

Islanders Turn On Steam, Oust Millionaires 4-2 In Rugged Game Here

Murph Chamberlain's Charlotte Islanders with their rock 'em and sock 'em free-wheeling style of hockey defeated the Sydney Millionaires 4-2 last night at the Forum for their first win of the new season.

After trading bump for bump with the Millionaires in the first two periods the Islanders had plenty left in the final frame to outscore their opponents 2-1 and thus embark on their first road trip with a .500 average in the two home games played to date.

The teams left the ice at the end of the first period with the score deadlocked 1-1. The Islanders shot the only goal in the riotous second period and the goal came less than half a minute before the session ended.

The hockey, and there was lots of it, was better than in the opening game Monday night. The bumping too was much heavier and the teams showed more hustle than in the opener against Halifax.

Filled With Action

It was clear from the opening whistle that it was going to be a game well filled with action. Things warmed up in the first period and in the second session matters almost got out of hand as the boys squared away at one another on several occasions.

On the hockey end Jim MacKenzie led the local snipers with two goals. The other Islanders marksmen were Bob Gray and Wimpy Stephenson.

Bill MacDonagh and Nick Hill scored for the Millionaires.

Goalies Don Campbell of the Islanders and Allard of Sydney turned in top notch performances. Allard was called upon to stop 31 shots while Campbell turned aside 25 drives.

Coach Chamberlain used Jimmy MacKenzie at centre between Garey Gordon and Bill Hagan and this trio started the game. For the Millionaires George Robertson, Johnny Morrow and Ronnie Rowe were the starting forwards.

Connie Bonhomme fired the first hard shot of the game when he directed a drive at Allard at the two minute mark. The tempo speeded up about two minutes later with the line of Whitlock, Gray and Dowling forcing the play.

Lorne Pirie, stock Sydney forward, started the play for the game's first score when he blocked a shot at his own blueline and broke away. Larry Travis chased him back and Pirie's hurried shot was blocked by Campbell. MacDonagh, coming in behind, picked up the rebound and drilled it home.

The Islanders got this one back seven minutes later with Bob Gray being the marksman. The goal resulted from a nice three-way passing play from behind the Sydney net between Travis, Whitlock and Gray.

The second period produced only one goal, but plenty of action. Coach Chamberlain tried an experiment and used Wimpy Stephenson on left wing and it wasn't long until the action started as the bumping grew in intensity.

Following a heavy bumping, high-sticking session in which everyone except the goalies participated, the first fight of the game occurred. The principals, although not the originators, were Bob Gray and Nick Hill and both drew majors for their efforts.

Strategy Pays Off

With only 24 seconds left in the period coach Chamberlain changed his lines for a face-off in the Sydney end and the strategy paid dividends. Whitlock got the puck from a face-off and passed to MacKenzie who scored.

Shortly after the start of the third period the Islanders scored on a play blown down at the blueline. Both goalies Allard and Campbell were tested and both rose to the occasion with brilliant stops.

Then at the 3:38 mark Buck Whitlock and MacDonagh drew minors and majors for stick-swinging and fighting. The outbreak occurred inside the Sydney blueline as both players fenced with their sticks. Suddenly MacDonagh swung viciously and clipped Whitlock on the side of the head. Buck swung back but did not hit the Sydney player. The two were parted but started to throw punches on the way to the penalty box.

Whitlock had just gotten out of the penalty box when he set up Stephenson for the Islanders third goal. Bob Gray started the play with a pass to Buck and Stephenson slapped Whitlock's pass into the twines from three feet out to draw the biggest ovation of the night.

Less than a minute later scrapping Nick Hill got it back. Hill took Don Whelan's pass inside the blueline and drilled a low screened shot that caught the left corner of the net.

Jimmy MacKenzie completed the scoring at the 14:33 mark when he tipped home Garey Gordon's goal mouth pass. Bill Hagan started the play at the Islanders blueline with a pass to Gordon. Garey

One of these may be a forward from the Toronto organization. 17-year-old Thane Doyle left here yesterday evening for a try-out with the Toronto organization. Murphy thinks highly of Thane's ability as a goal tender and if the Toronto heads think along the same line the Islanders will receive a player in exchange. Thane has shown a lot of ability in practise sessions with the Islanders this fall and if he can show the same stuff in Toronto there's not much doubt but that he will catch the eye of Hap Day and Co.

Cliff Roach, coach of the Sydney Millionaires, while naturally disappointed over the outcome, expressed the opinion that it was a good game and as crowd-pleasing as the fans would see in the Maritimes this winter. Roach thought that Hughie Gillis should have been more severe on the whistle as there was far too much rough stuff in the game. "If this continues there'll be few hockey players left in the league," he stated.

Cliff was a little disappointed over the attendance. For the second game of the season he expected a bigger crowd and in view of the all-out effort which the players gave he thought they deserved a good crowd of spectators. He thought there were about 1800 in the rink but on checking the attendance found there was only about 1400 paid admissions. Those 1400 got their money's worth and the next time that the Millionaires play here they will likely draw quite a crowd.

Dunc MacIntyre, big left winger for the Millionaires these past few years, is a holdout. The Millionaires have offered Dunc $125 a week, the maximum salary the league allows but Dunc is looking for more money. Unless MacIntyre changes his mind it would appear that he'll have to play elsewhere this season. The Millionaires have lines out for more players, it was learned from Roach.

"Buck" Whitlock, who played a standout game for the Islanders, had a bad bruise on the side of his head following the game as the result of the stick-swinging episode with MacDonagh in the third period. MacDonagh swung viciously at Buck as the two were engaged in a high sticking duel in the Islanders end and Buck swung back. The players could have drawn automatic match penalties for their actions.

Larry Travis, who blocked three hard shots in a row in the dying minutes of the third period, is sporting a badly bruised thigh today. Larry who was arguing like a Philadelphia lawyer last night, won't be making the trip to Sydney on Friday. Garey Gordon, who made a great play for the last goal of the game, had a request to make in the dressing room. He is looking for a three or four-room apartment and would appreciate it if some sports fans could help him out in this matter.

Ek-Islander Johnny Morrow who took some rough treatment during the game played senior baseball in Montreal during the summer. Johnny took a hard check from Lou Kiley in the first period and Lou by the way is quite a boxer. Back in 1929 Lou was regarded as the best amateur boxer in the middleweight class in the Maritimes and might have had quite a future as a professional. He chooses hockey instead and in the manner in which he is playing didn't make any mistake.

Miners Seeking Suspension Of Johnny Myketyyn

GLACE BAY, N.S., Oct. 22 (CP)—Glance Bay Miners reported tonight they are seeking suspension of home-brew Johnny Myketyyn, who has not come to terms with the club.

But the problem, they say, appears to be a verbal agreement Myketyyn had last season with coach Bud Poile. Under Canadian Amateur Hockey Association rules, the defenceman cannot be suspended for refusing to sign a contract.

He can be kept on the sidelines and an arbitration board may be set up to deal with the dispute.

Outstanding Roles

Coach Murph Chamberlain had his hat pushed well back as he half reclined in Bill Brown's swivel chair in the Forum office and spoke about the Islanders-Sydney game last night. Murph was in a happy mood over the way the Islanders played in the third period as he emphasized that they played hockey for a full 60 minutes. He was anxious to talk about Wimpy Stephenson and the way that Wimpy can put fight into a team once he gets on the move towards the opposing net. "And the crowd like him too," mused Murph. "Behind the players' benches they were shouting all night 'keep on your wing, Wimpy.' When he scored that goal they gave him the biggest ovation they'll give to any player in the Forum this winter."

Ch'town Goalie To Try-out With Leafs Organization

Thane Doyle, 17-year-old net-minder, who has been showing up well in training sessions of the Islanders, left yesterday evening by plane for Toronto, where he will be given an opportunity to join the Toronto Maple Leafs organization.

Doyle was recommended to Hap Day, Leafs General Manager by Murph Chamberlain, coach of the Islanders. Chamberlain has expressed his approval of Doyle's ability and believes he can make the grade with Toronto. He would probably be used as a practice goalie until he becomes of age to play junior hockey in Ontario.

If Thane shows enough promise in workouts at the Maple Leaf Gardens under the Toronto management, the Islanders will receive a player in exchange.

Doyle played last year with Amherst Ramblers in a Nova Scotia Junior League. The year before he played with Queen Square School.

Two other junior players, Brian Lewis and Junior MacLeod left here Tuesday morning for Halifax to attend the Halifax Saint Mary's training camp. Lewis and MacLeod played with Trenton Scots last year.

Another local junior, Orin Carver, is awaiting his release from Halifax to play with Barrie Flyers. It was reported yesterday that the Saints are asking $600 from the Flyers for Carver.

Leafs Roar From Behind To Defeat Red Wings 5-4

TORONTO, Oct. 22 (CP)—Toronto Maple Leafs roared from behind with a three-goal outburst to defeat Detroit Red Wings 5-4 before a crowd of 13,058. The victory put the Leafs in a three-way tie for second place in the National Hockey League with Chicago Black Hawks and Montreal Canadiens.

Behind 4-2 going into the final period, the Leafs, who have made it a habit of coming from behind this season, banged in three straight goals with the line of Max Bentley, Howie Meeker and Gord Hanigan leading the onslaught.

It was the second meeting of the two clubs this season. The first, in Detroit, ended 4-4 in a game marked with a total of 25 penalties, an all time high in a N.H.L. game.

Tonight's contest was tame compared with that brawl. Referee Red Storey called nine penalties—five to the league-leading Wings.

Hanigan started the third-period spurge 54 seconds after the opening face-off on passes from Meeker and Bentley. Penalties to Red Kelly and Marty Pavelich resulted in the tying goal by Bentley with Jim Thomson and Ron Stewart getting the assists in a smart power play.

The winner was notched by Meeker, who took a goal-mouth pass from Bentley.

Ted Lindsay opened the scoring at 5:59 of the first period when the Leafs were a man short and Ted Kennedy tied it less than six minutes later when the Wings were short handed. Kelly evened it at 19:24 and the Wings were on their way to victory in the second period when they went two up.

Gordie Howe coasted in on Harry Lumley to make it 3-2 at 4:30. Marty Pavelich counted at 15:08 to put the Wings in front 4-2.

But then came that last-period drive by the Leafs.

Goalie Nick Pidsodny Signs With Sydney

SYDNEY, Oct. 22 (CP)—Nick Pidsodny, colorful goalie whose antics in the Maritime Major Hockey League have always been worth the price of admission, has signed with Sydney Millionaires, President Art Lipton announced tonight.

Lipton told a shareholders meeting that Pidsodny left Hamilton, Ont., today and that he hoped to have him in action for the game with Charlottetown here Friday night.

He said the deal climaxed weeks of dickering with General Manager Hunt of Buffalo Bisons, who decided to release Pidsodny for the season. He would be subject to 24-hour recall.

It is believed that George Allard, Millionaires' present goalie, will be sent to Moncton Hawks of the New Brunswick Senior Hockey League.

Lipton said that if Pidsodny was recalled for any reason other than injuries, he would be replaced by Bisons' goalie McAtee.

Steps were taken by shareholders to bring another Sydney star into the fold. They decided to offer holdout Dunc MacIntyre the league's maximum salary—$3,000 for the regular schedule, exclusive of playoffs—to induce him to sign a contract.

Lipton also announced that the club had asked for the suspension of defenceman Ronnie Matthews, who failed to report at the Sydney training camp and now was playing with Sherbrooke in the Quebec senior loop.

Peakes Baseball Team Holds Enjoyable Banquet

The Peakes baseball team—the Bombers—which reached the finals in the Provincial Intermediate B playoffs this year, held a most enjoyable banquet last night at Sandy's Restaurant.

There were several speakers, including officials of the team. Others included Rev. Father Crken of St. Theresa and Major John A. MacDonald of Cardigan, president of the King's County Baseball League. Team officials heard were Joseph Trainor, Joseph Kenny, Jimmy Fiddler, MacDonagh, the coach, George Smith, manager, Thomas Curran.

At the dinner it was decided that Mike Handrahan would be captain of the 1953 team, Alfred Handrahan, manager, Fiddler MacDonagh coach and George Smith assistant coach.

Some 75 persons attended last night's most enjoyable function. A vote of thanks was tendered the manager of Sandy's Restaurant for his assistance in making the event an outstanding success.

Saints Defeat Welshmen 6-0 In Opening Game Of Intermediate Series

Saint Dunstan's University's second team won the opening game of the Island Intermediate series with Prince of Wales College 6-0 yesterday afternoon but only after overcoming a stubborn resistance by underdog Welshmen in a game played on Memorial Field.

The heavier red and white squad struck for two unconverted tries in the first half and fought on slightly better than even terms with Gordon Bennett's footballers in the last 30 minutes.

Hard running Gus Dorais, the standout in the S. D. U. backfield set up the first try with a beautiful 40 yard run through the P. W. C. defences. Dorais passed to Chick Morrissey 10 yards from the line and Morrissey made no mistake as he raced across and around behind the goal posts.

The play started from a scrum near centrefield. Hap Ready picked the ball cleanly and passed to flying quarter Joe Mullally. Mullally relayed the ball to Dorais who gave his brilliant exhibition of broken field running. The try was scored at 11:40 of the first half.

Fifteen minutes later the Saints increased their lead by three more points. Kip Ready engineered the try as he scooped up a ball from passing to Rodney MacInnis on the P. W. C. line. The big forward from Tignish had little more to do than touch the ball in P. W. C. scoring territory.

That completed the scoring for the afternoon. The Saints controlled the ball for the most part but hard tackling by several members of the Prince of Wales team prevented them from making many dangerous scoring thrusts.

The Welshmen had two good scoring opportunities one of them as a result of poor backfield play on the Saints part and the other through their own drive.

These threats came near the end of the first and second halves. The half-time whistle eliminated one of these threats and an S. D. U. kick wiped out the second.

The S. D. U. scrum, which was considerably heavier than the Welshmen's scrum controlled the ball on the heel-outs with the result that the Saints backfield had most of the opportunities to do the broken field running.

The Welshmen too had their good moments in the backfield. Morris Mizuno, wily inside half, made several good runs and sparked the P. W. C. attack.

Defensively Rory Lantz was a standout for the Welshmen. The little flying quarter tackled low and hard all afternoon and nipped numerous S. D. U. attacks in the bud. Lantz also excelled at kicking.

Duck MacLeod and Bobby Burke also turned in good games for P. W. C.

Forward Joe Coyle of St. Dunstan's was probably the pick of the Hillmen along with Max Callaghan and Gus Dorais.

The game, which was the first in the best of three series, was cleanly played. Referee Dr. Frank Jelsk handled the game in a very capable manner.

Lineups:
P. W. C.—Fullback, B. Chandler; three-quarters, N. Mizuno, J. Revell, B. Auld, C. MacDonagh; halves, R. Lantz, D. MacLeod; forwards, K. MacLeod, B. Burke, N. Hansen, G. Tweedy, H. Carr, B. MacKinnon, B. Hutchinson, G. Court, R. Houston.
S. D. U.—Fullback, Lawyer; three-quarters, MacEwen, G. Morrissey, G. Dorais, A. Mullin, J. Lydon; halves, J. Mullally, C. Ready; forwards, J. Coyle, R. MacInnis, M. Callaghan, A. Hickey, B. Whelan, A. Ryan; subs, D. Wedge, T. MacGaugh.

N. Y. Rangers Battle Boston Bruins To Tie

NEW YORK, Oct. 22 (AP)—Little Willie Hergesheimer pumped home all three goals tonight as the winless New York Rangers opened their home National Hockey League season by battling Boston Bruins to a 3-3 tie.

The Bruins jumped off to a 2-0 lead in the first period and appeared headed for an easy triumph.

Fleming Mackell received credit for Boston's first goal. Harry Howell, rookie Ranger defenceman, attempted to clear a shot but his pass bounced off team mate Hy Buller's skate into the net. Less than a minute later Johnny Peiron made it 2-0.

Hergesheimer put the Rangers in business late in the second period when he scored on a passing play with Herb Dickenson and Paul Ronty. The Rangers, who had repeatedly failed to take advantage when Boston was short-handed, finally tied it up early in the third period while Boston rookie Warren Godfrey was in the penalty box. Hergesheimer rammed the equalizer home during a goal-mouth scramble.

The Bruins charged right back and took a 3-2 lead shortly after the 15-minute mark while the Rangers' Steve Kraftcheck was serving time for interference. The Bruins threw four forwards on the ice and Ed Sanford slapped in a loose puck in front of the nets.

With less than two minutes of play remaining, Hergesheimer, Dickenson and Ronty carried the play deep into Boston territory. Hergesheimer took a pass out almost dead centre in front of the cage and blazed it home to tie the score for keeps.

Boston—Goal, Henry; defence, Quackenbush, Godfrey, Armstrong.
