

Orioles Defeat White Sox; Indians Defeat Senators

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Baltimore Orioles rallied for four runs in the ninth inning Wednesday to rout Early Wynn and defeat Chicago White Sox 6-4.

At Chicago the 38-year-old Wynn appeared on his way to an easy 4-2 victory. He had allowed only four hits, one Joe Ginsberg's first home run of the year with a man on base and had struck out seven men. Then suddenly he lost his cunning.

LAUNCHES ATTACK

Bob Nieman launched the ninth with a long double to right center and Ginsberg singled to right scoring him. Brooks Robinson sacrificed and when Wynn struck out Billy Gardner it seemed he might escape. However, he walked pinch batter Gus Triandos on four pitches.

Jack Harshman, a pitcher making his first pinch hitting appearance of the year, batted for George Zuverink, who had relieved starter Billy O'Dell in the eighth. Harshman missed two strikes then dropped a single in center, scoring Jim Busy, who ran for Ginsberg. Bob Boyd then batted to score Triandos and Harshman.

O'Dell's string of 23 scoreless innings against Chicago ended in the second when Sherm Lollar, Al Smith and Luis Aparicio singled for a run.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Harry Anderson hit a home run and a single Wednesday night to help Philadelphia Phillies win two games 3-2 and 2-0 from San Francisco Giants. The double defeat dropped the Giants out of first place in the National League.

Anderson had been on the bench much of the time because he was suspended manager Mayo Smith was convinced the 26-year-old outfielder couldn't hit the left handers.

But Eddie Sawyer, signed Tuesday to supplant Smith, told the day he was in the line up to stay.

Anderson responded with a three-run homer off lefty Johnny Antonelli, winning the completion of a June 22nd suspended game. In the regulation game his first-inning single off lefty Mike McCormick put the winning run in position to score.

CLEVELAND (AP)—Russ Nixon drove in three runs Wednesday night and Jim (Mudcat) Grant won his first game in more than a month with a five-hitter as Cleveland beat Washington Senators 5-3.

Nixon's two-run double in the seventh inning broke a 3-3 deadlock. He had given the Indians a 1-0 lead in the second inning with his fourth homer of the season.

Rookie Gary Geiger cracked a home run in the seventh, enabling the Indians to tie the game at 3-3. The loss went to Pedro Ramos.

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Milwaukee Braves vaulted back into first place in the National League Wednesday night with a 6-0 conquest of St. Louis Cardinals, stopped on the spectacular two-hit pitching of youthful Joey Jay who faced only 29 batters.

Jay, who has been just short of sensational since he was assigned to a starting role June 13, lost his bid for a no-hitter after retiring 13 Cards in order. The first hit was Gene Freese's single in the fifth, as his infield smash bounded off the glove of Eddie Mathews.

The 230-pound right-hander then retired 13 more Cardinals before Don Blasingame beat out another infield hit in the ninth.

A onetime bonus player, the 22-year-old Jay, claimed his third shutout of the season, and his sixth victory against three losses. Mathews supplied the Milwaukee offensive punch with a three-run homer.

DETROIT (AP)—New York Yankees continued their tremendous assault against Detroit Tigers Wednesday night, pounding four Tiger hurriers for a 16-4 triumph before 39,644 spectators.

The league leaders smashed 18 hits and routed their old nemesis Frank Lary after six innings.

Art Ditmar received credit for his sixth victory against one loss but needed ninth inning help from Johnny Kucks when the Tigers pushed around four runs and turned back Ditmar's bid for his first shutout in more than two years.

Irishmen Shade Barry's Lions

The B.I.S. Shamrocks behind the seven-hit pitching of Joe Thistle continued their march towards a fourth playoff spot by beating second place Barry's Lions in a 4-3 squeaker at Memorial Field last night. Thistle was in complete control of the game except in the third inning when an error and four consecutive base hits allowed the Lions to score their only three runs of the game. He struck out two and walked one.

"Duke" MacCullum was the starting hurler for the Lions but was relieved in the fourth inning by Lorn Israel. The Shamrocks collected six hits of the combined offerings of the two Lion hurlers and three Irishmen went down swinging.

The Shamrocks scored once in the second and three times, with the help of a walk and four base hits, in the fourth inning to account for their scoring. Joe Thistle helped his own cause by driving in the run. Elmer Malar, Shamrocks left fielder, lead all batters at the plate hitting two for three. Coker Finau pulled for a fine defensive play in the top of the seventh when he came up with a hand smash by "Duke" MacCullum. Joe Coyle at first and Joe Revell at short played headsup ball for the Irish.

Old Anvil Battery Greet's Princess

By AL MARKLE

Canadian Press Staff Writer VANCOUVER (CP) — Princess Margaret was greeted with an unusual 21-gun salute Wednesday on her arrival at city hall in suburban New Westminster.

The salute boomed out from a special cannon made from two anvils and operated by 17 members of the ancient and Honorable Hyack Anvil Battery.

The group was formed in 1871 by the then mayor of New Westminster, Tom Owens, after the old brass cannons had become unsafe to use.

The first deafening boom from the anvil cannon rang out as the royal cavalcade entered a park in front of city hall. It continued while the princess was inside unveiling a plaque in honor of the Royal Engineers, responsible for early colonization in British Columbia.

The princess, wearing a summery print dress dominated by a mushroom shade, a scarf high around the neck and a white feathered hat, stood on the steps outside city hall after the ceremony to watch the last two salutes from the "anvil chorus."

ODD DEVICE

The device — consisting of a large anvil with a hole in the top in which gunpowder was placed, and a smaller anvil over it — was touched off by a long rod with a red-hot tip.

Members of the order, led by Capt. Allison Peele, have such colorful titles as "blower up," "toucher off," "swabber off," "halker up" and "water boy."

Her next stop was Century House in New Westminster, a community recreation centre for senior citizens.

More than 2,000 persons watched the princess cut a white satin ribbon to open the centre.

The princess was dressed as she had been for her morning activities with the exception of her Campbell was the loser and struck out one Legion batter.
