Foreign Aid Review Suggested By Doctor

By ALLAN BAILEY OSHAWA, Ont. (CP)—The Canadian government should review its foreign aid program instead of pouring money into areas which fail to live up to commitments, a doctor said here.

Dr. Claude H. Vipond, one of five Canadian doctors and a nurse sent to Malaya two years ago under the Colombo plan said in an interview:

"I thought there was a real need in that country and help would be welcomed—but I was wrong."

"The sultan of Pahang is building a $25,000,000 palace while trucks repairing the roads in his state have been donated by the government of Canada."

Dr. Vipond was accompanied by Dr. J. D. Hermann, Ottawa; Dr. D. G. Sloan, St. Thomas, Ont.; Dr. Donald McLean, Winnipeg; and Dr. Guy Screech and Mrs. Margaret McSweeney, both of Vancouver. The team was sent to Malaya to explain medical and surgical techniques to doctors there.

United States government sources in Washington said Tuesday the underworld has set a price of $100,000 on Valachi's head.

PM Defends Slow Action

By JAMES NELSON OTTAWA (CP)—Heavy action in putting Hal Banks' Seafarers International Union of Canada (IUC) under a government trusteeship might have provoked far-reaching consequences if the government is able to avoid Prime Minister Pearson's cabinet decision.

If precedence action was taken in 1957 and now has government similar to the British system.

Each state has a union which "enjoys a lavish standard of living which seems to be out of place in a country which is soliciting foreign aid."

There are 9,000,000 people in Malaya, living in its 11 states. The country, previously governed by Britain, gained its in-

FBI Witness Said In Canada

WINNIPEG (CP)—The Free Press says Joseph Valachi, the informant who gave officials their best information on the structure of the syndicate which dominates the crime picture in the United States, is believed to be hiding in Western Canada. The newspaper says the informant is said to have arrived in Canada recently under heavy police protection.

Wine Days In B.C. To Stay, Vineyard Operators Declare

KELOWNA, B.C. (CP)—Days of wine have arrived in British Columbia. They will stay, promise the men farming old and new vineyards here in the Okanagan Valley, and the men operating new and long-established wineries here and in Vancouver.

Investment to $2,500,000 from $750,000 six years ago. West Coast Wines Ltd. built a plant 200,000 gallons storage capacity in 1960 at Vancouver. Made its first sales in November, 1961 and is expanding into new space for handling, bottling and an additional 100,000 gallons of storage.

MacMillans Hold Rally

PRESTWICK, Scotland (Reuters)—Fifty MacMillans flew in from today—Canadians and Americans arriving for a big MacMillan clan gathering at Loch Sween, Argyll, Scotland.

POPULIST GROWS

A growing number of farmers are turning to grapes as a crop that thrives in the Okanagan and sells under government help. Wineries must take 60 per cent of the grapes from B.C. and they will gladly quit importing entirely once domestic supplies meet demands.

Andre's has an extensive program under way on 200 acres to test more than 30 varieties of grapes, and plans to double the project next year.

Mr. J. Downing, manager of West Coast Wines, says there has been a revolution in public tastes in the last 10 to 15 years. "People have come to recognize Canadian wines as a quality product," says Mr. Downing.

Canada Wines is the result of a scheme by 30 Kelowna businessmen, who pooled $50 each during the depression to attract a new industry here.

The leader of the group was tentatively W. A. C. Bonney, now B.C. Premier. Controlling the company since 1961 have been Pezansky "Cops" Capozzi, and another original backer, with sons Tom, Joe and Herb, the latter general manager of the B.C. Lions football team.

"The heat gives you the sugar, and the gravel retains the day's heat during the night."

"The vines, marmalade, will produce for as long as 100 years."

"This is our first rally in Scotland since 1889 and we have the family coming over with us this year."

One of the clan's leaders in Scotland, Mal, William MacMillan, said: "The prime minister was officially invited to attend our product, I'm speaking for would not be able to attend because of other commitments."

Harold Macmillan flew to Helsinki Tuesday for an official visit.

He welcomed a suggestion for a federal-provincial conference on unemployment, shrugged off NDP leader Douglas' honeymoon — over statement, and said he isn't alarmed at public opinion poll results.
