IN MEMORIAM

PHILIP A. STEWART —There passed peacefully away on Monday, April 6th, Philip A. Stewart, a highly respected resident of West Point, P. E. I. He was in his 88th year.

Born in West Point, he was the son of the late Alexander and Ellen (Griffin) Stewart. In his youth he was engaged in the fishing industry and later operated a farm, at which homestead his death occurred.

The deceased had always enjoyed good health until a few days prior to his death, when he was suddenly stricken and, fortified by the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church, passed away on the above-mentioned date.

Of a jovial and friendly disposition, his hospitable home was the scene of many happy gatherings of family and friends.

His wife, the former Catherine Stewart, survives him, besides a family of three daughters and five sons. They are: Isabel, Ottawa, Ont.; Mary, Mrs. Cecil Bell, Sarnia, Ont.; Mildred, Mrs. Matthew Lefor, Windsor, Ont.; Albert Stewart, Montreal, P. Q.; Harold Stewart, R.C.A.F. No. 5, S.D., Moncton, N. B.; Orville Stewart, O'Leary, P. E. I.; Gordon Stewart, West Point, P. E. I. Surviving also is one sister, Mary Stewart, of Boston, Mass., and one brother, John A. Stewart, residing in Ottawa, Ont.

Two brothers, Andrew and Patrick, also a sister, Margaret, predeceased him. Included also among those left to mourn his passing are twenty grandchildren, who will cherish the memory of a loving grandfather.

His funeral was held on Wednesday, April 8th, at Immaculate Conception Church, Brae, with Requiem Mass celebrated by his pastor, Rev. Louis Dooley. The pallbearers were: Jago Sabine, James Smith, James Auld, Wendell Scott, Lawrence Stewart and Leonard Stewart.

The beautiful floral tributes and numerous Mass cards, telegrams, messages of sympathy, and the kind neighbors and friends who came to pay their respects and attend his funeral, bore mute testimony of the high esteem in which the deceased was held. Rest In Peace.

Corcoran and Mrs. Norbert Corcoran motored to Charlottetown on Sunday April 19th, they were accompanied from Summerside by Miss Norma Corcoran, who is employed there. While in town they visited the Polio Clinic; also Mr. and Mrs. Justin Corcoran, East Royalty.

—BB. came to pay their respects and attend his funeral, bore mute testimony of the high esteem in which the deceased was held. Rest In Peace.

Holding Meetings In West Prince

—Last Saturday the Rev. Alexander Marks, blind evangelist, formerly of London, England, and now of New York City, began special meetings in the western Prince district.

At O'Leary about 300 people gathered for a Saturday night evangelistic meeting and Mr. Marks spoke in the United Church at Campbellton, Montrose and Elmisdale on Sunday, when very good congregations heard the speaker say that the only hope today is a spiritual revival, and that what the churches need is spiritual rearmament.

Mr. Marks began a week of meetings in the United Church at Elmisdale. These meetings will conclude this Sunday. The speaker stated that the deciding factor in the present struggle between Communism and the democracies is a superior spiritual front which is to be found in the gospel of Christ. Mr. Marks is being assisted by the minister, Rev. Jack Sheen, with musical numbers by Mr. Judson Saunders of Amherst.

WEST POINT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH W. M. S.

—The Evening Auxiliary of the Women's Missionary Society of the West Point Presbyterian Church met on Tuesday evening, April 14 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Ellis.

The president, Mrs. Ernest MacPherson, occupied the chair. The Easter service was followed, using Scriptures St. Mark 15, 21-47, and St. John 20-11-18, reading respectively.

The study book on Africa was in charge of Mrs. Lorne Ellis. Roll call was answered by nine members each repeating a verse of scripture. The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and approved.

Mrs. Ernest MacPherson had the theme on the lesson taken from St. Luke 10-25-37, followed with a discussion by the members.

Mrs. Percy MacPherson kindly invited the members to her home for their next meeting. Her home, Lionel Livingstone will be in charge of the study book.

The meeting closed with hymn "Jesus Saves" and the Mizpah benediction. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess and a social hour was enjoyed.
