OBITUARY

Mrs. James Emmett Coady

The death of Mrs. James Emmett Coady occurred suddenly at her home in Brookvale on the evening of June 4th. Although in her 80th year she had been in reasonably good health and was quite active for her years. Her sudden passing therefore came as a great shock to her immediate family and to her numerous friends.

The late Mrs. Coady, who was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Patrick McCaffrey, was born in Riverdale where she received her education and lived there until the time of her marriage to the late James Emmett Coady in 1924, when she moved to Brookvale. From this marriage there were two sons, Joseph and Maurice, who are now left to mourn their loss and also one daughter, Marie, who died in infancy. Also left are two sisters, Teresa, of Riverdale and Mary, Mrs. James Quinn of Hunter River and one brother, Patrick in Boston. Two brothers Michael and James predeceased her as did one sister, Mrs. M. McKenna of Newton.

The late Mrs. Coady was a devout member of the Catholic Church. Indeed she could be said to have truly lived her religion. The love of God and the love of her neighbour were two of her prime characteristics. Loretta, as she was fondly called by her friends, was always ready to lend a hand to help anyone in need. If any neighbour had sickness in the family or a misfortune of any kind, Loretta was always there to help in any way she could. This deep care and solicitude for the welfare of others seemed to just come natural to her and it never occurred to her that she was expending her own energies for the cause of others.

Her funeral, which was largely attended, was held from the Charlottetown Funeral Home to St. Joseph's Church, Kelly's Cross on June 8th. The pallbearers were Francis Kelly, Eugene Curley, Justin Stordy, Francis MacDonald, Louis MacManus and Thomas Cusack. Requiem High Mass was celebrated by her pastor, Rev. James Smith who also conducted the service at the grave. Fr. McCarthy, pastor at St. Anne' Pariah, Lot 65, was present in the sanctuary during the Mass.

May she rest in peace. Amen.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Mrs. James Emmett Coady wish to thank Dr. Stewart of Crapaud, the pastor, Rev. James Smith and funeral director, Robert Bradley. Also all their kind friends and neighbours, all those who gave Mass cards, flowers and letters of sympathy and all who helped them in any way in their time of sorrow.
