Stronger Than Desire
At Capitol Theatre

Virginia Bruce and Walter Pidgeon bring thrills and heart throbs, comedy and human interest to the screen in the delightful blend in "Stronger Than Desire," now playing at the Capitol Theatre.

Directed by Leslie Penton, it deals with a lawyer and his wife estranged through suspicion. The wife attempts a flirtation that involves her in blackmail and murder; another woman faces trial for a crime she believes herself guilty of, and by a clever dramatic twist the lawyer husband clears the situation and he and his wife renew life with a better understanding.

Miss Bruce is compelling as the wife who thinks she is a murderer; Pidgeon dominates the courtroom sequences, and Ann Dvorak rises to dramatic heights as the murder prisoner. Ika Chase plays the sophisticated family friend with deft skill. Other players include Rita Johnson (whom Pidgeon speaks for a comedy highlight), Lee Bowman, Richard Lane, Ann Todd, Paul Stanton and Ferike Boros. Lavish settings include penthouses, night clubs, fashion salon and other typical details of Manhattan.

BAND CONCERT—His Honour Lieutenant Governor DeBlois has arranged for a Band Concert to be given by the Band of the Prince Edward Island Light Horse Regiment, in the Gardens of Government House this evening, Aug. 1, from 8:30 to 10:30. The public is cordially invited to view the Gardens and enjoy the music.

Age Need Not Bring Hardship to Women who Work

An Imperial Life Policy will keep you independent

NOW that woman's activity in business is in many cases no longer a mere prelude to marriage, but a planned career, more and more intelligent women are taking thought for tomorrow. They realize that one day age will put a stop to earning power. "What then?" they ask, "hardship or comfort?"

Many such wise women turn naturally to an Imperial Life Income Plan. It guarantees them the privilege of retiring on an income without work while they are still young enough to enjoy an energetic pleasurable life, instead of facing worry and drudgery. They realize that an Imperial Life Policy offers day-to-day protection and permits them to anticipate retirement from business with pleasure—not dread.

Imperial Life policies are adaptable to small incomes as well as large. Plan now for the time when you will stop work for good: See the Imperial Life representative soon.

$50 every month and no more work

In a small public school in rural Ontario there is a school teacher who is looking forward with pleasure and anticipation to her retirement years. Several years ago she invested in an Imperial Life Pension plan that will pay her $50 a month commencing at age 55 and continuing as long as she lives.

This, combined with her school pension, will guarantee for her the fulfillment of those dreams she has had for years—leisure for reading, gardening, time and even the means for travel.
