Justice Department Suffers Setback

WASHINGTON, July 26—(CP)—The United States Department of Justice suffered a major defeat today when a federal district judge ruled out of court an indictment charging the American Medical Association, three other medical organizations, and 21 prominent physicians with violating the anti-trust laws.

Justice James M. Proctor ruled that medicine is not a trade, but a learned profession, and therefore the defendants could not be guilty of restraint of trade in their alleged activities against Group Health Association, incorporated, a cooperative set up to afford medical care on a pre-paid basis to federal employees in the District of Columbia.

The judge also caustically criticized the indictment, using such words as "bad," "improper," "highly colored," "vague," and "uncertain."

At the department of justice, it was made known that the case would be appealed.

Orphan For Whom A Chinese Gave Life Returns To States

(By The Canadian Press)

VANCOUVER, July 26—Helen Priscilla Shiu, a nine-year-old orphan for whom a Chinese gave his life to Chinese Communists, was enroute to Princeton, N. J., with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Scott.

She arrived yesterday from China aboard the Empress of Japan and the grandparents related how a Chinese died to spare the life of the infant whose parents were later beheaded. "The incident occurred when the Chinese Red Army attacked Tsingteh in December, 1934."

Helen, they said, was born at Wuhin in Anhwei Province where her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Stem of Paterson, N. J., were stationed as missionaries for the China Inland Mission.

The Communists decided to kill my daughter and son-in-law," Mrs. Scott said, in telling of the attack and their first idea was to kill the baby too.

"The Communist leader asked who will give his life for the child," the prisoner said instantly "I will."

Two days later the parents and Chinese were killed.

The young people's play "George in a Jam" that was put on recently in the Belfast had a full house and consequently the receipts were very gratifying to the young people and their friends.

Sox Rally To Defeat Vitas At Summerside

The Red Sox came out on the Summerside diamond last evening completely attired in a new set of togs and contrary to the usual procedure in such cases, overcame a four run lead and edged out a 5-4 victory over the luckless Vitas.

The Vitas took advantage of a complete collapse on the part of the Sox inner gardeners to push across two runs in the second inning. By the end of the fifth the Sox had only managed to tie the lead down to three and it looked very imposing.

LeBlanc collided with Casey attempting to field Dodd's grounder and could not make contact. The next hitter singled to lead the sacks and after pinch hitter Robert Clow had fouled out Gerard Bernard doubled and Morrison singled to drive in four runs and give the Sox the one run advantage which gave them the game.

W. Arsenault started on the mound for the Sox and pitched nicely infeld plays and at bat Wedge came through with the big triple that did the damage in the second.

On Friday evening the Sox invited Kensington for the latter's home stand of the season. Kensington have won their only other home games and will be out to keep their string intact while the Sox will be as equally determined to break it.

Weather Is Favorable For Crops, Report

OTTAWA, July 26—(CP)—The weather throughout Canada during the past month has been generally beneficial to all fruit and vegetable crops, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics said today in a crop report covering conditions to the middle of July.

An unusually heavy crop of apples in New Brunswick was due to dry weather early in June. Timely rains have greatly improved strawberry crops in Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island. First estimate of the Nova Scotia apple crop places it at 2,400,000 barrels against 2,300,000 in 1938 and in New Brunswick 63,200 barrels against 48,600.

Apple crop prospects are generally good throughout the province although reports from the Quebec area show an exceedingly heavy drop. Insects pests have been well controlled in orchards and the apple maggot spray has been completed in all districts. Vegetable crops also are growing well.

Most fruit crops are growing satisfactorily in Ontario although rain is needed in the Niagara district and in the eastern section of the province. First estimate of the Ontario apple crop places it at 79,800 barrels compared with 84,400 in 1938.

Plan To Establish Frozen Fish Plant In New Brunswick

GLOUCESTER, Mass., July 26—The Gorton-Pew Fisheries Company of Gloucester, one of the largest in the United States, will establish a new fish processing plant at Crapaud, N. B., officials of the corporation announced today. The plant will employ about 50 persons.

New Brunswick government will pay three quarters of the cost of the plant, President T. J. Carroll of the company said. Negotiations for the opening of the factory were practically completed.

The corporation's Gloucester factory has an annual payroll of about $1,000,000.

"All this means," Carroll said, "an extra venture and an additional business in frozen fish. We have no intention of getting out of Gloucester. The maximum season there (in Crapaud) is six months and the maximum number employed there would be about 50. Gorton-Pew has no intention of closing its Gloucester plant or curtailing its operations. It is not a new plant, but a new market for distressed cod fishermen on here as long as it is possible to do so under local conditions."

Announcement of the venture, made early today, precipitated rumors the Gloucester factory was about to close. The company employs about 700 people there, and last year enjoyed total sales of $3,825,000.

Hope For New Market

CARQUET, N. B., July 26—Forthcoming establishment of a frozen fish plant here by the Gorton-Pew Fisheries Company of Gloucester is hoped to open a new market for distressed cod fishermen in this district.

Negotiations leading to a cold storage and quick freezing plant here have been underway for some time. The fishermen believe that a growing United States market for quick frozen foods will enable them to dispose of their catches at profitable prices.

Owing to lack of markets, many schooners of the Carquet fleet have been laid up on the beach. The new quick-freezing method is said to retain all the original flavor and freshness of products for an indefinite period until they are delivered to retail buyers.

Poultry Congress At Cleveland Friday

CLEVELAND, July 26—The bird that represents a multi-million dollar industry—the chicken—takes over Cleveland Friday when the seventh world's Poultry Congress opens.

The Congress, which has been termed a "third world's fair," will hold forth in the municipal auditorium, one of the largest structures of its kind, and on a 20-acre site fronting on Lake Erie, scene of the Great Lakes Exposition.

One of the features of the Congress will be Canada Day, to be celebrated Monday. The ceremonies will include a musical ride by a squad of Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

ing on the report that military missions were to be sent to Moscow, Der Angriff said: "Not much remained in the much-vaunted English dignity and French superiority."

Among the British officers mentioned for a Moscow military mission was General Sir Archibald Wavell, newly appointed Commander-in-Chief of the Middle East Forces. He speaks Russian and went to Moscow three years ago as head of a military mission invited to see Red Army manoeuvres.

A British Admiral also is expected to go as a compliment to Russia's growing sea power. France is expected to send high ranking army officer and one or both countries it was said, probably would attach air force officers to the mission.

The Moscow negotiations have been bogged down several times, ostensibly on technical points of phrasology. But diplomatic observers believe that one of the chief obstacles to conclusion of the pact involved the question of military conversations. Another difficulty has been to arrive at a definition of aggression.

A question still to be settled in the Moscow negotiations involved definition of the term "indirect aggression" as applied to Russia's Baltic neighbors, whose independence Russia seeks to have guaranteed in the projected pact.

But new British instructions to Moscow are expected in this quarter to overcome this difficulty.

It was a true gathering of the clans of Cape Breton. Many of the more than 2,000 people who gathered on the hill overlooking blue St. Ann's Bay were of the MacDonald, MacKenzie and MacKinnon families who ancestors have needed a civilization out of the rugged Cape Breton hills.
