OBITUARY

JAMES LEO DALTON

A highly respected resident of Roseville in the person of James Leo Dalton passed peacefully to his eternal reward on May 6, 1963, after a lengthy illness.

The deceased was born at Roseville, P.E.I., on June 15, 1885, a son of the late Leonard Dalton and Ellen (Gulliver) Dalton.

In 1913, he entered St. Dunstan's College to pursue his education and from there he went to Boston where he was employed for a number of years. In 1928, owing to his father's disability he returned home and received his father's occupation, that of farming, until his retirement three years ago hoping that a goodly portion of his health had been restored.

He was a member of the St. Joseph's P.E.I. and was called him to a higher service.

Mr. Dalton was well known as a cheerful and humorous disposition. He was a universal favourite and especially of those who knew what a kind friend and neighbour he was; he was always ready to assist anyone in time of need.

Mr. Dalton was well known as a cheerful and humorous disposition. He was a universal favourite and especially of those who knew what a kind friend and neighbour he was; he was always ready to assist anyone in time of need.

He was a devout member of the Roman Catholic Church. During the last month of his life, he had the consolation of receiving Holy Communion almost every day and also received the Sacrament of Extreme Unction, administered by Rev. David McTigue.

When his health permitted he was active in church and community affairs but it is in the family circle that his presence will be missed most keenly, for he was a loving and devoted husband, a kind and understanding father.

Surviving him are his outstanding widow the former Mildred Macdonald, Gleanburg, 17, four sons: Clair, Louis, Allan and Dan and also five daughters: Elaine, Helen, Doris, Elsie and Marjorie all at home. Also left to mourn are two brothers: Daniel, St. Lawrence, P.E.I.; and Guy and one sister, Mrs. Bennett Kelly, Summerside, two brothers: Albert and Bernard, Summerside.

His funeral was held Thursday morning, May 8, at 10:30 a.m. at St. Mark's Church, Lot 7, where a Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. David McTigue. Burial took place in the family plot at Roseville. He is remains were laid to rest in the family plot.

Palbearers were: Desmond Daltes, Leo Macdonald, John Monaghan, William Thomson, William Kelly and Harry McKay. Flower bearers were: Paul Kelly, Francis Kelly and Blair Stewart.

May his soul rest in peace.
