To the Editor of Haszard's Gazette.

Sir.—I beg leave, through your columns, to call attention to a gross breach of the peace, which occurred on the Market Square, on Saturday last. I was engaged in quiet conversation with two or three persons, when Mr. Coles, with his usual impudence, introduced himself into our company, evidently for the purpose of seeking a quarrel with myself. He commenced his abuse by charging me with publishing a lie in my address, wherein I stated that under Responsible Government Captain Swabey had received a seat in both Councils. I maintained the truth of the address, stating that although Captain Swabey held a seat in the Legislative Council before the introduction of Responsible Government, he was then accomodated with "a seat in both," and with an Office into the bargain, although he had previously endeavoured to get a constituency, and had been rejected. Mr. Coles, who was very violent, and hard up for something to quarrel about, then made allusion to the shooting a dog which was shot when in the act of killing a sheep, about twelve months since, by a man in the employ of my Brother. He charged me with shooting the dog, which I denied. Mr. Coles repeated his charge in a most abusive manner. I felt myself grossly insulted, by I believe, the verriest bully in Prince Edward Island—a fit companion for a Wat Tyler—so I answered him in his own familiar tongue—in similar languag to that which, not five minutes before, he had made use of to me; and similar also to that which he made use of to me on the hustings, last summer in the presence of hundreds of people. I told him plainly, that he was a liar. He then made a furious assault on my person, stricking me two blows on the face, and kicking at me. I believe he knew that it was against my principle to resent his brutal assault, by comming down to his level, and stricking him again, so I did not retaliate. Had I been inclined to do so, those particular friends of Mr. Coles, with whom he is in constant association, and who are always at his heels, on such occasions, would, no doubt, soon have had me under their feet. Sir, I think the Cloven-foot is showing itself. The "rod of iron" would soon be brought into exercise could Mr. Coles have his way.

The paltry circumstance which he would complain of, is, merely this—the paying either 9d. or 1s. 6d. by the overseer, for removing a nuisance. The dog had lain by the road side dead, for some days, until it became so offensive that a gentleman who had occasion to pass the road every day, made complaint to the Overseer, (my Brother) of the nuisance, desiring him to get it removed. He employed a Boy to go and bury the nuisance out of sight, and paid him for doing so; when he made his return to Mr. Commissioner Williams, one item of expenditure charged therein was paid for removing a nuisance 9d. or 1s. 6d. I am not certain which was the amount, that trifling item of expenditure, I believe, was perfectly justifiable, so ends the dog story.

Mr. Coles would justify Mr. Williams in pocketing from 15 to £20 of the public money, which ought to have been saved. He would justify £128 being paid from the public purse and expended mostly in expensive wines to entertain Mr. Coles' friends and a few American officers, when the Governor is in the receipt of £500 Sterling, each year, in addition to his salary, for the express purpose of making him independant of the House of Assembly in such matters. He would justify the paying Mr. Ball £30 out of the treasury for surveying fishery reserves when that question is still an open one. He might just as well have paid him £30 for trespasing on the shore of the Farm rented by me near town, and laying of reserves, driving stakes, &c., which I should remove immediately in the same manner as the owner of the land did, where Mr. Ball surveyed. Mr. Coles would justify the payment of £21 for candidates' clerks, unauthorised by law, and never employed, even if the law did authorise. He would justify the privately granting to himself and friends, some of the best water lots at Georgetown, at less than one third of their value, in direct violation of the law, and a resolution of the House of Assembly, which stated that they should be sold at public sale. He would justify the payment of £9 out of the Treasury to a Nova Scotia lawyer for an opinion which he should have paid himself. I had to pay my own lawyer in the same case. He would justify the paying Mr. Ball £8. 0s. 6. out of the Treasury for surveying Government Farm, about one day's work. He would justify the making sinecures, and paying a man—Mr. David Lawson, Collector, at Covehead—£30 for collecting £3, but he would complain of 1s. 6d. being expended in removing a nuisance. These amounts, nearly £300, the public have lost within the last year or two, most of them paid out of the Treasury unwarrantably, without being voted by the House of Assembly, verily, Mr. Coles is one of those who would "strain at a Gnat and swallow a Camel."

To conclude, the secret of the matter, and great cause of Mr. Coles' wrath against me, I believe to be this: He finds, spite of all the gross lies circulated by him, or his party, about myself, the people are being undeceived, and are again determined to give Mr. McLeod and myself much greater support than they did last year, so that Mr. Coles is trembling for the result.

Your obedient servant,
George Beer, Junr.

(From the Royal Gazette.)

Colonial Office, Saturday afternoon.
3d June, 1854.

The Lieut. Governor has just seen in the Islander of yesterday's date, the Colonial Secretary's address to his Constituents, in which the Secretary says:—"The Lieut. Governor having, on his own responsibility, and in my opinion, contrary to the fundamental principles of Self or Responsible Government, dissolved the House of Assembly, &c."

The Lieut. Governor must inform the Secretary, that if such be his opinion, he ought instantly to have resigned his seat as a member of the Government, and not have affixed his signature, as Colonial Secretary, he continuing in the Government, to a Proclamation for a dissolution, contrary, in his opinion, to "the fundamental principles of Self-Government."

Short as will the Lieut. Governor's stay in the Colony be, (if necessary it may be prolonged a little), he cannot permit to pass unnoticed so unconstitutional a proceeding on the part of any of the Ministers. The Lieutenant Governor, therefore, has to acquaint Mr. Longworth that he dispenses with his services as a member of the Council, and desires that the intimation of this shall appear in Tuesday's Gazette.

The Rev. John Knox will paeach in the Baptist Chapel, Charlottetown, next Sabbath evenening, June 11th, at quarter-past 6 o'clock.

NOTICE.

SUBSCRIBERS will take notice that the READING ROOM is now open, above the Store of Mr. Charles Saunders, Great George Street.

May 29, 1854.

To the Electors of the Second Electoral District of Queen's County.

Gentlemen;

IT is not without much diffidence that I comply with the Requisition which I have had the honour to receive, inviting me to offer myself as a Candidate for this District.

A call from such a large number of intelligent and respected Electors, and comprising the names of so many friends whose opinions I highly esteem, is one which I think I ought to accede to, and I only regret that my humble abilities to discharge the duties of a Representative of the people are far short of what are to be desired, especially at a crisis like the present, when one of the fundamental principles of a System of Government, which, three years ago, we supposed was guaranteed to us by the Mother Country, has been openly violated by the act of a partizan Governor.

As a native of the Colony, familiar with many, and personally known to most of you, I leave the estimation of my character entirely with yourselves, feeling conscious, that from what you have experienced of my conduct in life, you will not fear that I would betray the trust you propose to confide in me.

It is true, and it may not be out of place here to notice, that in an address to his former Constituents, Mr. George Coles, in allusion to the Sheriff's return, which in my late official capacity, I was under the necessity of making to a Writ of Election, under which he was a Candidate, has designated me as a "Corrupt and partizan Sheriff;" but as you must all be aware of the facts connected with that Return, and of the malicious motives which actuate Mr. Coles, as well as that irresistable propensity for lying which has characterized him from the earliest period of his political career, I should hope, that in your estimation, I suffer nothing by his calumny. You may remember, that in the Session of 1847, he was a member of the Committee of the House of Assembly, sworn to decide impartially on a question of a contested Election then decided by the House, and after having voted in opposition to evidence of the most irrefragible nature, he was asked how he could do so, his reply was, that it would never do for him to vote against his party.

Being at present, and having been for many years past, engaged in practical Agriculture as the substantial business of my life, I feel a lively interest in this the principal branch of our Colonial industry; and should I succeed in my Election you may rest assured that the interest of the Farmer in whatever respect it can be promoted shall ever be uppermost in the part I shall take in Legislation.

I have not, Gentlemen, ventured to come before the public as a speculator for any personal aggrandizement to be obtained by party contests or struggles in political life; I have done so owing solely to the kind and confiding manner in which so many of you have requested my humble services; and should your suffrages accomplish your wishes, you will find that I will independently give my support to every measure which the welfare and prosperity of the Colony and your local interests in particular require at the hands of a Legislator.

I am, gentlemen,
Your most obedient servant,
JOHN. C. BINNS.
May 29th, 1854.

To the Electors of Charlottetown and Royalty.

Gentlemen;

HIS Excellency the Lieut. Governor, having on his own Responsibility, and in my opinion contrary to the fundamental principles of self or Responsible Government, dissolved the House of Assembly; you are now for the third time, within the short period of eleven months, called upon to elect Members to represent you in Colonial Parliament.

I again respectfully offer myself as a Candidate for your suffrages.

My conduct as your Representative for the last sixteen years, is before you, and my political principles known to you all; and with the assurance in my own mind, that I have during that extended time, advocated and supported to the best of my humble abilities, every measure introduced into the House of Assembly, that had a tendency to advance your interests, and that of the Island in general, I rely with confidenee for your favour and support at the ensuing election.

I have the honor to be, gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
FRANCIS LONGWORTH.
June 2d, 1854.

To the independent Electors of the Third District of Queen's County.

Friends and fellow Colonists—

YOUR late faithful representative, Benjamin Davies Esq., having declined your solicitations to put him again in nomination at the ensuing Election of members for the representation of your district, I have subsequently been induced by flatteringly preffered support from many of you, and the assured interests of Mr. Davies also, to accede to your wishes, and I now offer mysef as a candidate for your suffrages, in the independent use of the new elective franchise privileges, which you are called upon to exercise on the 20th instant.

A residence amongst you of twelve years has afforded a sufficient time and test to know and judge of me, both in my liberal political opinions, and in my private relations of life; and this acquaintance precludes the necessity here of a detailed avowal of the one or any further mention of the other.

My desires and aims have ever been in honesty of purpose, to advocate, in the midst of the circle in which I move, and generally, such sound measures of political reform and of local improvement as came within the compass of my power, and were in my judgment calculated to benefit this my native land—to ameliorate the condition of its people—to elevate the character of my fellow colonist in moral worth, and raise them to the standard of British freemen. These, my political and social views, aims and desires, are still nnchanged. and I believe are unchangeable.

Electors, I am one of yourselves—I move with you in every day life—our feelings are mutual, and our interests are identical,—your prosperity is interwoven with my own—your positive good is my sure profit. I am no large landed proprietor, nor am I a land agent, with a rent roll at my service, but a plain man, and if I may so say, one of your own family, having every feeling for the general welfare, in common with yourselves, and depending upon your public spirit and private integrity for your independent support at the hustings.

If you should honor me with a majority of votes over my opponents, and thereby return me to represent you in the General Assembly of this Island, my first and paramount duty must be, as my firm intention is, to protect and foster the local interests of your noble district, the which must in part be achieved by aiding in the promotion of such public measures as shall be conducive to the general prosperity of Prince Edward Island.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your obdt. servant.

ROBERT RENNIE, Secretary.

To the Electors of the First District of Queen's County.

Gentlemen:

AT the earnest request of a considerable number of you, I am again induced to offer myself as a Candidate for you suffrages at the ensuing Election.

During the short time I had the honor to represent you, the House of Assembly and the Government have had to contend with plots, schemes and conspiracies, to bring about its overthrow. We have had no chance, no fair play—having a one-sided partizan Governor, and an obstructive Legislative Council to combat during the whole Session. Responsible Government no longer exists in Prince Edward Island. The first blow was struck by Mr. Coles on its very introduction, by appointing Capt. Swabey to a seat in the two Councils, without the necessary qualification required by the Royal Instructions, and giving him a lucrative office after he had sought a constituency, and had been rejected by the People. The second blow was struck by Mr. Coles; in retaining Mr. Joseph Hensley, as Attorney General, and getting him appointed to a seat in the Legislative Council, after he had offered himself as a candidate to the People for their suffrages and had also been rejected. The finishing stroke was given to it by the Governor, acting on an assumed prerogative, and refusing to be guided by his responsible advisers, preferring the advice of an irresponsible Legislative Council, and dissolving the House of Assembly, in direct opposition to those whose counsel—if we had Responsible Government—he was bound to receive; and if the Governor's conduct is to be a precedent for future guidance, we have retrograded at least a century at three strides, and are about to cringe again under the iron bondage of a Royal Prerogative. I think I hear many of you say—No! We will not submit to that. Our forefathers suffered too much to induce us to countenance despotism. If such are your sentiments, you can give proof of them by discountenancing the party who has brought this expense, turmoil and strife upon you.

They hypocritically tell you, that you will have the privilege of electing your own officers; while, at the same time, it is notorious, that a great effort is being made by them, to put nearly all the principal offices into the hands of the Legislative Council, who are not responsible to you; three of whom, the new family compact, it is believed, hope to divide some £1200 yearly among themselves. But, remember, you have no voice in their appointment. One member of the late House of Assembly (Mr. Whelan), has been encouraging the Legislative Council in their opposition to the House of Assembly; and, strange to say, promises, that should his party come again into power, he will still further tax the country to pay the Legislative Council, who do little but obstruct the business of the House of Assembly. Can this be true? say some of you. It is true, and cannot be denied or got over; for Mr. Whelan's notice may be found, in black and white, in the Order Book of the House of Assembly—that he will, at the next Session of the House, bring in a Bill to authorize the Government to pay the Legislative Council. A nice way this to squander your money! Were the Council abolished, we would save some £1000 each year by it, or were they made elective, there would then be some reasonable ground for their being paid But Mr. Whelan, no doubt, sympathizes with those who are seeking to obtain office. I find, on examining the Public Accounts, as published in the Journal of the House of Assembly, for the years 1847, 1848, 1849, and 1850, that Mr. Haszard received, as Queen's Printer, for the four years, £1428 0s. 10d.; on further examination, I find, that Mr. Whelan received, as Queen's Printer, for the last two years alone, £1471 18s!! It is no wonder that Mr. Whelan, hoping to gain between Seven and Eight hundred Pounds a year by it—should print and circulate hundreds of Petitions all through the country, praying for a Dissolution of the House of Assembly. When his party succeeds in getting a majority again, I suppose we shall be ruled, as Mr. Whelan threatened, at a public meeting in the Temperance Hall, "with a rod of iron!" Mr. Coles was present at that meeting, and it is well known, that Messrs. Coles and Whelan plot and scheme together, whatever they may seem to say to the contrary. But Gentlemen, the only way to get an end put to this sort of work, is, to rid both branches of the Legislature altogether of office-holders. I voted for a bill last Session, positively excluding every one holding an office of emolument from the Legislature, with the exception of two, the Attorney General and the Colonial Secretary; but this would not suit the Council, who wanted many of the offices themselves, and consequently threw out the bill. I am now determined to go farther, and I pledge myself, that if returned again, I will bring in a bill to exclude every office-holder from both branches of the Legislature, the same as in the United States, and no country in the world thrives, or "goes a head," faster than the United States of America—so far I am willing to copy from their institutions; and if the Legislative Council will not pass the bill, we will memoralize the home Government for leave to remodel that body.

Gentlemen; Since the Dissolution, I have visitsd a great part of the District, and I feel greatful for the kind manner in which I have been received, and the very general promises of support that have been given to me. Mr. McLeod is also in the field with me, and we have canvassed together a great part of Lots 20 and 21. Our prospects are good. We shall receive support this year from some who last year, voted against us—on the ground of our having been badly used; we have had no trial, and that we and the whole of the country are put to uneccesary trouble and expense, for the benefit of a few who are striving to become office-holders and dictators. Mr. McLeod and myself would like to pay our personal respects to each of you but we find that will be impossible, in consequence of the indecent and unconstitutional haste with which the Election has been forced on.—we shall see as many as we can, and shall hold public meetings in several parts of the District, in the hopes of meeting many more.

I find that the self-styled liberals are industriously circulating a nnmber of false reports among you in reference to myself, hoping thereby to prevent you from voting for me; but I feel assured my character is well known to most of you; and that you will be slow to believe that I, who am living almost entirely by my dealings with the tenantry, would do or advocate any measure that would increase your burdens; on the contrary, I am striving to give you far greater accommodation when you come to Town to dispose of your produce, free of any charge.

Gentlemen; You are called upon to exercise your right of Franchise at a very important crisis. The question is, whether you are to enjoy the right of self-government in reality, or to submit to a concealed despotism, and an uncontrolable tyranny, under what is termed Departmental Government.

Believe me to remain,
Your obedient and humble servant,
GEORGE BEER, Junr.

Gentlemen;

HAVING been solicited by a large number of voters in this District, to offer myself as one of your Representatives in the House of Assembly, I have been induced to waive the objections I have hitherto entertained on this subject.

You will, doubtless, expect me to state the views I entertain of political affairs, and the course I shall pursue, if I am returned.

Gentlemen,—I regard the Temperance Cause as the most important feature in the future political regeneration, commercial prosperity, and social happiness of this Colony. And if a firm determination to watch over and advance to the utmost of my ability, your local interests, as well as the general prosperity of all classes throughout the Island will meet with your approval, I can only say, my best efforts are at your disposal.

Gentlemen;

AT the earnest request of many of my respected friends amongst you, I am induced to offer myself as a Candidate for your suffrages, at the approaching General Election, to represent your interests in the House of Assembly, for this my native District.

This being my first attempt to move in political life, I can safely assure you, should I be Elected one of your Representatives, that I have no party predilections, and that such measures only as I shall consider for the best interests of the people, and the promotion of the prosperity of the Island in general, and of your local District in particular, shall have my support, no matter from whom the same may emanate.

I have the honor to be,
Gentlemen,
Your most obd't Servant,

To the Electors of Charlottetown and Royalty.

Gentlemen,

HIS Excellency the Lieutenant Governor having thought proper to dissolve the House of Assembly, you are called upon a third time within less than twelve months to choose persons to represent your interests in that branch of the Legislature.

I again offer myself as a candidate for your suffrages, and respectfully request your support. Having been handsomely returned by you at Eight different Elections in succession, and my political principles not having undergone any change, I deem it unnecessary to recall them to your attention.

I regret that the Bill for the exclusion of salaried officers from the Legislature was rejected by the Legislative Council. Had it become law, it is not likely that you would have been called upon, so very soon, to engage in another General Election. The leading Members of the Legislative Council, however, prefer that law or rule which admits of their holding salaried offices, although wholly irresponsible to the people: they therefore threw out this Bill; and, dreading that it would pass at another Session of the same House, they addressed the Lieutenant Governor in such terms as to procure a dissolution, and thereby to afford an opportunity, during the excitement of a General Election, for office-hunters to misrepresent the object and effect of the Bill, and to make the people believe that it was calculated to destroy Responsible Government. The purport and aim of the Bill, however, Gentlemen, was the very reverse: it was, in fact, a measure upon the same principle as the Act of Assembly lately passed and now in force in Canada.

I have every confidence that your votes will enable me again to introduce this Bill—and if the constituencies throughout the Island, prove equally intelligent with yourselves, I cannot have a doubt that a majority will be returned in the new House of Assembly, not only favorable to the measure, but such as,—under the auspices of a new Lieutenant Governor of much Colonial experience, will convince the Legislative Council that they must offer no further obstruction to its becoming the law of the Colony.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your most obed't Servant,
EDWARD PALMER.
