A GOOD YIELD.—Last spring, Thomas Meagher, of Pictou, N. S., purchased 1 1/2 bushels of White Russian wheat from Neil Fraser and sowed it. From that he harvested 3 1/2 bushels of good grain, and fully three bushels had been spoiled by hens and other destructive agencies.

HANDSOME CLOCK.—The handsome fret-work clock and case, made by Mr. John Strain, and shown at the recent exhibition, can be seen in the show window of Newson's furniture store. Beside the clock is a bottle of beans, and the person guessing the nearest to the number in the bottle takes the clock. The cost of a guess is only ten cents. The time for guessing expires on the 17th, on which day the clock will be disposed of.

The Rosebank Farm, the sale of which takes place as advertised on Wednesday next, on the premises, has been surveyed, and a plan thereof, prepared by John Ball, Esq., can now be seen at my office. McNeill, Auctioneer.

SCHOONER SOLD.—Says the Summerside Pioneer: The Favorite, which was stranded near the Station House, was sold on Friday for $25. Mr. Ellis Schurman was the purchaser. The hulk sustained no harm.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

Stabbed and Killed.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.

Frank Day, a young Canadian, was stabbed and killed at the corner of Clark and Jackson streets, at midnight, by an unknown man, who is still at large. Day, with two friends, met another party of three, all more or less intoxicated. As they passed, the strangers shouted, "Hurrah for Cleveland." Day turned around and shouted back in a spirit of fun, "What's the matter with Harrison?" The strangers immediately assaulted him and several blows were struck. A moment later one of the strangers plunged a dirk knife into Day's breast.

The Game Did Not Work.

OTTAWA, Nov. 3.

A statement emanating from Southern California has been freely published that members of the Canadian ministry were favored with decoy letters of the Murchison stamp, and to-day it came out that one of the cabinet ministers here at least was asked to express his opinion on the presidential election. Hon. Mr. Bowell, minister of customs, was to-day asked if he had received such letter and acknowledged that he had. Hon. Mr. Bowell is Past Grand Master and Sovereign of the Orangemen of British North America, and had the desired reply been furnished the effect on the Irish Catholics of the United States can well be imagined. He said, "it is very strange that I forgot all about this letter until coming up from Sherbrooke the other night, when in conversation with Sir John Macdonald, I remembered that I had received a letter sent apparently with a similar object in view to that which entrapped Lord Sackville. The letter came from Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan, and the writer, who claimed to be an Orangeman, pointed out that there was a large number of Republican Orangemen in Michigan, and asked that I would secure him a letter from the grand master of Ontario expressing his wish for the election of Grover Cleveland. With this letter, says the writer, we can carry the state and be favorable to whatever treaty you (Canada) desire." It is needless to say I refrained from giving my opinion.

Reformed Baptist Church.

WOODSTOCK, Nov. 3.

The ministers from whom fellowship has been withdrawn by the Baptist and Free Christian Baptist conference, have met in conference in the Main Street Baptist Church to agree on what is now best for them to do. As a result of three days' meeting they have organized a new denomination to be known as the Reformed Baptist Church. The form of doctrine agreed on is very similar to that of the F. C. Baptists, except that their views of sanctification are especially stated therein, and that baptisms by other forms than that of immersion will, in special cases, and by vote of the church, be accepted. About 60 members of the conference, ministers and delegates, have taken part in the proceedings, which have all been harmonious. The ministers present were W. Kinghorn, Geo. McDonald, B. Colpitts, G. T. Hartley, G. B. Trafton, C. Gravinor, A. Minard and Mr. Bibar, of Maine, Free Baptists; Aaron Kinney, (N. S.) F. C. Baptist; and Mr. Coy, Baptist, and Price, Methodist. The church organized here will have G. W. McDonald for pastor. Other churches will be organized in other parts in a short time.
