—Montreal Witness: The Court of Cassation is redeeming France, pursuing its course with stately firmness and courage, and the result seems likely to be the rehabilitation of Captain Dreyfus and the vindication, and perhaps glorification, of the heroic Colonel Picquart. The latter, a Frenchman to the last drop of his blood, a man of great ability, successful in his career, the youngest colonel in the service, risked all his prospects and his very life by standing up against the whole army and against the very nation for justice.
Little wonder if he is becoming a popular hero in France. The Court of Cassation rules France, shout the Jew-baiters bitterly, whereat level-headed Frenchmen thank God that justice reigns and take courage.

CANADA'S MINERALS.—The editor of the Canadian Mining Review, Mr B T A Bell, estimates that the value of Canada's mineral production this year will be $40,000,- 000, and says that Nova Scotia is making relatively the best showing in gold mining.
The output of gold in that province this absence from the house of Mr and Mrs McPhail, the little fellow's clothing took fire from the stove, and his body was badly burned. Medical aid was called in and everything possible was done for the little passed away. His parents have the sympathy of all.
