BRISTOL

The many friends of Rev. Father William V. MacDonald, parish priest at St. Peter's Bay, will regret to learn of his serious illness in the Charlottetown Hospital where he has been a patient for some ten days.

The condition of Charlie McCarthy, who is seriously ill at his home here is slightly improved after an attack early last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Somerled Kelly, were visitors to the city on Friday evening on business as were Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Perry.

We learned with regret of the passing of Mrs. Alex McEachern, in the hospital at Charlottetown, last week after a long, long illness. Besides her husband, she leaves to mourn one daughter, Mary in Toronto, and two sisters in the vicinity and two brothers. We extend sincere sympathy at this time. Her funeral was held at St. Andrew's where high mass was sung by the pastor, Rev. George McCormick, and she was laid to rest in the family plot in the church cemetery.

The regular meeting of the CWL was held December 4th with thirty-five members present. Following the business section of the meeting a very interesting talk was given by Rev. E. Robbin, on "Parent Education in the Homes."

The new parish hall on the Little Flower Church grounds will open shortly and a series of card games will be carried on during the winter months for the building fund.

GEORGETOWN
