IN MEMORIAM

MRS. CHARLES P. BARTLETT

The death of Mrs. Charles P. Bartlett occurred unexpectedly in Halifax on August 19th. She was 41 years of age. She is survived by her husband Charles P. Bartlett, one son Derrell, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dawson of Tryon. The funeral service was held in Tryon United Church on Thursday August 21st, conducted by Rev. Irvine Hare, assisted by Rev. Lindsay Graves, pastor of the Tryon Baptist Church. The choir, under the direction of Dr. Peter MacDonald, led in the singing of the hymns 'The Lord's my Shepherd' and 'When the Day of Toil is done'. The Tryon Male Octet sang 'That Beautiful Land'. The pallbearers were Sheldon Dixon, Vance Dixon, Keith Thomas, Sheldon Howatt, Harleigh Howatt and Bertram Thompson.

"Yet love will dream and faith will trust (Since He Who knows our need is just). That somehow, somewhere meet we must. The truth to flesh and sense unknown. That life is ever Lord of death, And love can never lose its own."

CARD OF THANKS - Roy, Jean, Derrell and Charlie express their sincere appreciation to all their kind friends who sent flowers, messages of sympathy and who helped in so many tangible ways during their recent sudden and sad bereavement.

IN MEMORIAM - MRS. RUSSELL KEY - The death of Mrs. Russell Key occurred at her home at Foxley River, P.E.I. on Tuesday, October 7, 1958, following a lengthy illness.

Mrs. Key was the former Lulu Yeo, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John H. Yeo of Harmony, P.E.I. She was 69. She was stricken with an incurable disease about three years ago and for the past year was devotedly cared for by her sister Mrs. Lauretta Yeo.

Mrs. Key was a member of St. Peter's Anglican Church at Lot 11 and as long as her health permitted she attended worship regularly. She was also a member of the Woman's Auxiliary.

Besides her husband, she leaves three daughters, Isabel (Mrs. Emerson Barlow) of Eversley, P.E.I. Gretha (Mrs. Kenneth Cavanagh) of Ottawa, Ont. and Marlene (Mrs. Donald Pannett) of Markham, Ont. Two sons, John and Arnold preceded her here. Also left are her sisters: Mrs. Penrose Murray of Harmony, P.E.I. Mrs. Alice Naugler of Jamaica Plains, Mass., Mrs. Beatrice Dickie of Marlboro, Mass. Mrs. Lauretta Yeo of Victoria West, P.E.I. and Mrs. Lionel Cahill (Ethel) of Wallham, Mass. One sister Gertrude and two brothers, John E. and Thomas predeceased her.

The funeral was held on Friday afternoon at 2 p.m. from her late residence to St. Peter's Church. The service was conducted by the rector, Rev. M.J. Finlay assisted by Captain the Rev.

of reception of tenders. If not returned within that period the deposit will be forfeited. The lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

COMPENSATION NOTES - BONN (AP)—Eight European countries have sent reminders to West Germany that they have no reply to demands for compensation of their nationals who were victims of Nazi persecution. Britain, Norway, Denmark, France, the Netherlands, Luxembourg, Belgium and Greece originally raised the issue last year, sent identical notes to the Bonn government to request again via the Trans Canada Highway. They would "pave" a four-lane highway from Toronto to Montreal. Mr. McLeod, at wheel, and Diana Gibbens check directions before setting out on a mapped route.

L. Dignan, burial was in the adjoining cemetery. The pallbearers were all nephews: Clayton Yeo, John Murray, Chester Yeo, Shelton Yeo, George Key Jr. and Albert Yeo.

Thanksgiving Sunday was observed in both the South Lake Christian Church and the East Point United Baptist Church with a harvest festival service. The service in Kingsboro. The church was beautifully decorated, and the large display of fruits and vegetables which were brought in were donated to the South Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Massie have returned from their honeymoon, and are spending a few days with Mr. Massey's parents, before taking up residence in Ch'town. All good wishes extended to this young couple as they begin their lives together.

Mr. and Mrs. Hartley Jarman Kingsboro spent a weekend at Wood Islands where they met the guests of Mr. and Mrs. May Beaton and family.

A special meeting was held at the South Lake Christian Church on October 7th with Mr. Robert Porter of Milton, N.S. as guest speaker. He was accompanied by Mrs. Austin Kennerly Ch'town who spoke briefly to women's group.

Miss Margaret MacLaren, dentist nurse at the P.E.I. Hospital Ch'town spent the week-end at her home in Souris.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Scott Montague, were visitors to Kingsboro where they were the guests of Mrs. Sorrey's brother and Mrs. Gwyn Roberts.

The many friends of Miss Norma Garrett, East Bluff, will be pleased to see her again after being confined to her home through illness.

Friends and acquaintances of Mr. George Robertson, Kingsboro will be pleased to know that he is making a satisfactory recovery following his illness in the South Hospital. All hope that he will continue to improve.

Seaman Glen Stewart who is serving with the navy at Kingsboro, is home for a few days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stewart, Red Point.

Mr. Walter J. Jeremiah Kingsboro, accompanied by his son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Hugh MacKinnon, Fredericton, spent Thanksgiving Sunday with Mrs. Simpson's brother, Mr. Talbot Stewart and family, Red Point.

Friends of Mrs. E.D. Fraser North Lake, will regret to learn of her continued illness in the P.E.I. hospital where she has been a patient.

Mrs. Walter Dixon, East Bluff was hosted to the members of the United Baptist W.M.E. on Tuesday Oct. 14th.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Solomon accompanied by their son Roger Solomon and Mr. and Mrs. Walter MacLean, left recently on a motor trip to the Province of Quebec.

Mr. Harold Dicks, crew member of the ferry M/V Abegweit was a recent guest of his parents, Captain and Mrs. Nelson Dicks.

25,000,000TH ROAD MAP - The 25,000,000th road map was recently handed out by Imperial Oil. End to end, the maps company has distributed to Canadian motorists and tourists in past quarter century would go from coast to coast and back again via the Trans Canada Highway. They would "pave" a four-lane highway from Toronto to Montreal. Mr. McLeod, at wheel, and Diana Gibbens check directions before setting out on a mapped route.
