FIRE IN MONTREAL.—Property of the value of $100,000, was destroyed by fire in Montreal on Sunday last.

PERSONAL.—L. H. Davies, Esq., (Leader of the Opposition,) and lady, are enjoying a holiday tour in the neighboring provinces.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.—Mr. Allen McLean, of Crapaud, was, on the 3d instant, kicked by his horse. He died within thirty hours.

MORE CANADIAN LITERATURE.—An Ottawa despatch reports that "P. S. Hamilton, of Halifax, has issued a prospectus of a new Canadian magazine."

An Ottawa despatch reports that Lady Macdonald is about to make a contribution to Canadian authorship in the shape of a novel on Canadian life.

ALEX. STRONACH, Esq., Assistant Mechanical Superintendent I. C. R., has accepted the position of Mechanical Superintendent of the P. E. Island Railway.—Chignecto Post.

JOURNALISTIC LIBEL SUITS.—George Brown, of the Toronto Globe, has issued writs to the number (it is said) of fifteen, against as many publishers of newspapers, for a gross and malicious libel of his personal character.

THE MACKEREL FISHERY.—Mackerel fishermen on the North side of this Island are having great luck this year. The fish are reported more than ordinarily plentiful. We hear of immense catches at Rustico during the past week.

THE RECIPROCITY TREATY.—The Board of Trade of Hamilton, Ontario, recently passed the following resolution:—"That this Board are of opinion that the proposed Treaty, without considerable modification will be highly injurious to the interests of Canada, politically and commercially, and should not be adopted without such modifications."

PERSONAL.—Kenneth McKenzie, Esq., of Toronto, who resigned a county judgeship to re-enter public life, and is known as a prominent leader in the Reform Ranks, is on a brief visit to St. John. He is stopping at Barnes' Hotel. Mr. McKenzie has seen the North Shore and Prince Edward Island, and is highly pleased with the Maritime Provinces.—St. John Telegraph.

WILLIAM SMITH, Esq., Deputy Minister of Marine and Fisheries, arrived here yesterday morning from Halifax, after a short visit to Governor Hill of Newfoundland. Mr. Smith was treated with great consideration in Newfoundland, though we do not hear of any overtures being made to him looking towards the Union of that Island with Canada as a confederate Province.—St. John Telegraph.

OPPOSITION CANDIDATE ELECTED IN NAPIERVILLE.—It is rather a significant fact that in the first election for the Commons which has taken place under the ballot a Conservative has been elected, and for M. Dorion's old seat too. Mr. Cupal has been returned for Napierville. This may be taken to indicate public opinion on that county of the way in which M. Dorion shelved himself on the Bench, and of the conduct of the Government generally. Mr. Mackenzie will probably begin to learn that his position is far from impregnable.—Toronto Mail.

THE NEWFOUNDLANDERS should make haste and bring their Province into our Union that their rights may be guarded and resources developed. As it is now situated it is placed at great disadvantage. It was but a short time ago that operations on a valuable lead mine on the western shore of the Colony were abandoned on the requirement of the Imperial authorities, because the French who have a treaty right to fish along that shore, took umbrage at the working of the mine. The fact discloses a monstrous condition of things which ought to be changed, and in Confederation would be effectually changed pretty quickly.—St. John News.

HOME FOR LITTLE WANDERERS.—Rev. R. G. Toles, will deliver an address upon the Baldwin Place Home for Little Wanderers, in the (Kirk) St. James' Church, on Sunday, August 23rd, at 11 a.m., Zion Church, (Presbyterian) at 3 o'clock p.m., and in the Market Hall in the evening. A choir of Children will be present and sing some choice pieces of music. All are invited. A collection will be taken. Mr. Toles will also deliver an address on the work of the Home, in the Market Hall on Monday evening at 8 o'clock. A choir of children from the Home will be present, and sing some of their beautiful Solos, Trios, Quartettes and Choruses; assisted by Miss Kate Davis, who will give select Readings from the best authors. Of a similar entertainment the Daily Saratogian, says:—"A most delightful entertainment was given last evening by Mr. Toles, and his Choir. Several pieces were sung in good taste, the remarkable voice of Miss Kate Davis showing to excellent advantage in solos and choruses. We have never heard such a voice; such depth, compass, power and sweetness, it is simply marvellous. No less remarkable than her singing were her readings. We heard but two pieces, Trowbridge's 'Charcoal Man,' and the 'Gridiron,' the latter being a humorous dialogue. In the first piece the young reader displayed the wonderful power of her voice, more like the tones of a rich bell than anything else we can think of. In the latter she discovered very remarkable histrionic powers.' The public are invited. A collection will be taken.

SUICIDE AT THE ASYLUM.

At six o'clock on Monday evening last, one of the attendants at our "Hospital for the Insane," (so called) locked a lunatic woman, named Arnold, in her room for the night. Returning next morning the attendant was surprised to find a weight against the door; and, forcing it open, was shocked to see the woman hanging dead. In the ceiling of the room, just above the door, was an opening for ventilation; across which were two or three bars. By means of a small table, the unfortunate lunatic reached these bars, passed a scarf over them, slipped a loop of the scarf around her neck. She then kicked away the table—and died. It appears that she was predisposed to self-destruction; and, the persons responsible for the care of the patients at the Asylum were culpably negligent for permitting such simple means of committing suicide as a scarf, a table, and a hole in the ceiling with bars across it to be within her reach. A "Coroner's Inquest" was held on Tuesday evening. The jury returned the following verdict:—

"The deceased came to her death by hanging herself with a scarf, being at the time of unsound mind; and we emphatically condemn the carelessness shown in allowing a patient, having a tendency to self destruction, to have possession of a scarf or any article which would enable her to carry out her intention. We also consider the practice of confining patients of the description of the deceased in a room by themselves as highly objectionable."

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

NAVAL.—H. M. S. Zephyr is in port.

MR. ROBERT SHAW has been appointed to the office of Recorder of the city.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.—There will be a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce this (Monday) evening, for the purpose of considering the appointment of a delegate to the September meeting af the United Board of Trade, at Newcastle-on-Tyne.

RIFLE COMPETITION.—At the Rifle Match, last Wednesday, the first prize, first competition, was won by Sergeant J. D. Irving, of the 1st Battery of Artillery, and the first prize second competition (all comers) by Gunner W. W. Stumbles, also of the 1st Battery of Artillery, of this city.

A CHALLENGE.—The Charlottetown Amateur Rifle Club issued a challenge to the 1st Battery of Artillery to a rifle match, ten against ten, for $750—or less—the match to take place upon the 31st inst.,—ten rounds to be fired—viz, five at 200 yards, standing, and five at 300 yards, standing or kneeling.

ANOTHER P. E. ISLANDER DROWNED.—A telegram to the St. John Telegraph, dated Newcastle, N. B., August 10th, reports:—"Edward Gallagher, a native of Prince Edward Island, was drowned while bathing in the river off Flett's mill, Nelson, this afternoon. The body was recovered soon after, and an inquest is now being held before coroner Benson. The deceased was twenty-two years of age."

THE WEATHER AND THE CROPS.—Our farmers are "beginning to hope" that the "rainy season" is about over. The growing crops had a "benefit" last week—to the injury of the 'cut hay.' Altogether the past week has been very rainy. On Thursday night last rain fell continuously and in torrents. In the country everything looks luxuriant.

A BED OF GRAVEL AT STRATHALBYN.—The Patriot reports the discovery of a bed of gravel at Strathalbyn. It is of excellent quality. The deposit is some six feet deep and several acres in extent. It is situated within two miles of the railway. The pebbles of which this gravel bed is composed do not in the least resemble the Island rock. There is among them a great number of quartz pebbles, and the rest are brown and reddish fine grained stones. The bed was discovered by a young man named Elliot, of Lot 67.

The troubles between the whites and blacks at Austin, Arkansar, still continue, and are represented as serious. Several collisions have occurred in which the negroes were repulsed and lost a number of men. The number of whites lost is small. The condition of the whites in Austin is represented as being one of danger at present.

It is understood that the Pacific Mail Steamship Company has contracted for the construction of three more first class iron steamers, which are to be fifty feet longer than the Colima and Colon, and are guaranteed to have fifty per cent. more power. The cost of each will be $600,000, while the expenses of the outfit will be $100,000 additional. They are to be built on the Deleware.

Prince Edward Islanders are congratulating themselves that the stringent times now prevailing in this country are sending back the young men who for years have been leaving the Island by scores. It is a noticeable fact in the history of the Province that for years there has been a steady drain of young men to the United States. The returning prodigal will need a continued supply of veal, however, to keep them at home.—Boston Journal.

THE LORD MAYOR OF LONDON has entered upon an ardous undertaking. He has determined to give a banquet to the chief representatives of Art and Literature in England, France, and Belgium. The Lord Mayor has great courage, for his judgment will be open to severe criticism, and he will be sure to give offence to some one. To decide on the chief representatives of Art and Literature in the three countries implies wide reading, and it will be a curious thing to note the names that will be selected by the Lord Mayor.

AQUATIC.—EVAN MORRIS CHALLENGES GEO. BROWN.—On the 10th inst., Evan Morris, in company with John Biglin, called at the New York Clipper office and deposited $100 to cover the following challenge:—

NEW YORK, Aug. 10, 1874.

EDITOR N. Y. CLIPPER—Dear Sir—I hereby challenge George Brown or any man in America, to row me a three or five-mile race, in best and best boats, for two thousand dollars a side. Time and course to be mutually agreed upon. In consideration of said challenge, I hereby deposit in your hands the sum of one hundred dollars, to show that I mean business. If the amount is not covered in three weeks, I will claim the championship, and any one who doubts my claim will have to row me for the title.

Very truly yours,
EVAN MORRIS.

A SAD STORY.

We clip the following sad story from the St. John News, of the 14th inst. The man "McCarron," was, we regret to report, Charles McCarron, a native of Prince Edward Island:—"Yesterday morning a most distressing case of suicide occurred at St. John Hotel, Church street, in this city. The victim was a young girl by the name of Bridget Kelly. The particulars of the case are sad and reveal perfidy on the part of her betrayer and a blind confidence on the part of a poor innocent girl. The case of the latter—deserted in a strange city, the evidence of her shame apparent, and her sad and tragic end, excite the keenest pity of all. The particulars of the sad case which came out in the Coroner's inquest are as follows: The deceased Bridget Kelly belongs to Canterbury, and has been living at Calais, Me. Last Tuesday week she came to this city by the American boat and stopped that night at Agnew's boarding house. The next morning she went out in quest of a young man named McCarron, who had came from Calais the Saturday previous. She found him in the St. John House on Church street. Here she remained until yesterday morning. She paid her board bill on Saturday last, and said she would remain in the house until the following Monday, when she would endeavor to obtain a situation. Her condition was noticed by the female inmates of the house, and though she was questioned she refused to take any one into her confidence. During the time she was in the house she had frequent interviews with McCarron. Mr. Doherty, the landlord of the house, expostulated with the latter on the injury he had done the girl, and the reparation that was due her, but he received evasive replies. On Wednesday evening McCarron and the girl talked for a long time together in the sitting room of the hotel. Yesterday morning the girl went out before breakfast and purchased at Chaloner's drug store the poison, stating that she wanted to kill a dog. Returning, she went up to her room, where she took the poison, and almost immediately came down to breakfast, not before she had arranged a pillow on the sofa in the sitting room above, in view of the consequences that must ensue from her terrible act. At the breakfast table she was observed to turn pale and gasp, and declaring that her sight was failing, she was assisted to the room above, and Dr. J. T. O. Earle called in, but before he arrived the unfortunate girl had breathed her last. The deceased was about 22 years of age. Her modest demeanor and evident distress excited the pity of all in the house.

THE DEVELOPMENT OF OUR COAL TRADE.

We are pleased to learn that Mr. John Young, Mining Engineer, who went to Montreal for the purpose of obtaining money for the development of the mineral resources of this Island, has good prospects of success. His proposals have, we understand, been favorably entertained by capitalists in that city. The Montreal Herald, of the 8th inst., has the following paragraph:—

MINERAL SPECIMENS FROM PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND.—Mr. John Young, Mining Engineer, of Charlottetown, P. E. Island, is at present in town in connection with certain mining properties upon the Island, which he is anxious to develope. He has brought with him a number of minerals and fossils, the minerals being manganese, slate and iron ore, which he has discovered in different parts of that Province. Although he has not with him specimens of the coal, he has a quantity of the fossils which are always to be found in close proximity to it, the other indications being also most favorable. The iron ore is found close to Orwell Bay, a fine harbor, 16 miles from Charlottetown, with coal close by. The great expected coal bed is at Miminigash, two and a half miles from the Tignish branch of the Island Railway. The manganese is found at Horse Head. The iron ore bed is said to have a width of 150 yards, and is only about eight feet from the surface. The specimens, which are all fine ones, are now to be seen at the office of Boyd & Arnton, Commissioners street.

The Montreal Gazette of the 8th says—

Mr. Young, of Prince Edward Island, is at present in Montreal, endeavoring to form a company to develope the gold fields of this Island. Some years ago the Local Legislature granted £1,000 to be given as a reward to any one who would discover a working seam of coal on the Island. Mr. Young, last winter, brought the matter before the Legislature, and succeeded in obtaining a grant from them of $500 to enable him to test the matter by sinking a shaft. The sum granted was used by him for this purpose, but was found to be too small to pay the necessary expenses not quite $300 was used and a shaft sunk thirty feet. Mr. Young feels confident that he will find coal 200 feet below the surface, and has come to this city to procure funds to enable him to preceed with his undertaking. He has brought with him several specimens of iron discovered on the Island, and also some fine fossil plants. Mr. Young can be seen at Boyd & Arnton's office, Commissioner street.

CONCLUSIONS ABOUT CANADA.

"AFTER a week of profitable and delightful association with the most intelligent and successful business men of Canada," the special correspondent to the New York Tribune—who attended the meetings of the Dominion Board of Trade at St. John—has been led to the following conclusions:—

1. That Canada has advanced a full generation in actual development and conscious power since the Government of Great Britain threw the provinces on their own resources and fostered the establishment of the union between them styled the Dominion.

2. That a national spirit has not only a birth among the Canadians, but is already a formidable power that public men dare not affront, but are anxious to conciliate.

3. That the ligament between the British Government and that of Canada is of the slenderest nature, more of form than of substance, and that Canada is now ruled practically by her own men, and will in future be ruled only by men of Canadian opinions who are devoted to Canadian interests. And Canada has native statsmanship equal to the demands of complete home rule.

4. Free intercourse, socially and commercially, with the United States will strengthen the tendency in Canada toward republican sentiment, and lead ultimately to a harmony between the two nations that will place their Government in happy accord, if it does not unite them, and so promote peace and prosperity as greatly to increase the wealth and population of both.

5. The failure on the part of the United States Senate to ratify the newly proposed reciprocity treaty with Canada was a grave mistake which cannot be too promptly rectified when that body meets in December. The danger to be apprehended is that under the pressure of hostile public opinion in Canada the British and Dominion Governments my disavow it and ask for its withdrawal and cancellation."

The same "special Correspondent" found a high estimate of the Maritime Provinces and their inhabitants. He writes:—

"Indeed, the western provinces, which politically are the controlling power of the Dominion, have good reason to be proud of the Maritime Provinces—New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island and Nova Scotia—for the population of the latter states, so far from being long isolated and hid away from civilization by hyperborean fogs, as the average reader of transatlantic sea voyages is apt to conclude, is found by the surprised visitor to be an intelligent, enterprising, and wealthy people, cultured and refined by over a century's contact with the world's commerce, and actively sympathizing in the rapid progress of the day by building ships and sailing them, by building railroads and telegraphs and using them, and by making a citizen of the United States who, for the first time, enjoys the hospitality of the people and becomes acquainted with their large mindedness, feel that if he were not a citizen of the States he would be glad to be a Canadian."
