The Markets.

During the past week the market for eggs in Boston has been gradually rising, owing to a falling off in receipts. They are in good demand, and the quotation for Island stock, wholesale, is 17½ to 18½ cents per dozen.
By letter of the 15th instant, from E. T.
Russell & Co., one of the most reliable commission firms in Boston, we learn that the fish market shows more activity, and that dealers there are in good spirits. Large mackerel are much wanted, and good stock would command eight dollars per barrel. The mackerel from the shore fleet was landing in large quantities, but mixed sizes. Receipts from Nova Scotia and P. E. Island have so far been very light. Following were the quotations on the 20th inst.:— American inspection—No. 1 shore, $10@12 per bbl; $... per bbl for No. 2; No. 3, $7.50 and $9.00 per bbl; No. 4, $3.25 and $4.00 per bbl; Nova Scotia and P. E.
I. mackerel $8.00 and $8.50 per bbl for No. 1. Alewives are in fair request at $3 per dozen.
The Montreal Gazette of the 21st instant says: There is no change in flour. Demand is slack for everything except fresh ground, which is in slight supply. Receipts for the week were light—11,474 barrels. Stocks in store show a decrease of 2,700 barrels from a week ago, and of 22,500 barrels as compared with the same date last year. Fresh ground superior is held at $5.40. A car of spring extra sold at $4.35, and a lot of fancy at $4.30. We quote:—
Patents.....$5 75 to $7 00 Superior Extra.....5 25 to 5 40 Extra Superfine.....4 90 to 5 00 Fancy.....4 25 to 4 35 Spring Extra.....4 25 to 4 35 Superfine.....3 20 to 3 35 Regarding the cheese market in Montreal the Gazette says: "In so far as there was a market on the 21st the position is unchanged, but no one thinks of calling it a firm one, while the more radical views, which are very general, suggest a lower range for next week. It appears, however, that some dealers are paying high prices in the country, one factory in the Huntington section having been bought yesterday at 9 cents, to be delivered on Wednesday. Matters, however, will probably assume a weaker phase. Buyers show little disposition to exceed 8½ cents; the make continues large; nobody wants to pay high for July cheese, and Liverpool advices are weak. The cable dropped 15 to 48, probably caused by the heavy shipments from New York, which reach 94,000 boxes, or about 154,000 this week from Montreal and New York. We quote fine to finest 8½c to 8½c.

The Church and the World.
(From the Evangelical Churchman.) It will be admitted that upon the question of the introduction into the Church of worldly methods of raising money, the Evangelical Churchman has given no uncertain sound. The recent forcible and eloquent Christian utterances of the Bishop of Huron upon this subject, as contained in his inaugural address to the synod of his diocese reported in our issue of the 26th ult., claim and should receive the careful consideration of all thoughtful members of our Church. We quote a portion of his remarks:
"Permit me to point out what seems to be one of the greatest incentives to worldiness in the present day. I refer to the tortuous and unwholesome ways in which money is often raised for church purposes.
Dice and gambling, lotteries and grab-bags, even theatrical exhibitions, farces and comedies, are brought into requisition now by some to advance the cause of Jesus Christ.
Against them all, root and branch, I enter my most solemn and determined protest.
In my judgment they are calculated to bring down a curse rather than a blessing on the misguided people by whom they are practiced and upheld. The end is always supposed to justify the means, and the clearing of the heavy debt on some burdened church is supposed to be a result so stupendous that it fully justifies any expedient, however extravagant, that may have been adopted. These methods are an unmingled wrong to the whole Church of Christ.
They still more fearfully confound the Church with the world, and the world with the Church. They lower below zero the spirituality of the whole congregation, and bring down even to the dust that which Christ would purify and exalt." In the same week in which we published the Bishop's address there appeared in a weekly secular paper published within the limits of the Diocese of Ontario an advertisement which we reproduce, omitting some names:

Girls in Business.

All girls who wish or expect to engage in any self-supporting occupation, especially where they may come into competition with men, will be interested in the following extract from Elizabeth Stuart Phelps's article, entitled "Supporting Herself," in St. Nicholas:
"But, girls, if you don't mean to make a thorough business of the occupation you have chosen, never, never begin to be occupied at all. Half finished work will do for amateurs. It will never answer for professionals. The bracket you are sewing for a New Year's present can hang a little crooked on its screws, and you will be forgiven for the love's sake found therein by the dear heart to which you offer it; but the trinket carved for sale in the sorrento rooms must be cut as true as a rose-leaf.
You can be a little shaken as to your German declensions in the Schiller club, which you join so enthusiastically after leaving school, and no great harm ever come of it; but teach Schiller for a living, and for every dative case forgotten you are as much money out of pocket.
People who pay for a thing demand thorough workmanship or none. To offer incomplete work for complete market price is to be either a cheat or a beggar. The terrible, grinding laws supply the demand, pay and receive, give and get, give no quarter to shilly-shally labor. The excellence of your intentions is nothing to the point.
The stress of your poverty has not the slightest connection with the case. An editor will never pay you for your poem because you wish to help your mother. No customer will buy her best bonnet or her wheat flour of you because you are unable to pay your rent. When you have entered the world of trade, you have entered a world where tenderness and charity and personal interest are foreign relations. Not 'for friendship sake,' nor 'for pity's sake,' nor 'for chivalry's sake' runs the great rallying cry of this great world, but only 'for value received.' It is with sorrow and shame, but yet with hope and courage, that I write it,—there is reason for the extensive complaint made by men, that women do not work thoroughly.
I am afraid that, till time and trouble shall have taught them better, they will not.
Is it because they have never been trained?
Is it because they expect to be married?
That it is not in the least because they can not, we know; for we know that some of the most magnificently accurate work in the world has been done by women."

Your Own Sister and Some One Else's Sister.

Many young men are always very ready to accept invitations to other people's home circles. They are very much more attentive to other people's sisters than their own!
A young man should be found in his home, and spend sufficient time there for his influence to tell upon the family and for him to cultivate manly dispositions that will be a blessing to him in years to come.
Many young men are like crows; they come back to their nest to roost, and at the dawn of day they haste to other fields.
Young men, don't waste your strength and your influence and your brains in anybody's company when you ought to be in your family circle, in the house of your father and mother. I think it is a duty and obligation that you should be attentive to the requirements and needs of your sisters.
Why not sometimes take your sister out? take her out for a walk? Why not sometimes take her to a concert? Why not sometimes take home presents and give them to her? Why when you come home, should you be sullen and silent and morose, as though somebody had been treading on your corns all day? Why not come home and tell the incidents that have happened during the day, and be bright and merry and cheerful, and so contribute your share to the family joy, and you will have it all back again in a sister's love.
