Excellent Business Opportunity—
In The Heart of Charlottetown

In the immediate future we will commence construction on a building to be located in the heart of Charlottetown's business area. This building, when completed, will be leased, as a retail outlet.

If you are interested in obtaining such a building, and have specific ideas as to size, construction, etc., kindly forward details to the box number in this advertisement. All replies are strictly confidential, and personal interviews will be arranged immediately.

It should be pointed out that the erection of the building in question is definite, not just an event being considered for sometime in the future. Its location is a definite asset, so if you are interested, don't delay as we anticipate no difficulty in finalizing details connected with it.

KILLED AT LUNCH

ELHORN, Man. (CP) — Four-year-old Richard Joseph Cheatters was killed Saturday when struck by a large-calibre bullet while sitting at the luncheon table in his farm home near here. RCMP said the bullet entered the house through the wall and struck the child in the head. A police spokesman said it was "obviously some hunter."
