Memoirs of A Child

(Edith Fisher)
Poppies and Dreams
My passion for flowers and color seemed to grow in me each day. I could stand for hours all the florists and feast on the beauty of green leaves and delicate flowers. I would imagine each flower a Princess in disguise and each plant a gallant knight.

First Love and Fairy Tales Go Hand in Hand So Young Girls Should Enjoy Them But Not Take Them Too Seriously—Don't Jump Into Marriage Too Quickly
Dear Miss Dix—I am 17 years old, in love with a boy of 20. I have loved in the past, but I have never felt anything like this. I am almost in a trance all the time, and it is only when we have a quarrel that I suddenly come down to earth and then I feel that I can't stand it. Just to tell ourselves we quit going together for a while, but we found we just couldn't endure it. Isn't it possible to love at 17? Is it any disgrace to marry the first man who asks you if you love him? If this isn't love, what is it?

Housewife The And Her Activities
"A garden is lovable thing, God wot!
Rose plot,
Fringed pool,
Fernid grove.
The veriest school
Of peace; and yet the foot
Contented that God is not—
Not God in Gardens! when the eye is cool?
Nay, but I have a sign;
'Tis very sure God walks in mine'
Ash trees are found in the tropics, as well as in the temperate regions.
Oil of citronella, used by campers to keep away mosquitoes, actually attracts some species of insects.
CLEANING THAT OLD HANDBAG
A green suede handbag which had become faded and soiled was renovated by brushing the handbag really hard with a stiff brush, both inside and out so that all the dust was got out of it, then cleaning the silk lining with a non-inflammable cleaner and leaving it open, in the air to remove the smell. The cleaner can also be used to clean off any dirty marks on the suede. It rather depends on how much the bag has faded as to the next move. If it is only slightly faded, use a matching green suede shoe cleaner. If it is a liquid, and you will find the color is bright again. But if the bag is badly faded, rub it with a green suede shoe dye, allowing it to dry and then brush with a rubber or wire brush.
Dorothy Lamour likes stripes used in a distinctive manner. To wear when entertaining in her California home recently, Miss Lamour selected a soft silk dress of sage green and white stripes—very becoming to her dark beauty. The design was simple, but unusual. Stripes were used vertically in the full cut bodice and skirt, and horizontally in the wide belt and set-in yoke with high rounded neckline. Her jewelry—another gold pin watch set with diamonds—was simple and in tone with her gown. With this, Miss Lamour wore white doekin open-toe and open-heel pumps. Her corsage was of three orchids.
George Washington never wrote his name in full, but always signed it G. Washington.
FILE BASKET FOR FILE DRAWER
By attaching two metal hooks to the side of a file basket, you can eliminate a lot of stooping while filing letters, etc., in permanent file. The file basket hangs to the side of the cabinet, as shown, thus bringing the material to be filed within easy reach.
PRINT ACCESSORIES
Belts, handkerchiefs and very smart new liberty prints are cool and ideal for informal evening wear.
The only woman police chief in New England has just taken office. She is Mrs. Wilbur Clark, aged 33, who is elected to reserve law and order at Warren, N.H., a community of 600 inhabitants.
COLOR WHEN DINING AIDS THE APPETITE
It is a well known fact that color encourages the appetite, and conversely, a dull, unattractive, arranged plate-dinner may be one of the most acceptable meals. Color should be considered first, then texture; flavor and nutritive value are sure to follow—for vegetables look attractive and taste good, they must have been properly cooked.
Try such combinations as the following:
Baked potato, buttered spinach, scalloped tomato, celery curls (use fresh or canned vegetables).
Creamed asparagus on toast, grat-

How Can I???

(By ANNE ASHLEY)
Q. How can I mend a tear in a woolen garment most effectively?
A. Draw a few ravelings from the goods and darn with these. Then press with a hot iron, under a thin damp cloth.
Q. How can I, when preparing jelly, determine when the jelly point has been reached?
A. Put a little jelly on a cold dish and draw a line through it with the point of a spoon. If the jelly does not run together, the point has been reached.

Vivid Short Stories Always in Demand

Teach Yourself to Write
"Just out! Latest story by Jane White!" Jane's friends shout as they swoop down on her, with admiration in their eyes.
The secret of her success? Like nearly all successful and well-paid authors, she writes about people, places, situations she knows. Her tale of Miss Harris' 15-year courtship by Old Man Jones she got straight from her home town.
In the writing of her stories, she follows professional methods too. She lines up her plot before she starts—keeps in mind that there must be suspense, uncertainty to keep her readers fascinated. Cleverly she plays up Miss Harris' seeing between desire for marriage and devotion to her mother.
And no matter what happens she turns out 1,000 words a day, has a regular time for writing.
You, too, can learn tricks of the trade from our 32-page booklet on writing for profit. It fairly bursts with suggestions on salable style, vivid vocabulary, absorbing plots, living, breathing characters. A practical guide for aspiring authors.

The visitor could not understand why Mrs. Murphy was so lax in concerning herself with the health of her children. "Why don't you speak to them, Mrs. Murphy, and make them do what you tell them?" "Sure as it would be just like putting water on a duck's back—in one ear an' out the other."
