Enmore And Vicinity

Mr. Angus MacArthur left recently to spend several months in Labrador.

The United Ladies' Aid Society held their October meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles Frost. Plans were made to hold a chicken supper in November.

Mrs. Alex MacLeod, Mrs. George Ballem and Messrs Ance and Clayton Ballem from Mt. Pleasant were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Balkem, Bedouque, on October 18.

Recent guests of Reverend and Mrs. Osborn, "Mapleshade", Victoria West, were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mars, Auburn, Mass., and Mrs. Lena B. Hale, East Templeton, Mass.

LAW Grace Darby who has been stationed at Camp Borden, Ont., is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Darby, Abrams Village. She called on friends in this vicinity recently. She was a former teacher in Enmore School.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Griffin and three children, Charlottetown were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Bryant on Sunday afternoon, October 18. Mrs. Griffin is the former Mary Trainor from Mt. Ryan and was the teacher in North Enmore school some years ago.

Presbyterian Ladies Aid Society met for their October meeting at the home of Mrs. Burns MacArthur. Seven members answered the roll call with a verse of scripture. A devotional and business period was carried out. Mrs. Ramsay MacLeod invited the Aid to meet at her house in November.

The many friends of Mrs. Mabel Enman are glad to welcome her back to Victoria West, after having spent several months in the United States. Mrs. Enman visited her birth place in Worcester, Mass., and saw many changes in that city since she left it years ago. She was accompanied home by her daughter, Mrs. Clifford Hinkley.

IN MEMORIAM

JAMES WILFRED CREEMER
The death occurred on Sept. 29, of James Wilfred Creemer at Rutland, Mass., after a lengthy illness.

Mr. Creemer was born in Gosnold, Mass., but lived in Charlottetown, P.E.I., for many years. He was the son of the late Lawrence and Emily (Doiron) Creemer, and is survived by five brothers, Ralph of Falmouth, Earl of West Falmouth, Ronald and Donald of Toronto, and Lloyd of the Marine Corps at Portsmouth Virginia and five sisters: Ruth O'Hanley, St. Peters Bay, P.E.I., Bertha McEwen, Bristol, Lot 40, P.E.I., Teresa, Jeffrey and Helen Daniels, Toronto, and Marjorie Hicks of Boston, Mass.

Interment was at the Roman Catholic Cemetery in Falmouth, Mass. Rev. Thomas Stapleton officiating at the church and grave. Pallbearers were Cyrus Dolron, Edward Roderick, John Harlow and Warren Glaeser.

Gardiner, Me., and her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Enman, Worcester, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Enman, Springhill, left by car October 21, for Maine, Toronto and other cities in Ontario where they will visit relatives and friends. Mr. Philip MacArthur, Enmore, accompanied them as far as Portland, Me., where he will visit his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Niebet, later going to Boston, Mass., to visit two other daughters, Mrs. Jessie Phillips and Mrs. Katherine MacLennan.

The service in the Presbyterian Church, Victoria West, on Sunday evening October 18, was conducted by Reverend William Osborn who brought an inspiring message to the large congregation. Mr. and Mrs. Osborn left for their home in Auburn, Mass., after spending the summer months at their home "Mapleshade", Victoria West. Their many friends hope to see them back next summer.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. MILTON F. VESSEY
The community of York and surrounding districts were greatly saddened by the death of Mrs. Milton F. Vessey on the evening of October 9, aged 71 years at the P. E. I. Hospital. The faithful visits of her pastor and his wife, and the many acts of kindness by relatives and friends were a source of joy and comfort to her as was also the home-coming of her grand-daughter, Norma to be with her in her last hours.

Her loss to this community is great indeed as she was a woman of outstanding Christian life and unwavering loyalty to her faith and her church. She never a quiet unassuming manner, never known to complain, a loyal and sympathetic neighbor, always charitable and kind to everyone, and above all a loving wife and mother. Her loss in the home will be most keenly felt.

Converted and received into the Methodist Church (now United) in young womanhood, Mrs. Vessey has always stood foursquare for righteousness and Godly living. Her memory will long bless this Community and comfort her sorrowing and bereaved family. She was the daughter of the late Benjamin Gill, Pleasant Grove and his wife, Elizabeth Wares. The deceased members of this family were Nelson who lost his life in the War of 1914-18 after four years service. Alma, (Mrs. John P. Grainger, Sydney, N. S.) who predeceased her two years ago and twins who died in infancy.

On Dec. 20th, 1905 she married Milton Vessey of York, and their happy married life was blessed with three children: Florence, Mrs. Harry Lewis, Frank, and Richard all of York who with their father now mourn the loss of their kind, good and loyal wife and mother; also twelve grand-children: Helen, Norma R. N., Anetta, (Mrs. Malcolm Allan), Bernice, (Mrs. Douglas Moore), Laken, Frankie, Marjorie and Marilyn, Lewis, Nelson, Beryl, Florence and Dwight, Vessey and one great-grandchild, Norma Gail Moore.

She was a life member of the W. M. S., member of W. C. T. U. since its organization in York, a Charter member of Alpha Women's Institute where she was always present and her good judgment and consistent manner won the respect of all.

Her niece Jessie, (Mrs. Scott) and brother-in-law, John Grainger came by plane from Sydney to be present at the funeral. There was an unusually large attendance at her service in York United Church on Sunday, October 11th, conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. M. Sproule assisted by Rev. T. A. Wilson who spoke comforting words to the bereaved family.

The hymns sung were: "All the Way My Savior Leads Me," "Beneath The Cross of Jesus," and "Forever With The Lord"

Pallbearers were: Elmer Brown, Edison Hardy, Ira Lewis, B. A. Mellett, Harold Watts, and Minto Foster.

Her remains were tenderly laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery. Floral tributes were as follows: Pilow, The Family. Wreath, Aunt Catherine Gill. Sprays: Grandchildren: Allison, Carol and family. Arch and Lucy, Horace and Edie. Mayme, Leigh and Marguerite. Ivan and Helen, Stan and Norma. Jennie and Abner. Edith, Elmer and Arthur. Irene, Edison and family. Marion and Millar, Marjorie and Hazel, Lewis and Francis. Vera and Borden and The Lewis Family. Brynton and MacKay Co. York W. M. S. and W. C. T. U. Alpha Women's Institute. Phone call: Ross and Ruth Sharples, Sydney.
