Local and Other Items.

THE City Council meets this evening 7.30.

TREMAINE & METCALF have just received a nice lot of Felt Hats.

THREE hundred summonses have been ordered for the meeting of the City Small Debt Court on Wednesday next.

REMEMBER the sale of valuable Household Furniture, at the residence of James Duncan, head Ferry Wharf, to-morrow, at 11 o'clock.

THE Supreme Court yesterday evening adjourned until the 17th November. The Judges did not give a decision in the case of Coombs appealant and McQuaid respondent.

TREMAINE & METCALF'S new arrivals of Gents' Overcoats, Storm Coats Reefers, &c., are cheapest in the city.

THE "Princess of Wales" was detained in this port to-day, and the "St. Lawrence" remained in Summerside.

THE Barque "R.B. Peake" arrived at Buenos Ayres, South America, on the 12th September; the "Barque George" Peake arrived at Buenos Ayres on the 15th September.

BRIG "Alpheta" to Peake Bros. & Co., from Liverpool, arrived this morning with cargo of merchandize.

AT the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court this forenoon, Peter Cosgrove was fined $1 and costs or four days for being drunk and incapable.

Brig "Hildred," owned by Peake Bros. & Co., cleared for Plymouth, England, to-day with 21,000 bushels of oats, and 670 pieces deal, containing 21,000 superficial feet. shipped by Peake Bros. & Co.

POSTPONED.—In consequence of the inclemency of the weather, Grace Egerton's farewell benefit, which was to have taken place this evening, will be postponed until to-morrow, Thursday.

THE steamer Carroll arrived from Boston yesterday afternoon with general cargo and the following passengers:—Miss E. McLeod, Miss C. McLeod, Miss Maggie Matheson, Miss Christie Matheson, Mr. Richard Toombs, W. Langton, James Brehaut, D. Callaghan, R. Carson and John Bruce.

A VIOLENT storm, accompanied by heavy rain, began shortly after one o clock this morning, and still continues. It is feared that much damage is or will be done to the numerous crafts which are now around the coast. Reports from the country districts say the country districts say the storm did much damage to outbuildings, etc. Trees are uprooted, and in several places lie across the road. The vessels in port are as yet free from accident.

MESSRS. TREMAINE & METCALF have introduced into the city, quite a new idea in the way of a sign board, which, if more generally adopted, will give a relief to the present flat and squatty appearance of some of their best building, their success in this undertaking is doubt owing to the genius of Mr. John Newson, the designer and painter. We cannot give any description of it, but would draw the attention of our readers to the enterprise of the above named firm and tradesman.

THE schooner "Carrie F. Butler," Parsons master, went ashore on Rustico Bar during the gale this morning. She left Rustico with three hundred barrels of mackerel on board; but the water was low she could not cross the Bar and she weighed anchor inside. Shortly after midnight the storm came on, and she was blown high up on the west side of the bar. The crew abandoned her at two o'clock this morning. They had much difficulty in getting on shore, as the seas washed rapidly over the vessel and boat as they left. The "Carrie F. Butler" is owned in Gloucester, Mass. She is now full of water, and is a total loss. The mackerel will probably be saved.

AT the regular meeting of the Caledonian Club, held last evening, D. A. Macdonald, of the Post Office Department, in the chair, the following gentlemen were elected officers for the ensuing year:—
