High School Curling Gets Underway At Arena Today

The nation's 11 top schoolboy rinks get down to the serious business today of grading for the Dominion High School Curling Championship. Newfoundland has joined the five-day curriculum for the first time in nine years. The 10-end tests finished Friday night and there is to be a final practice session against P. E. I. senior rinks this morning. The competitions are to start officially at 3 p.m. AST, with Lieutenant-Governor T. W. L. Prowse of Prince Edward Island throwing out the first rock. There will be another draw tonight, two Tuesday and Wednesday, morning and evening, three on Thursday and two on Friday. All rinks, their coaches and provincial chaperones had arrived by Saturday, the coldest day of the year so far. The Prince George Senior High team representing British Columbia had the toughest itinerary but weathered the 26-hour trip by air in good shape. Tom Tod's Fort William collegiate team representing Northern Ontario brought high hopes of making up for a 1957 sudden-death playoff setback in Ontario. The Lakehead Curlers are still a little awed by the spontaneous send-off their city gave them Friday night. Hundreds of supporters, including a bevy of short-skirted cheer leaders, braved below zero weather at Fort William's Alport to wish the Northern Ontario Champions good hunting in the Maritimes. Manitoba is represented by Pete McLeod and his Fort Frances, Ont., High School crew. The Rainy River District quartet intend to take the Manitoba School Championship. All four members of the Manitoba representation are skips with reputations of their own. They banded together especially for the Manitoba play-off and since their win, have been playing mostly against senior teams at Fort Frances to keep up their game. Saskatchewan was the last to declare its representative for the Dominion Play-off. Fred Hansen's Maple Creek Composite High team won the wheat province title Feb. 10, three days after Allan Kenney and his Thompson High from North Sydney won the Nova Scotia Championship for the second year in succession. Nova Scotia is the only repeater in the 1958 series. Ontario, the defending champion, has its hopes pinned on Gordon Stibbards' banana-belt winning Welland High and Vocational School crew. The Charlottetown Arena, in the past an exclusive hockey stronghold, turned over its full facilities to curling as early as last Friday. The Weather Office indicated that there will be more snow added to the foot or so already on the ground, and that temperatures will be well below freezing. Not all of the five days will be taken up with whisking the granites into the house. Tours, parades, banquets and dances have been added to provide relaxation for the competing curlers. The registration of all participants was completed Saturday night. Room 122, the Curling headquarters, was a very busy spot and Rankin McLaine, the Island Representative on the Dominion Board, had everything in readiness when the teams checked into the Charlottetown Hotel. At 2:00 p. m. Sunday the group pictures were taken at Government House and later the curlers were the guests of His Honor, Lt. Governor T. W. L. Prowse and Mrs. Prowse. The team pictures were taken at the hotel. At the official draw David Stewart, General Chairman for the Bospisiel, and Sam Rothchild of Sudbury, President of the Dominion Curling Association, conducted the draw. Also at the head table was Ken Watson, Chairman of the Canadian School Curling Committee; L. B. Stevenson, Vice Chairman; Charles Scrymgeour, Secretary of the Canadian School Curling and also Secretary of the Dominion Curling Association; Rankin McLaine, P.E.I. director of the Canadian School Curling Association; Ed Smith, C.P. and Frank Acorn, publicity. The hosts under chairman Reg Jenkins have been on tap since the boys arrived and are looking after their every need. The ice committee under Dr. Wen MacDonald have the Sports Arena all ready for the opening draw and Johnnie MacDonald, the ice maker for the meet, promises five good sheets of ice ready for 3:00 p. m. Monday. The circles were completed on Sunday and the levelling of the sheets was completed last night. From observation so far Mr. Watson remarked that the set up and arrangements made to date by all committees were excellent and gave every indication that this would be one of the best if not the best in the history of the nine years of Canadian School Curling. The Pepsi-Cola Co. were hosts at the buffet luncheon at the Charlottetown on Sunday with 125 people in attendance. At 6:30 p. m. the Canadian School Champion rinks swelled by two hundred or more local curlers paraded to the United Church and Roman Catholic Basilica for martial airs, played by the Recce Regt Band. Today there will be five practice matches at 9:30 a. m. and five at 10:30 The curlers parade will leave the Charlottetown Hotel at 2:00 p. m. with the opening draw at 3:00 p. m.

NEW YORK (AP)—New York Rangers maintained their precarious hold on second place in the National Hockey League with a 3-2 victory over Boston Bruins on Guy Gendron's third period goal Sunday night. The New Yorkers, in boosting their season output to 55 points, struck quickly for a pair of first period tallies, only to have the Bruins rally and deadlock the score late in the second. Gendron's winning goal came at 7:20 and was his eighth of the season. The winger converted Andy Bathgate's rebound, lifting the disk over Lumley, who was flat on his stomach. Defenceman Bill Gadsby ignited the Rangers, caging his own rebound early in the opening period with the Bruins a man short. Gendron set up Larry Poppein with a neat pass and the latter scored New York's second goal at 6:56. Boston cut the deficit to 2-1 late in the period. Hockey Players At Summerside

Saturday morning Summerside's Civic Stadium was the scene of plenty of activity and enthusiasm as Summerside Paperweights, Pee Wees, Bantams, and Midgets played hosts to hockey teams of similar brackets from Charlottetown, who made the trip up over an excellent road in nine cars generously provided and driven by interested parents and minor League Officials. All four games played were full of action, produced some good hockey and were closely contested all the way. After the smoke of battle cleared away it was to have the city boys take home two wins and two tie games. In the Paperweight contest, although both teams gave all they had and there were many close goals, neither team could dent the twines due to steller goal-tending by both goalies. The final result was a scoreless tie. In the Pee Wee game, Charlottetown packed a bit too much speed for the boys of the Western Capital and skated off the ice with a 3-1 victory. George MacDonald, Jamey Kennedy and Ian Purvis scored for Charlottetown. Don Arsenault banged in the lone Summerside tally. In the Bantam contest Charlottetown boys pulled out with another win as they notched 4 goals to Summerside's 2. Charlottetown goals were scored by Johnnie Davis who netted 3, his teammate Roy Biggar accounted for the 4th goal. Summerside's goals were scored by Dave Gaudet and Willie Gallant. The final game of the tournament was a fast close-checking and hard-fought Midget contest. Charlottetown's Trinity Midget's Scout Team tied the Summer-
