

Yanks Take Two From White Sox Braves Defeat Dodgers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Chicago's new "go-go" White Sox had that old "oh-oh" look Sunday after New York Yankees swept a three-game weekend series at Comiskey Park with a breezy 4-2, 3-0 doubleheader victory. The world champion team, now have a six-game success string of their own and a half-game lead in the American League.

In the National, Milwaukee Braves failed to win, pushing into a two-game lead over Brooklyn again with a come-back 10-7 romp against the Dodgers on the hitting of Henry Aaron and the near-perfect relief pitching of Ernie Johnson.

The Cincinnati Reds wound up only a game behind Brooklyn in third, running the season's longest winning streak in either league to seven games with a 6-2, 7-3 sweep at Pittsburgh. St. Louis also won a twin bill, belting Philadelphia 8-4 and 2-0.

SPLIT BILL

New York Giants and Chicago Cubs split their pair, the Cubs winning the opener 8-3 in 10 innings and the Giants taking the second game 6-2.

In the other A.L. games, Boston Red Sox, ending a losing streak by losing Ted Williams with a bruised elbow after he was struck by a pitch, took a pair from Cleveland 5-1 and 4-3. The Detroit Tigers won Baltimore 3-1. And the Kansas City Hammered Washington 7-2.

Bobby Shantz, the stubby "sore-armed" southpaw the Yankees got from Kansas City, became the first Yank pitcher to gain two complete games with a six-strikeout, seven-hit ob in the opener. Mickey Mantle, who pulled a groin muscle the nightcap, walloped his third home run with a man on as the Yankees broke up the opener with three runs in the fourth inning to beat Billy Pierce.

THROWS THREE-HITTER

Young Johnny Kucks threw a three-hitter in the nightcap for the Yanks, who again had a three-run fourth. Yogi Berra's RBI single and a two-run Elston Howard bagged it with Jack Harshman the loser.

The Dodgers knocked out Bob Buhl, who beat them eight times in 1956, for a 5-2 lead in the first inning behind Sal Maglie. But at

Yankees Edge White Sox, Dodgers Win, Braves Lose

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

New York Yankees drew first blood in the first "big series" of the new season in a 2-1 victory over Chicago White Sox Saturday.

Art Ditmar held the Sox to five hits. Andy Carey hit a homer after Billy Martin singled in the fifth.

Tony Kubek scored the run that proved decisive when third baseman Huber Phipps bobbled Bill Skowron's hopper for an error.

In the National League, Brooklyn beat St. Louis 4-2 on a two-run homer in the ninth by Charlie Neal. Pitcher Lindy McDaniel's first major league homer in the seventh tied the score. Roy Campanella homered in the second. Ted Lepcio and Jackie Jansen. Detroit Tigers knocked over Baltimore 3-0 with Duke Mass gaining a 3-1 record with a five-hitter in a night game. Al Kaline had three hits and joined Maas and Reno Bertoia in driving in the Tiger runs.

In the other night game, Kansas City defeated Washington 8-2. Harry Simpson drove in three knocking out Johnny Antonelli. Art Schulz's two-run double off relief man Marv Grissom broke a 2-2 tie and assured Warren Hacker of the victory. Daryl Spencer hit the only homer of the game in the second.

Jack Sanford struck out 10 Chicago Cubs and pitched a four-hitter in Philadelphia's 5-2 decision.

Cleveland's Early Wynn pitched Boston. Wynn helped himself with the Indians to a 5-4 triumph over Boston. Wynn helped himself with a two-run single with the bases loaded in the sixth. Two of the hits off Wynn were homers by Ted Lepcio and Jackie Jansen.

Iron Liege Wins The 83rd Kentucky Derby Saturday

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Calumet Farm's Iron Liege, lightly regarded son of Bull Lea following the scratching of stablemate Gen. Duke, won the 83rd Kentucky Derby by the narrow margin over Ralph Lowe's Texas-owned Gallant Man, Saturday.

In a driving finish, Willie Hartack sent Iron Liege across the finish line a nose in front of the favorite, finished fourth.

Round Table, owned by the Kerr Stables, of Oklahoma City, was third.

Mister Jive, owned by Jack Applebaum of Toronto, finished eleventh in fifth position part of running in field of nine after Liege as the winner.

It took a photo to establish Iron Liege as the winner.

The finish might have been altogether different except for a boner pulled by Willie Shoemaker aboard Gallant Man.

PULLED UP EARLY

Shoemaker told stewards after the race he misjudged the finish and pulled up his mount slightly about 70 yards from home.

Stewards viewing the movies immediately after the race said they showed plainly that Shoemaker raised up at that point. He saw his mistake, however and went back to work, missing by only a nose.

The time for the 1 1/4 miles was 2:02 1-5, four fifth of a second off Whirlaway's track record.

Iron Liege paid $18,800, $9.40 and $6.20. Gallant Man returned $5. and $4. Round Table $4 to show.

In chalking up the sixth derby triumph for Mrs. Gene Markey's famed Calumet Farm, Iron Liege proved that he was a worthy substitute for Gen. Duke. The latter was forced out of the $152,050 race by an injured foot.

The victory was worth $107,950 and boosted Iron Liege's total earnings to $162,580.

HARTACK'S FIRST

It was the first derby win for jockey Willie Hartack, who had only appeared once before in America's most colorful horse race.

Hartack was all smiles as he rode the bay colt into the winner's circle. He kept patting Iron Liege on the neck, saying: "Oh, baby! Oh baby!"

Next to the winner, Gallant Man picked up $25,000 for his owners, Round Table $12,500 and Bold Ruler, $5,000.

Betting at the parimutuel windows of Churchill Downs totaled only $1,401,017 — down $265,533 compared to derby wagers last year. The record was set in 1955 at $1,677,178.

Middleweight Don "Duck" Trainor of Charlottetown punched out an unanimous ten round decision over Mario Nini of Bathurst Saturday night but suffered a five stitch gash over his left eye in the tenth round which may prevent him from appearing against Ritchie Hill at the Sports Arena this coming Friday night.

The clever Charlottetown puncher was far ahead on points as he outboxed the Bathurst pugilist in every round but an accidental but in the final round opened the gash over Trainor's eye.

It was a tough blow for the City boxer and also for energetic promoter Ivan Docherty who has been working tirelessly to line up an outstanding card for the season's boxing opener here on Friday.

Trainor went into the fight Saturday night to tune up for his big chance here against Ritchie Hill on Friday.

But the proposed Hill-Trainor bout was not the only one on the card highlighted by the ten round main bout of Jackie Hayden, Stelarton and Edgar Stover, New York. And there's the ever popular conditioned Tiger Steel along with the Hill fight and the curtain raiser with Bobby Quinn of Charlottetown and Jimmy Gillis of New Glasgow.

The Quebec Aces Defeat Brandon Regals 4-2 Sunday

By TOM MITCHELL
Canadian Press Staff Writer

QUEBEC (CP) — Quebec Aces scored in each period to defeat Brandon Regals 4-2 Sunday and take a 3-1 lead in their best-of-nine series for the Edinburgh trophy.

A crowd of 10,358 saw the Aces take a 4-0 lead on goals by Stan Maxwell, Brent MacNab, Dick Gamble and Orval Tessier before the Regals could get into the game when he protested too vociferously to officials.

"I myself think it would be wonderful for junior hockey if the West can win the Memorial Cup," said Pollock after the game but he wasn't exactly being benevolent.

The refereeing, he said, was not good and he added "I say let them win it honestly. They can't win it honestly with that type of refereeing."

Pollock was ejected from Friday's game when he protested too vigorously a misconduct penalty to one of his players. Assistant coach Scotty Bowman took over.

The fifth and sixth games will be played here Tuesday and Thursday.

Dick Gamble fired what proved to be the winning goal at 7:31 of the third period on passes from Floyd Hillman and Bob Beckett, beating Brandon netminder Lucien Dechene on a hip-high drive from just outside the crease.

Dechene had 21 stops—10 on the opening period—while Aces Al Millar kicked out 19 Brandon drives.

Local Basketball Players Honor 1947 Navy Team

For a two hour period on Saturday evening they turned the basketball pages back ten years as a group of hoop stars of a decade ago got together at the Rendezvous Restaurant to honor the members of the Navy Basketball team of 1947.

Dies After Being Struck By Ball

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP)—William Spurgin, 12, died Saturday night at a hospital here, 10 days after he was struck on the head by a pitched ball in a sandlot baseball game. Friends said William was struck above the ear while batting in a schoolyard game April 24.

Local Basketball Players Honor 1947 Navy Team

This Navy team challenged the Dominion Intermediate Champions, the New Waterford Strands to an exhibition game and lost by a ten point score in a game played at Prince of Wales College.

Ten years older, most of them a little bit heavier but most of them still able to play basketball the players reminisced about games of the years gone by, swapped hoop stories and ate enough chicken to feed an entire Canadian football team.

Present at the gathering from that great Navy team of 1947 were Captain Joe Cullen, Walter LePage, Earl Smith, and Art Godkin. Missing were Frank John Johnston, Mike Hennessey and Donald MacLennan.

Among those present to honor the Navy team members were: Rev. Clarence Roche and Des Burge of the 1947 S.D.U. basketball team; Col. W. J. MacDonald, president of the City League at that time; Donnie MacLean of the P.W.C. team of 1947; Earl Nicholson and Bus Gay who played in the City League along with Wendell Gillis, Kip Ready and Mark Ladner of this year's City League Champion Trojans and Vern Garrett.

Walter LePage was master of ceremonies and Walter proved as capable in this role as he did at scoring points on a fast break in 1947. He introduced the different teams members, commented on the feats of each and kept the ball rolling throughout the discussion period following the dinner.

And as could be expected the discussion was on basketball. The group considered ways in which the game could be revived and

HOT AT LOW SPEED
City driving at traffic-jam pace demands a plug hot enough to prevent fouling. The new Auto-Lite Resistor Spark Plug with Power Tip gets hot faster, operates hotter to burn away fouling deposits which ruin ordinary spark plugs in city driving.

COLD AT HIGH SPEED
On the open road, higher speeds call for a plug cool enough to prevent pre-ignition. New Auto-Lite Resistor Spark Plug with Power Tip is the answer... because the projecting Power Tip is actually cooled by the richer air-fuel mixture to check dangerous high-speed pre-ignition caused by overheated spark plugs.

It's the Protruding Tip that Makes the Big Difference!

Power Tip is ignition-engineered for overhead-valve V-8 engines and for most overhead-valve 6-cylinder engines in all these cars: Buick, Cadillac, Chevrolet, Chrysler, De Soto, Dodge, Ford, Hudson, Imperial, Lincoln, Mercury, Motor, Monarch, Nash, Oldsmobile, Packard, Plymouth, Pontiac, Rambler, Studebaker.
