

THE EASTERN GUARDIAN

AGENTS:—MONTAGUE: Harold F. Landry, Mrs. Byron Stewart. AGENT GEORGETOWN: Waldon Lavers.

The Guardian may be bought at the following places in Montague: Blue Dome Restaurant, and Guardian Office; in Georgetown: The Post Office; in Souris: The Snack Bar.

*CLARK'S ANNIVERSARY SALE at Montague starts today!

*WE NEED $10,000.00 for Kings County Hospital. Can you help us raise some of this?

*RESERVE November 18th and 19th for Songs and Laughter with the Musical Dischords of 1953.

*APPLE BLOSSOMS IN OCTOBER—"It might as well be spring!" exclaimed Lauretta McDonald in a letter to The Guardian. "Here are apple blossoms which I picked off our apple tree at St. Peter's Lake. To her letter were pinned two tiny apple blossoms. A further comment that a swallow was still flying around her home, makes one wonder whether it's spring instead of winter that's on its way.

*BID FAREWELL—A farewell party for Miss Marilyn Llewellyn, Montague was held Friday night at the home of Miss Dorothy McHerron, where about 25 friends gathered. An enjoyable evening was spent in dancing and singing. A delicious lunch was served during the evening. A lovely gift was tendered Miss Llewellyn as a remembrance from her many friends in Montague. Miss Llewellyn accompanied her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Llewellyn, and baby brother, Dale, to Charlottetown where they have taken up residence.

*RETURNS FROM TRIP—Mrs. Daniel MacKenzie arrived at her home in Montague following a visit to Boston and other points in the U. S. A. She was accompanied by her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel MacKenzie, Charlottetown.

*CONDITION IMPROVING—The condition of Mr. David Lavers in the King's County Hospital was described yesterday as improving. Mr. Lavers was seriously hurt in a highway accident near Montague a few weeks ago which caused the death of three others.

*FUNERAL YESTERDAY—The funeral service for the late Mrs. Edward Murphy was held yesterday afternoon from her late residence in Montague with Rev. F. N. Young conducting the service. The hymns sung were "Rock of Ages" and "There is No Night in Heaven." Mrs. A. F. Campbell was piano accompanist. The pall bearers were Messrs. J. Campbell, A. C. MacKay, William Annear, G. D. Nelson, Ethan Stewart and Cecil Beck. Interment took place in the Brudenell cemetery.

*PLEADS NOT GUILTY—A plea of not guilty was entered by counsel G. Foster on behalf of Herman Sanderson, McGill, charged with failing to stop at the scene of an accident. The case was before Stipendiary Magistrate J. W. MacDonald. The charge arose out of an accident which occurred at Gaunce's Brook on October 12th when a car driven by Mr. P. J. McKenna went over an embankment into the ditch. Sanderson was driving a gravel truck. Mrs. McKenna was seriously hurt, and is a patient in the King's County Hospital where her condition yesterday was described as slightly improved. The hearing was adjourned to Monday, November 23rd at Montague at 10:30 a.m. Mr. S. S. Hession, Q.C., represented the crown.

*COURT AT GEORGETOWN—At magistrate's court at Georgetown yesterday, before Stipendiary Magistrate J. W. MacDonald, a resident of Chepstow, was found guilty of being intoxicated in a public place and was fined $20.00 and costs. A resident of Dover pleaded guilty to a charge of reckless driving and was fined $50.00 and costs. A party from Halifax was fined $20.00 and costs on a charge of possessing intoxicating liquor in a place other than his residence, and a party from Seven Mile Road was also fined $20.00 and costs on the same charge. A party from Baldwin's Road, and another from Eildon were each fined $5.00 and costs for having more than two adults exclusive of the driver in the front seat of a truck. A party from Rumford, Maine, was fined $25.00 and costs charged with intoxication in a public place. A resident of Charlottetown and another of Caledonia were each fined $50.00 and costs charged with driving while impaired. Their licence was also automatically suspended for three months. A resident of Lennox Island and another of Ashton were each fined $10.00 and costs charged with being intoxicated. Another party from Lennox Island was also fined $10.00 and costs on the same charge. The same party had his sentence suspended for one year on a charge of breaking and entry. The party made restitution of the amount of damages.

*PERSONALS—Miss Alpha Wisner, Charlottetown, was a recent visitor to Montague, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lester MacLeod. Miss Margaret MacLure, Charlottetown spent the week-end at her home in Montague. Messrs. Colin Jackson, John Shaw, Danie Murray and Robert VanDerStine, Montague, attended the scoutmasters' course at the Boy Scouts' camp at Crapaud on Sunday.

*WHIM ROAD AND VICINITY—Mrs. Stanley Hicken, Lower Montague, was hostess to the members of Whim Road Ladies' Aid, when they held their meeting at her home on October 2. When the business of the meeting had been completed, plans were made for sewing at the next meeting which will be held at the home of Mrs. Colin MacDonald, Kilmuir. Everyone enjoyed the social chat at the conclusion of the evening, during which time, the hostess, Mrs. Hicken served delicious refreshments. Mrs. Tena Grant and Miss K. Martin, Kilmuir, were pleasantly surprised when their friends and neighbours gathered at their home on Friday evening, October 2, to tender them a farewell party, prior to their departure from the district, on behalf of all, Mrs. M. Montague Home, School Meeting Largely Attended

"There was an exceptionally large attendance at the regular meeting of the Montague Home and School Association held in the High School last evening. The president, Mr. Ralph Beck, presided, and introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Hickox, first grade teacher, who gave a very informative demonstration of teaching grade one pupils. Nine children were present to assist their teacher. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. E. H. Stewart, and were approved as read. Mrs. Stewart also gave a report on an executive meeting when the following committees were appointed: membership—Mrs. J. D. MacLeod, Mrs. Leroy White, Mrs. Hickox; program—Dr. G. S. A. Inman, Miss Rita Wright, Judge J. S. DesRoches. The correspondence was read, and discussed, and included a letter of appreciation from Hon. Ketr Estey, Bownes, owner of Juniors, for drama, asking for support in stimulating interest in the production of plays. Mrs. Elsie Waterworth, Mrs. Ralph Beck, Mrs. Leroy White and Mrs. Horace Fraser were appointed on a committee to look into this matter and report at the next meeting. After considerable discussion it was decided that the Home and School Association would assist the Junior teachers with a Home-own party. The president then called on Mr. George Boudreau, grade nine teacher, who introduced five other teachers who were present at the meeting. Regrets were expressed by the president that the vice president, Rev. F. N. Young, is leaving Montague in the near future to reside in Kirkend Lake, Ontario, and Judge DesRoches was appointed to that office for the remainder of the term. Mr. Archie Hilchey, Mr. Horace Fraser, Mr. Cyrus Shaw, Mrs. E. H. Stewart and Mr. Beck were appointed as delegates to attend the Provincial Association in November. Mr. Beck reported that a large number of books had been received for the school library and lists of books, prepared by the teachers, were available for anyone wishing to make donations to this important enterprise. Mr. Peter Sinclair and Mr. Leroy White were appointed on a committee to have book cases built in the teachers room. Mrs. James Cudmore, Mrs. White and Mrs. Sinclair were appointed on the lunch committee for the next meeting.

*LITTLE SANDS AND VICINITY—Several farmers here completed digging potatoes, and some report an extra good crop. "It is regretted that Mr. Lemuel MacLean has been laid up with erysipelas in his face.
