

First Class in Arithmetic.

Several of the readers of the Boston Globe seem to be able to arrange the ten digits so that they will foot up 100.

- 15
46
37
0
98
2
100

Of the two solutions which follow (1) is by Charles H. Donahoe, (13) Middlesex street, Chelsea, and (2) by H. B. Darling, with Brown, Durrell & Co.:

- (1) 27
53
80
9
6
4
1
100
(2) 9
16 3-5
74 8-20
100

The first two solutions, although bringing into requisition all the digits, are not mathematically correct. The third is strictly in accordance with the rules of mathematics, as in the following, by "D. B. B." which is the best solution received:

- 23 18-90
76 4-5
100

Humorous.

A lady with a fine set of teeth will often laugh over a very poor joke.

Mistress (to applicant for cook's position): "Why did you leave your last place?" Applicant: "You're very inquisitive, marm. I didn't ax yer what for yer last cook left you."

"Is your mistress in?" said a caller to the domestic. "She is, sir." "Is she engaged?" asked the caller. "Faith she is more than that," was Bridget's quick response, "she's married."

Young man, don't be afraid that honest, legitimate overwork will shorten your days. It is better to wear out in a home, built up by your own efforts at the age of sixty-five, than it is to rush out in the poorhouse five years later.

Vivacious Stranger: "Who is that gawky youth who can't manage his crush hat?" Student: "Well, I rather think that's my brother."

V. S.: "O! I beg your pardon, I might have known it—I mean, O!" Student: "Take me to mamma."

A useful boy: Not long since a smart seven-year-old son of one of our preachers, after service was over and the family had returned home from church, said, "Papa, do you ever look at me while you are preaching?" The father, thinking he was a little hurt by supposed neglect, said, "Certainly, my son, several times," said the father. "Well, papa, did you see me wink at you two or three times?" "No, my son. What did you wink at me when I was preaching?" "I winked at you, papa, to get you to stop; you were spinning it too long."

Horsford's Acid Phosphate

S. S. Parker, Wellington, O, says:—"While crossing Lake Erie, I gave it to 'some passengers who were seasick, and it gave immediate relief."

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

CURE SICK HEADACHE

Sick Headache and relieve all the troubles incident to a bilious state of the system, such as Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Distress after eating, Pain in the Side, &c. While their most remarkable success has been shown in curing

Headache, yet Carter's Little Liver Pills are equally valuable in Constipation, erasing and preventing this annoying complaint. They also correct all disorders of the stomach, stimulate the liver and regulate the bowels. Even if they only cured

ACHE

ACHE they would be almost priceless to those who suffer from this distressing complaint; but fortunately their goodness does not end here, and those who once try them will find these little pills valuable in so many ways that they will not be willing to do without them. But after all sick head
