Local and Other Items.

MAILS.—Five bags of mail matter arrived in the city from Georgetown shortly after seven o'clock last evening.

THE SPECIAL TRAIN which left Charlottetown for Georgetown at ten o'clock last night, will return this evening with mails and passengers.

THREE MONTHS IN JAIL.—A Fredericton despatch says that the colored women, Robinson and O'Rea, have pleaded guilty to a charge of committing common assault on Charles Wheary and been sentenced to three months' imprisonment.

EVICTED IN IRELAND.—Six tenants were evicted from their holdings on Col. Charles Tottenham's estate, Armaghstown, County Wicklow, last Tuesday. A force of 100 military and an equal number of police were present to dispossess the tenants by force if necessary, but they were not needed.

CRUSHED TO DEATH.—A young man by the name of Sherburne Rath, son of Walter Rath, of Harmony, was instantly killed last Tuesday morning at the barn of T. B. Chisholm, of Lower Onslow, by a hay press falling on him whilst it was being unloaded from a wagon. The press weighed 800 lbs., and fell directly on him, extinguishing life almost instantly.—Hz. Mail.

NEW STEAMER.—A St. John despatch says that the steamer Monticello has been bought in New York for the bay service. She is old but is said to be a very fine vessel. The price is understood to be in the vicinity of $50,000. A large number of St. John with some Digby and Annapolis business men will form a company that will own and control her. About $90,000 was spent in repairs on this boat by her New York owners a few years ago.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mrs. Mahoney, a widow woman, about 55 years of age, living on the Mountain Road, at head of Botford street, Moncton, was found dead, on Wednesday morning about daylight. She had taken a light a short time before to go to the water closet, and not returning, search was made and she was found lying on the floor in the passage way, dead. The lamp was upset, and the deceased had evidently been attacked very suddenly. She had been complaining for some time of trouble about the heart, and death is supposed to have been caused by heart disease.

SHE SWALLOWED A NEEDLE.—About ten months ago Annie Ozburn, now but two and a half years old, became ill, and, in spite of the best doctors of Atlanta, Georgia, where she lived, grew worse and worse, until they said she would surely die. But she didn't; she lived, and a month or two ago began to get better. A few days ago she complained of a pain in her side, and her mother found that on the left side, just below the ribs and under the skin, was a hard substance. A doctor came, and, cutting down, brought out a needle nearly two inches long. It was supposed that it was the cause of her illness.

QUICK WORK.—Says the Halifax Herald: The steamer Harlow was chartered by Matthew, McLean & Co., Souris, P. E. I., to load a cargo of oats for this port, with the privilege of carrying mails to Magdalen Islands. She sailed from Halifax at 2.15 on Saturday, Jan. 5th, proceeded to Souris, took on board the mails which she landed at Magdalen at midnight, Jan. 5th. Returned to Souris, loaded cargo, 21,000 bushels oats and other produce, and arrived at 3.30 p. m., Jan. 9th. Capt. Farquhar is loud in his praise of Messrs. Matthew, McLean & Co., who, notwithstanding the unfavorable condition of the weather, loaded his ship in the remarkably short time of twenty-four hours. This is said to be by far the best work ever done at Souris, and possibly has never been surpassed at any port on the Island.

LAND SLIDE IN QUEBEC.—A serious land slide took place at Berthier, about sixty miles from Montreal, on Monday last. A farmer named Savignac heard a rumbling noise like an earthquake. Rushing out of the house he was astonished to see the land about fifty yards from his house settling down. The poor man saw his barns tumbling to pieces, his cattle getting crushed and the earth rolling with a terrible noise into the river, three hundred yards distant. What was a high bank along the river has disappeared and in its place is an enormous cavity, some five or six acres in extent and 20 or 30 feet deep. There must have been a vast subterranean cavern, for the thickness of the crust, plainly visible, is not more than a couple of feet through. Several horses and cows were killed. Many barns were smashed to pieces, and the scene is a sorry ruin. A fresh crack in the earth, six inches wide, made its appearance in another place, and further developments are expected. The spot has been visited by hundreds of people, and great excitement prevails.

Personal.

Rev. W. B. King, Rector of St. Luke's, Halifax, has gone to Boston on a fortnight's vacation.

It is reported that Queen Victoria has ordered that foreign married ladies presented at court must be accompanied by their husbands. Messrs. James E. Grant, Charlottetown; A. J. Macdonald and M. Macdonald, Georgetown; and John McLean, Souris, were registered at the Halifax Hotel, Halifax, on Wednesday.

A London despatch says that Sir Somers Vane has left on a trip round the world. He will land at San Francisco in May, and go to Vancouver, then across by Winnipeg and Montreal to Halifax, then to New York and Washington, which he will reach in June, and then home via New Orleans and Jamaica.

Montreal Gazette: An amusing incident occurred in the course of the Governor General's reception at Ottawa on New Year's Day. After Professor Wiggins had been introduced to His Excellency, and was passing the Crown Ministers with a bow, Sir John stepped forward and, offering his hand, said aloud: "Why, Wiggins, you go by like a comet!" This created a suppressed laugh, in which His Excellency joined; but the professor was equal to the occasion, for he said: "Comets always go swiftly by the sun." Subsequently he remarked that he was greatly obliged to the Prime Minister for catching him at perihelion.

Canada's Progress.

PRINCIPAL GRANT'S REMARKS IN REPLY TO THE CIVIC ADDRESS.

In the course of his formal reply to the address of the corporation of Kingston, Principal Grant spoke as follows:

"During my absence I visited the southern hemisphere, saw something of the great oceans, and of the five continents of the world, and yet all the time was under one flag. Everywhere I felt at home—a British citizen was paying visits to his fellow citizens. In such circumstances who could help feeling more strongly than ever the power of these sacred bonds of unity that have been woven by many generations of forefathers? The warm welcome everywhere extended to me was not on my own account. I was a fellow-citizen and a fellow-colonist, and therefore received a double welcome.

Though at home in the great cities under the Southern Cross, you can well understand the warmer feelings that the sight of Vancouver awakened. Sixteen years before I had stood on the shores of the beautiful inlet on which it is built. Then seas of mountains declared impassable, trackless prairies and forests pronounced unfit for settlement and impracticable for railways, separated me from my own fire-side. Now, I arranged by telegraph the day and the hour on which I could breakfast in Ottawa and dine in Kingston. In less than six days I crossed the continent, seeing signs of life, of progress, and all the promise of a mighty future. Not far from the grain elevator and the mill, everywhere stood the church and the school. Laus Deo!

The Middleton Divorce Case.

An Ottawa despatch to the Boston Herald has the following: One of the biggest sensations in high life the Dominion has ever been treated to, promises to be the outcome of the Middleton divorce case, in which William Middleton, nephew of Gen. Sir Ferd'k Middleton, will seek a divorce from his wife, nee Mary Wise, before the Senate which assembles here this month. Mrs. Middleton, it will be remembered, deserted her husband and left for the United States with a young bank clerk. But it now appears that other individuals holding high social and political positions, are to be called upon to say what they know about the case, and from what can be learned more than one prominent personage at the Dominion capital will regret the revelations which are to follow. Mr. Middleton, who is well off as regards this world's goods, has left no stone unturned to collect corroborative evidence of his wife's guilt, and in doing so he has made some startling discoveries which promise to be the sensation of the day.

Interesting Information.

The following information, which is taken from Whittaker's Almanac, will be read with interest:—The population of England and Wales in 1570 was 4,160,221. Ireland and Scotland contained together less than 1,000,000. So that the Kingdom Elizabeth ruled over, and with which she defeated the Spanish Armada and taught the Dutch good manners, had only about the same population as Canada has to-day. In 1670 England and Wales contained 5,773,646 inhabitants, and Ireland and Scotland about 1,000,000 each. This shows a gain of but 2,600,000 in a century. In 1770 the population of England and Wales had risen 6,000,000, and of the whole United Kingdom to 12,500,000. She was then acknowledged mistress of the seas, and exercising immense influence in the affairs of the world. In 1870 the population of the United Kingdom was 31,857,000—of which England and Wales contained 22,712,000. In 1881 it was 35,241,000, and is now estimated to be 38,000,000. It cannot fail to be noted that notwithstanding the immense immigration there has been from England, Ireland and Scotland since 1770, the increase of population has been much more rapid than in any previous century of their history. Between 1570 and 1770, two hundred years, the population of the United Kingdom only increased from 5,100,000 to 12,500,000, or 240 per cent. While during the 119 years since 1770 the population has increased 316 per cent. The population of the United Kingdom has about doubled since the battle of Waterloo was fought.

The price of 3 per cent. British consols is universally accepted as the measure not only of national credit, but of the abundance of money. In 1815 consols were worth 59½. After the peace they rose a point or two, and in 1837 were worth 91. In 1848 they dropped to 85, and varied between that and 95 until 1879 when they sold for 97½. In 1881, for the first time in the history of the nation, 3 per cent. consols were worth par. In 1887 they were worth 101½ and in 1888 about half a point more. At latest advices Canadian 3 per cents. were selling in London at 93½; so that the credit of Canada to-day is equal to that of the Imperial Government no further back than 1875.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain; and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind. [April 1 '88]
