

Film Location Being Moved

CASTLE COMBE, England (CP)—Twentieth Century Fox is abandoning its location filming of the motion picture Doctor Doolittle here and returning to sunny California a month ahead of schedule.

The movie makers, who caused an uproar when they remodelled this quiet island village to resemble a Cornish harbor town to fit the script, also got a damp reception from the weather.

"The rain made it impossible to carry on," production manager Bill Eckhardt said, "so we've had to transfer to the studios in Los Angeles."

Already 15 days behind schedule, Doctor Doolittle, which stars Rex Harrison, Anthony Newley and Samantha Eggar, is expected to cost $14,000,000.

The company is leaving a team of building tradesmen behind to "restore everything that the villagers want restored," the spokesman said.

BARONET CHARGED
In June a 22-year-old baronet was arrested after a wild night in the growing dispute between some villagers and a movie company.

Lieut. Sir Ranulph Twisleton-Wykeham-Fiennes was charged with "unlawfully setting fire to a flare and a petrol (gasoline) tin" on the set.

This village, 90 miles from London, is one of Britain's most beautiful. The film company had dismantled the telephone and telegraph poles and took down a forest of television aerials, with the consent of the village council and most residents.

ASKS CONFERENCE
OTTAWA (CP)—The World Federalists of Canada urge Prime Minister Pearson to take the initiative in calling for a world disarmament conference in 1967. In a brief submitted to Mr. Pearson, the organization suggests Canada is in a good position to undertake the exploratory work because of its close relations with many countries.
