

AMERICAN CLASSIC

There's nothing that so epitomizes the crisp, fresh appeal of the American girl as does the shirtwaist. No wonder it is hailed as an American classic! Betty Barclay does a number stitched with an artist's eye tapered perfection. The fabric is a soft but crisp blend of cotton and rayon and the designer gives the dress a ruffled, tucked bodice, lace-trimmed convertible collar and lace-trimmed sleeves. It's pretty in pastel and noteworthy for its sensible price tag.
