookstore.

A MEETING of the Abegweit Football Club will be held this evening at 7.30, at the office of Stewart & McNeill. A punctual attendance is requested.

BROKEN.—One of the panels in the west end door on the north side of the Market House has been smashed in.

POLICE COURT.—This morning a young man named Hutt was sent up for trial in the Supreme Court for the larceny of a horse, and a drunk was fined $3 or 14 days.

NOTICE TO FIREMEN.—The members of the Fire Brigade are requested to meet at the City Hall, on Sunday afternoon, at 1 o'clock, to attend the funeral of the late Rufus Macdonald.

FOR HALIFAX.—The steamer Fastnet, Capt. Howes, left for Halifax via intermediate ports at six o'clock last evening, with a general cargo and Mr. and Mrs. George H. Toombs as passengers.

FRATERNAL MEETING.—The first of a series of fraternal visits will be made by St. Lawrence Lodge to Wildey Lodge at their regular session on Friday evening, October 9. A good programme will be arranged.

HOOK AND LADDER CO.—A special meeting of this Company will be held this evening, to make arrangements for the funeral of the late Rufus McDonald. A full attendance wanted at 7.30 sharp.—D. Finlayson, Secretary.

CARRIAGES COLLIDE.—Two waggons collided on the Malpeque Road, near the residence of M. McLeod, Esq., yesterday afternoon. One of the vehicles was upset, and the occupants, two elderly ladies, were thrown out, one being badly cut about the head. Dr. H. D. Johnson is in attendance.

DROWNED.—Last Saturday Jeff D. Stewart and Mrs. Kennedy, while out boating on Lake Ponce de Leon, were drowned. Their companion in another boat could give no explanation. They were both married and were out without the knowledge of their partners.—Amherst Press.

MILITARY.—No. 3 Co., 82nd Battalion, will meet at the Drill Shed this evening, at 7.30 sharp. A full attendance of officers and men is requested.—D. Stewart, Capt.

The Engineers will meet at the drill shed this evening, at 8 o'clock, to make arrangements for attending the funeral of the late Corporal Macdonald.

NEW STORE.—Messrs. Peter Kelly and John McKenna, who for many years were in the employ of the late Owen Connelly, have opened business in Connolly's old stand, Queen Street, where they intend carrying on a full line of choice family groceries. Both young men having considerable experience in the business will no doubt receive a fair share of public patronage.

VETERANS, ATTENTION!—Those members of No. 1 Battery, G. A., who were comrades of the late Corpl. Macdonald at the time the Battery was under the command of Captains Pollard and Morris, respectively, and who are not now connected with the militia establishment, are requested to attend the funeral on Sunday, and march together as mourners.

A NARROW ESCAPE.—The little son of Mr. C. Benoit, Water Street, fell from a raft while sailing about the dock at Pownal wharf yesterday afternoon, and would have been drowned were it not for the plucky conduct of ex-policeman Thomas Costello who jumped over after him, and brought him ashore. Costello was working at the stone crusher near by at the time of the accident. Young Benoit was very much exhausted when rescued.

SHIFTING ORDNANCE COMPETITION.—In the competition at the Island of Orleans, Quebec, the Montreal team performed the "A" shift in 6 minutes and 8 seconds, and the "B" shift in 16 minutes. The Halifax team did the "A" shift in 5.47 2 5, and the "B" shift in 9 57 1 5. When the Island team had the "A" shift almost completed, the unfortunate accident which resulted in the death of Corporal Macdonald occurred, and the shift had to be abandoned. The accident, according to a despatch to the St. John, Sun was caused by the slipping of a skid. Macdonald's right arm and leg were badly fractured.

THE STATE OF INDIANA.—The steamer State of Indiana, Captain Doane, which left Charlottetown for Boston, via intermediate ports, at seven o'clock on Sunday morning, reached her destination on Wednesday morning at nine o'clock. She had a very rough time in the gale of Monday night. The wind blue at hurricane speed, and there was a tremendous sea on which broke over the steamer for and half. At midnight the steamer lay to off Little Hope light and remained there till daylight, when the wind abated some. There was a large number of passengers on board and all were terribly sick, but no one was injured. The steamer acted splendidly.

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES.—The special services conducted by Mr. E. Wells Bliss in the Large Methodist Church are daily increasing in interest. Rev. Mr. Carruthers offered the opening prayer. Last evening Mr. Bliss held the close attention of his vast audience as he spoke to them from Luke 16-19, the parable of the rich man and Lazarus. Mr. Clarke sang as a solo "The Clanging Bells of Time." At the after meeting quite a number manifested a desire to accept Christ as their Saviour. The Rev. Mr. Brewer, in a short but fervent address, announced that the Trustees of the Church would most cheerfully make the pews free to all on Sunday evening, at 7 o'clock, when Mr. Bliss would conduct an Evangelistic Service. Meeting again this evening at 7.30. Every pew free. Everyone invited.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT

Another Amendment and Another Division—Majority 24.

A Serious Operation.

OTTAWA, Sept. 11.

In the House of Commons, yesterday, on motion for the third reading of the Act respecting customs duties, Mr. Paterson, of Brant, moved an amendment regarding sugar duties. A long debate followed, during which Casey accused the Minister of corrupt practices. Chapleau told him he was uttering falsehoods. Casey insisted on the withdrawal of Chapleau's words,—when the Speaker told Casey he was out of order and that Chapleau was right under the circumstances. After telling Ouimet, to go to the devil, Casey sat down and a division was taken. The amendment was defeated by a vote of one hundred and two to seventy-eight, the Government majority being 24. The announcement was received with wild cheering from the Government benches. Beauvolut, a Grit who was opposed to Paterson's amendment, left the House before division.

Dalton McCarthy has given notice of a series of amendments to Controverted Elections Act, which comes up to-day. Nearly all the estimates have passed the House,—only half a dozen items remaining. The supplementary estimates will not be down until next week.

Senator Sullivan and Dr. Bergin, M. P., yesterday performed an operation on Mr. Devlin, making an incision below the ear. The operation was followed by serious symptoms, and his condition is serious.

WORK IN COMMITTEE.

Cold Day for the Grits.

Their Charges Disproved

OTTAWA, Sept. 11.

In the Public Accounts Committee, the inquiry was continued into the charges against Lieut. Governor Schultz. The evidence of the witnesses acquit Schultz completely.

The Printing Bureau investigation was resumed. Dansereau, of Montreal, Chapleau's personal friend, testified to never having received any money, commissions or any other consideration from parties who sold plant to the Bureau of Printing. If they subscribed money to the Conservative political funds he did not know of it. An altercation occurred between Lister and Tarte, the latter asking Lister if he meant to say that he doubted Dansereau's oath. Lister was forced to admit that he did not.

Mr. Brooks Young, President of the New England Paper Company, swore that his Company had only two small transactions with the Government in five years, and that La Presse newspaper never profited one cent by them. Mr. Lister pressed witness very hard, who at last turned on Lister and said that he would submit to no more bullying. He was an American citizen and the committee had no terrors for him. He was not going to stay there to suit the committee's convenience, and be bullied by Lister. Mr. Chapleau was no friend of his, and if he knew anything to his discredit, he had no objection to saying it.

It was a cold day for the Grit committee, Lister succeeding in nothing, except to provoke a quarrel with Tarte.

The Cochrane committee have concluded hearing evidence. The charges were all disproved, and the committee's report will undoubtedly acquit Mr. Cochrane unreservedly.

It is reported that Mr. Tarte will submit a report of his own to the Privileges and Elections committee, completely exonerat-Langevin, but condemning McGreevy.
