FOR OVER FIFTY YEARS Mrs. Winsloe's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for their children while cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best-known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winsloe's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.
We notice in the New York Sun an article on "The Red Men in Canada," signed by J. A. J. McKenna, formerly of this city. The article was clipped from the Catholic World, of which Mr. McKenna is a regular paid contributor; and the mere fact of its having been copied by the New York Sun is sufficient proof of its excellence and Mr. McKenna's ability as a writer. We congratulate our friend upon the high position he has taken in journalistic literature.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.
EXCITEMENT IN MONTREAL.
Popular Processions.
A Great Surprise and Some Indignation.
MONTREAL, June 22.
Yesterday witnessed one of the biggest popular demonstrations in this city's history. The demonstration was in honor of the rebels of 1837 and 1838 and fully 50,000 people gathered at the Roman Catholic Cemetery to witness the ceremonies. Three processions composed of the various French-Canadian Societies were formed in different parts of the city, and marched to the Cemetery accompanied by bands of music and detachments of firemen and policemen. There was a big surprise in store for the crowd at the cemetery. It was the intention to bring the remains of Dr. Chenier, one of the rebels, from St. Eustache into the city and bury them in consecrated ground in the Montreal cemetery. Archbishop Fabre's permission for the exhumation was obtained and great preparations were made for the burial. When the proceedings commenced yesterday however, Dr. Mureel, of Steintach, who started the movement, addressed the crowd and said that at the last moment Archbishop Fabre had countermanded his orders and refused to allow the remains to be buried in consecrated ground. The remains were, therefore, left behind at St. Eustache. The announcement caused considerable excitement amongst the crowd, and there were many marks of disapprobation. Archbishop Fabre's change of mind is attributed to political influences, the proceedings were confined to the decorating of the monument to the victims of 1837 and the St. Jean Baptiste society. Speeches were made by a number of local orators who eulogized the rebels of 1837 as heroes. Cure Senteune, of Notre Dame, was present and blessed the decorations and intoned the Libera for the souls of the victims.
