S'ide Women Observe World Day Of Prayer

The World Day of Prayer in Summerside was observed in the Trinity United Church on Friday afternoon on the theme "Perfect Love Casteth Out Fear." The service was prepared by Christian women of Germany and the Central Day of Prayer Committee of New York. For use in our country it was adapted by a Committee of the Women's Inter-Church Council of Canada. Miss Mary Geldart was organist.

The Call to Worship was led by Mrs. W. Arthur Allen; Adoration by Mrs. Ray Clark, followed by the singing of "Now thank we all our God"; Penitence by Mrs. Winifred Morrison, followed by the singing of "Father of Heaven Whose Love is Profound"; Assurance by Miss Jean MacFadyen, followed by the singing of "This will I love, My Strength, My Tower." Dedication of self by Mrs. Jack MacLeod, followed by the singing of "Just as I am, without one plea"; Intercession by Mrs. Donald Baker, with prayers for their Majesties, King George and Queen Elizabeth; for all counsellors and advisors of the Crown and for leaders for all parts of the Commonwealth offered by Mrs. G. A. Coles; prayers for Canada, its communities and realization of responsibility, as citizens offered by Mrs. B. Read; prayers for the strengthening of the home, for children and young people everywhere and for those whose lives have been scarred by hunger, homelessness, falsehood and fear offered by Mrs. Howard MacLeod; prayer for the missionaries around the world and that women may have a deepening sense of responsibility and urgency in taking their share in the advancement of the Kingdom offered by Mrs. William E. Forbes; prayers for the Church Universal offered by Mrs. George L. Ehsen. Following a prayer in unison and The Lord's Prayer, Mrs. Donald Lidstone sang "I Wonder as I Wander". Mrs. L. M. Callbeck gave an interesting address on the work arour' the world' which our gifts help to make possible, showing the relation of the theme "Perfect Love Casteth Out Fear" to these projects "What your money does"; also the allocations of the Day of Prayer Service.

The offering, which was received by Joyce Rogerson, Barbara Clark, Marion Wright and Barbara Casselman of the Trinity Explorers, was dedicated by Mrs. Allen. The closing hymn "The day Thou Gavest Lord is Ended," was followed by the benediction, Thelma Cameron, Mary Currie and L. da Barlow of the Trinity G. G. I. T. acted as ushers.—S.

An excerpt from an article entitled "How Korean Christians Fare" in The United Churchman of February 8 will be of interest to many in this province as the Rev. H. M. Cho, along with Miss Louise McCully, a missionary to Korea, had been house guests for three weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Gilling MacKay, Summerside, in 1948. "Many will remember Rev. H. M. Cho who studied in Dalhousie University and Pine Hill in 1913 and later years. He had remained in Wonsan all through the past years and only now have we learned his fate. Mr. Cho Hee Yum was shot October 10, 1950, in prison after being held four months. He was head of the pro-Fred Christian League, which all the local pastors had to join in order to survive."

The first in a series of monthly services to be presented by the Y. P. S. of the Summerside Church of Christ was held on Sunday evening at the regular service. The theme was "The Good Shepherd" with Mr. Marshall Callbeck as leader. Interspersed throughout were the following: Vocal Duet "The Lord is My Shepherd" by Sylvia and Alida Rayner; Mixed Quartet "Saviour Lead Me Lest I Stray" by Messrs. Herbert and Frank Best; Messrs. Edwina Delaney and Sylvia Rayner; a Reading "He Leadeth Me" by Miss June Chappell; male quartet, "Where He Leads Me I will Follow" Messrs. Frank Herbert and Norman Best and Rev. W. O. Weale, with guitar accompaniment; vocal solo, "The Ninety and Nine" by the minister. The concluding message on The Good Shepherd was presented by the minister with his address based on the three divisions. The Good Shepherd, The Chief Shepherd and the Great Shepherd. The congregational hymns sung were "Saviour like a Shepherd," "He Leadeth Me" and "When He calls me I will Answer." Mrs. M. Mellish was organist.—S.

The Senior B.Y.P.U. of the Summerside Baptist Church were guests of the Young Married Group at a Valentine Social on Tuesday evening. Contests and games were much enjoyed, especially "Share The Wealth" ably conducted by Messrs. Elmer Waugh and Edward Poole. Delicious refreshments were served by the Group in charge.—S.

Mrs. George T. Clarke presided over the meeting of the Ladies' Guild of the Summerside St. Mary's Church which met on Tuesday evening in the Parish hall. After The Lord's Prayer and routine business a discussion was held on a Variety Concert which will be held in the near future. Miss Elaine Harrison was lunch hostess. The next regular meeting on February 27 will take the form of a social at the home of Mrs. J. Wilfred Lecky.—S.

The Y.P.S. of the Summerside Church of Christ held its regular meeting in the hall on Tuesday evening with the president, Mr. Frank Best, in the chair. There were 21 members present. Mrs. Milton Mellish conducted the worship service which opened with the singing of "Anywhere with Jesus," followed with responsive reading from Psalm 34 and The Lord's Prayer in unison. During the business period a discussion was held in regard to the finding of a suitable religious play to be presented in the church. A thank-you letter was received from Miss Carla Lewin for the lovely basket of fruit sent to her while she was a patient in Prince County Hospital. The minister voiced his appreciation for the splendid manner in which the Society conducted the Sunday evening service.—S.

The G.G.I.T. Group of the Summerside Baptist Church held its regular meeting on Tuesday evening in the Hall with the leader, Mrs. A. H. Lamont in charge.
