

The two week's Mission of the Redemptorist Fathers at the two Catholic Churches here opened Sunday morning under the direction of Rev. E. McKenna, C.S.R., presently stationed at St. John, N. B. Services will be conducted morning and evening at the Little Flower Church in the village; and next week the mission will continue at the church of St. Lawrence. On opening the mission, Father McKenna, said the last Mission here by the Redemptorist Fathers was twenty years ago and that he was one of the Mission team at that time. Many of the "ages" who greeted him then sleep in the church cemetery now he said and many who are here now will be gone when the next Mission comes to the vicinity.

Friends of Mrs. John McDermott are sorry to hear of her serious illness in Charlottetown, where she has made her home since leaving the old homestead here. A son Herbert resides at the old homestead.

The old fence and several old trees around the front lawn of the parochial house here were removed last week and the lawn cleared off. Many kind comments were heard over the week-end about the fine improvement to the church grounds.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kenny have arrived here from Hamilton, Ontario, to spend a part of their honeymoon with Mr. Kenny's parents Mr. and Mrs. Herb Kenny. This fine young couple were married ten days ago in Ontario, and following their honeymoon, will take up residence there, where Mr. Kenny has held a fine position for a number of years.

Every member of the family of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Coffin, arrived home last week from scattered points from Charlottetown to Vancouver, to be present at the first High Mass of their brother, Rev. Maurice Coffin, O.M.I., who was Ordained at Ottawa a week ago. The young priest's father, Mr. Grover Coffin, his sister, Mrs. Somerled Kelly and Mr. Kelly, motored to the capital city where they attended the ordination ceremony. Following the Mass here on Sunday at Little Flower Church a day-long reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Coffin. Dinner was served at the home for the clergy; while the invited guests were served in the Memorial Hall across the street. We understand Father Coffin, will spend a month's vacation here before returning to Ottawa.

GAME ACT CASES—Yesterday afternoon at Georgetown Magistrate Gilbert A. Gaudet imposed fines of $5 and costs ($3), on each of two anglers charged with angling without licenses. One hailed from Dartmouth, N.S., and the other from Winsloe. The offences were committed at Lot 40 and New Perth. Cases were investigated and prosecuted by the game officers.

LODGE MEETING—The regular meeting of Hillside Lodge, Montague, was held on Tuesday night with Noble Grand Sandy MacDonald presiding. There were 25 members and one visitor present. After the business of the meeting was disposed of, nomination of officers for the coming term was held. The third degree was conferred on one candidate, Brother William Baker, with Brother H. L. MacGregor acting as noble grand. Brother Baker thanked the lodge members for their kindness and was very much impressed with the degree work. Brother Menton Whitlock was welcomed to the meeting by Brother MacDonald. After the lodge closed Brother's supper was enjoyed by all present. Brothers Atwood MacDonald and Spencer Llewellyn prepared the charge of setting up the banquet table. The lobster dinner was secured and specially cooked at the lobster factory of Brother James Hewitt. After the banquet a sing-song was enjoyed with Brother Ross Hamilton supplying the music at the piano.

Large Attendance

part in the ceremony today. I will certainly be back again shortly. He referred to the Confederation meeting here and the development of the great Dominion of Canada. "I hope that this building, which has been a long time in coming, will be a source of pride to all citizens of Prince Edward Island as it marks the skyline of Charlottetown."

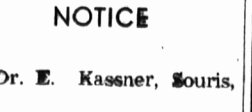

Touching on the projects now under way in this Province, he said that there was a good and justifiable program calling for the expenditure of four million dollars in public works this year. Hon. Mr. Winters spoke in appreciative terms of the work visualized and started under the late Premier J. Walter Jones on the Trans-Canada Highway. "The building of a new two-million-dollar ferry indicates a confidence by the Government in the future of this Island," he said. Mr. Winters also paid tribute to the effective and faithful work of the late Mr. Douglas and was glad to see Mrs. Douglas here to witness the fruit of his work. "I was sorry indeed to learn of the illness of Mr. Chester MacLure whom I saw for a few minutes this morning," the Minister said. "I join with Premier Matheson in expressing hope for his recovery." "The present members, Mr. Matheson and Mr. MacLean, are both delighted to carry the torch, which they do very effectively on behalf of P. E. Island. Mr. Matheson in caucus and Mr. MacLean on the floor of the House."

MR. MACLEAN

J. Angus MacLean, M.P. for Queens, said this was a memorable day in the history of Charlottetown and a noteworthy event in Centennial year that the cornerstone of this splendid Federal Building is being laid. "I hope that this stone and steel building will foreshadow another century
