MR. AND MRS. LEO S. GALLANT
Souris Couple Are United In Double Ring Ceremony

St. Mary's Church, Souris, was the scene of a pretty fall wedding on Tuesday, at 9 o'clock when Mary Joyce, R.N., only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Paquet, Souris, P.E.I., became the bride of Leo Sabinces, son of Mrs. Adele Gallant and the late J.H. Gallant, Souris, P.E.I.

IDA BAILEY ALLEN
Dinner Party For Four In A Small Apartment

THE Chef and I were seated on the long banquet, enjoying dinner at the Harwyn Club in New York City.

ELLEN'S DIARY
Alderlea Visitor Thinks Children Marry Too Young

So pleasant a day this has been: white clouds drifted lazily as in Summer long the winter-blue; a light wind moved in the birch branches and in the wide-spread fan of golden willow.

SMALL DINNER PARTY
"You might plan to serve the sole when you give a little dinner party," I suggested to the young lady. "It's broiled, then topped with a mushroom butter sauce and sauteed. It is nice with rissole potatoes, which you can buy frozen, ready to heat and serve."

BRUNCH PARTY
"John ordered the stuffed veal chop which I just tasted. It's really wonderful; so new and different."

LONG CREEK
A good attendance was present at the annual business meeting held in the Long Creek Baptist Church on January 14, 1959.

DOG HATER AT WORK
MINTO, N.B. (CP)—Residents of this central New Brunswick community of about 1,500 apparently have a dog hater in their midst. RCMP are investigating reports by residents that some 30 dogs died of poisoning within 28 hours last week. Police said causes of the deaths were not ascertained.
