Montague Organizes Centennial Committee

MONTAGUE BUREAU OF THE GUARDIAN
 A committee of representatives of approximately 15 organizations of the Town of Montague and Lower Montague area was selected last night to form a centennial committee to organize a three-day celebration for the 100th centennial year.

A joint meeting of the organizations was called by the Montague Regional Board of Trade following the recommendations of an executive meeting of the board earlier this month. At present it would appear that the centennial celebration for Montague area will be held around the Lower Montague Regatta and perhaps include a strawberry queen. Several ideas were presented and recommendations made by the strawberry queen idea being revised by George Fraser, director of the regatta.

Can Science Replace God?
 A naturalist who worshipped only science and nature, found this creed useless in his hour of need. In October, Reader's Digest, he tells of the near-tragedy that led him to believe in "Him who will outlast the shrinking sun and chilling stars." Get your copy of Reader's Digest—37 articles of lasting interest.

ADVERTISEMENT CORRECTION

In the advertisement which appeared in our Thursday's issue of The Guardian and Patriot September 26th for Whightman's Super Market Montague the price of tea was incorrect, this price should be Morse's Teabags... 100's for 69c. Also it was advertised incorrectly that the store would be open Thursday evening this should be Tuesday evening till 9:00.

St. Peter's Native Killed In Ontario

TORONTO (CP)—Keith W. For MacLaren of suburban Rexdale, 38, formerly of St. Peter's Bay, P.E.I., who was killed in a car accident Wednesday, will be buried here Saturday.

Mr. MacLaren was killed when his car collided with a parked poultry truck at Smithville, about 18 miles east of Hamilton. Driver of the truck, Joseph Decechi of Hamilton, had stopped for an errand.

Mr. MacLaren had been living in Ontario for the last 13 years. He was a business executive with the Bakery and Confectionery Workers' International Union of America (I.W.O.).

He is survived by his wife, the former Sophie Compton, of Barter, P.E.I., and several children, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank MacLaren, now living in Morell, also survive, as well as several brothers and sister.

LIGHTEN LOADS
 Nepalese porters carrying burdens of firewood and farm tools, placed a handful of flowers also their cargo to "lighten the load."

P.E.I. Forester Passes Up Trip
 Due to his mother meeting with a serious accident, J. Frank Gaudet, provincial forester, last night stated that he would not be participating in the tour of Newfoundland by forestry officials from the other nine provinces.

The officials are scheduled to make the tour by the next week ending which they will be given 20 delegates expected. The meeting opens Monday and ends Oct. 5.

All elementary and secondary school books published in Canada, 50 per cent are sold in Ontario.
