HON. JOHN YOUNG, one of the most prominent citizens of Montreal, died at his residence on the 12th.

THE plankways in different parts of the city require a little attention. Some places they are so unlevel that walking is very difficult.

REMEMBER the public temperance meeting, in the Reform Club Room, this evening. Chair taken at 8 o'clock. Admission 5 cents.

A LECTURE, delivered by Joe Hogan in Allin's Hall last night, was attended by over three hundred persons. The "lecture" was chiefly on local gossip.

THE Steamer Worcester has not yet been heard from. Invoices from Boston received by parties in this city have the signature of the steamer Carroll. This indicates that she is about to sail for this port.

THE difficulties between the South-Eastern and Passumpsic railways have been amicably settled, and through trains from Montreal to Boston will be resumed.

THE Government Steam Dredge is engaged at dredging the ballast floor of old Pownal Wharf. The Mayor and eight of the City Councillors inspected the work at 9 o'clock this forenoon.

DON'T COME HERE BEGGING.—Every newspaper man will appreciate the following from an exchange, if no one else does: "Get your printing done where you please—it is your right—but please do not, after spending your money elsewhere, come to this office begging free local notices. It isn't business—it isn't decent."

SCALDED TO DEATH.—The St. John Telegraph says: The child whom we reported yesterday as being severely scalded on Wednesday, by the upsetting of a teapot off the stove, died yesterday afternoon, from its injuries. The father, Mr. Frank Patterson, lives on Clarence street, and is in great distress at the loss of his baby, who was only two years old.

THE exports from this port for the week ending March 16th were, in value, $1,537,487. This has never been but once exceeded. The larger part of these ($1,292,963) were shipments to England. The aggregate value of exports to date exceeds that for the same period last year by more than $2,000,000. These facts are favorable and encouraging.—Boston Advertiser.

A NEW Division of the Sons of Temperance, called "Dauntless, No. 106," was formally organized at Morell, last evening, by the G. W. Patriarch, with 19 charter members. Mr. James Harty was elected and installed W. P. for the present quarter. The other officers will appear in another issue. We are glad to find the old order of the Sons of Temperance prospering in our midst. We wish "Dauntless" Division a prosperous future.

SEVERE CASE OF POISONING.—Several children playing near Dennis Stream, on Tuesday afternoon, gathered and ate what they supposed to be sarsaparilla root. The root turned out to be very poisonous, and two of the children, Mammie Short and Nellie Townsend, were badly poisoned. The other children were only slightly sick. Dr. Thompson was in attendance, and the children are now out of danger.—St. Croix Courier.

Globe of yesterday:—"It is safe to say that there is not in the whole Dominion a single public man of any prominence who supported the Mackenzie Administration in 1874 but will oppose it in 1878; and what is true of prominent public men, is true of the members of the Ministerial Party generally." The fate of the amanuensis who thus unwittingly told the truth is now being determined by Mr. Brown. He will probably be condemned for life to occupy apartments in the Neebing Hotel.—Mail.

CITY COUNCIL.—At the meeting of the City Council, held last evening, D. R. M. Hooper, Esq., was appointed City Assessor, vice William Dodd, Esq., resigned. The Bell Tower was reported to be at present in an unsafe condition; and a Committee, consisting of Councillors Byrne, Hooper and Hertz, was therefore appointed to inspect it. The building of Pownal Wharf was for some length of time under discussion. As the Steam Dredge was to commence work at it to-day, it was resolved that the manager be instructed to deposit the contents of the scows as far up in the dock as possible. The meeting then adjourned.

THE St. John News reports that an early hour on Saturday morning a lady of twenty-seven years, named Matilda O'Neill, was found dead in her bed, at Mrs. Roach's boarding-house, Jeffrey's Hill. She went to bed apparently in good health. Miss O'Neill was to have been married on Saturday afternoon last, at three o'clock, to a man named Hutchinson, a fireman on the Intercolonial Railway. It is said that Miss O'Neill had a dread of being married, and had frequently intimated her intention of poisoning herself. The people with whom she was staying, thinking that the girl did not mean anything by her silly speeches, took no notice of her.

THE SITUATION.

(Special Despatch to Examiner.)

LONDON, April 16.

The Pall Mall Gazette, in a leading editorial, says: "Whether Prince Bismarck's proposals succeed or fail, we have no reason to disturb ourselves about the situation. We are strong in the justice of our diplomatic position, and can afford to wait until our material strength begins to tell in support of it, by way of a quiet and passive presence. If Russia accedes to our stipulations for the Congress, well and good. It will be held, and we shall begin to put our hands to the most arduous piece of international work that has been attempted in Europe since the beginning of the century. If Russia refuses to accede to those terms, there is no necessity for us to declare war against her, and it is in the last degree improbable that the Government will resort to a declaration of war. It will be sufficient for them to caution their armaments to occupy certain points of territory not necessarily provocative of the collision with the Russian forces, and keep Russia in her present position with an unrecognized treaty in her possession, but no other gain from the war but such as she can retain by actual practical possession, at a ruinous cost, and there let her remain until she returns to the sense of her duty to Europe."

St. Petersburg, April 16.

The Agence Russe says the situation to-day is unchanged.

Vienna, April 16.

Political correspondence says that England is negotiating with Sweden for a naval station on the Island of Faroe in the Baltic.

London, April 16.

The remark of Lord Derby which gave umbrage in Vienna was, that in consequence of a number of Slavs in the Austrian army, it could not be trusted to fight against Russia.

According to advices received in Paris from Bucharest, Prince Charles has started to join his army. Constant quarrels occur between Russian and Roumanian officers and men. The Russians have prevented a train laden with ammunition from leaving Bucharest for the Roumanian army.

The entire Roumanian militia have been called out.

The Russians have stationed vessels laden with stores ready to again close Suleima at the mouth of the Danube if necessary.

The Good Old Flag.

The Halifax Reporter recommends its young readers particularly to learn the following verses, and repeat them on all suitable occasions. The sentiment that runs through this little song should be endorsed by all Canadians. The words have been set to music, and we think the piece should become popular. It should be sung heartily in every Hamlet and mansion in the Dominion. It was written by the editor of the Canadian Illustrated News, Mr. John Leaperance, a talented French Canadian. The loyalty of our French Canadian fellow-subjects is unquestioned, but such proof of their love for the old flag, at a time when we have a Minister of Militia who has said he would like to see it hauled down, is especially pleasing.

In connection with this we have a suggestion to make to this redoubtable Alfred G. It is this: The next time he meets his loyal constituents in public let him appear as a vocalist and favor them with "Empire First." His doing so would please many of his friends, and most people would be inclined, we think, to forgive him his past disloyalty.

EMPIRE FIRST.

FLAG OF FATHERLAND.

List not to the dubious word, Guard thee 'gainst the deed of wile, Buckle on the sageman's sword, Keep your fealty from guile. Stand, Canadians! firmly stand! Round the flag of Fatherland!

Shall we break the plight of youth, And pledge us to an alien love? No! we'll hold our faith and truth, Trusting in the God above. Stand, Canadians! firmly stand! Round the flag of Fatherland!

Britain bore us in her flank, Britain nursed us at our birth, Britain reared us to our rank 'Mid the nations of the earth. Stand, Canadians! firmly stand! Round the flag of Fatherland!

In the hour of pain and dread, In the gathering of the storm, Britain raised above our head Her broad shield and stalwart arm. Stand, Canadians! firmly stand! Round the flag of Fatherland!

O triune Kingdom of the brave, O sea-girt Island of the free, O Empire of the land and wave, Our hearts, our hands, are all with thee! Stand, Canadians! proudly stand! Round the flag of Fatherland!
