

THE DAILY EXAMINER. JANUARY 26, 1889.

Death of Mr. Joseph Doyle.

We greatly regret to announce the death of Mr. Joseph Doyle, a rising young merchant of Souris. Mr. Doyle passed away at an early hour this morning. It will be remembered that he was assaulted and severely injured in August last, by a party of intoxicated sailors, belonging to the fishing schooner Orient; and it is said that he never fully recovered his health and strength. However this may be, it is certain that the community of Souris has, by his death, suffered a heavy loss. His bereaved relatives have the sympathy of many friends in this city and throughout the Province.

Public Works.

THE report of the Minister of Public Works, for the fiscal year 1887-88, is at hand. It shows that $3,428,943.00 were, in the course of the year, expended on public works. Of this amount, $2,672,295.94 went to pay for the construction of new works; $287,826.41 were paid for repairs, and $468,820.65 for the maintenance of the staff. The following are among the public works carried on in this Province:—

- Belfast.—The western end of the pier was repaired to admit of the regular landing of passengers and freight.
Cascoque.—The formation of a channel through the rocky bar obstructing the entrance to the harbor, which was commenced in 1885, was continued during the year.
Hickey's Pier.—Necessary renewals were made to parts of the pier, a new landing slip was built, the approach partly rebuilt and filled in.
Malpeque.—Some repairs were made to the pier at this place.
Montague Post Office.—The fencing has been completed, but only a portion of the grading and footpaths, owing to the failure on the part of the contractor to carry out this portion of the work.
Murray Harbor.—This pier was generally repaired and the approach made good.
Nine-Mile Creek.—The pier at this place received general necessary repair.
New London.—The works in this harbor were repaired where necessary.
North Cardigan.—The roadway was repaired to render it available for traffic.
Pinette.—The pier was placed in proper order.
Souris.—The inner end of the breakwater, for a distance of 800 feet, was raised where necessary and fully ballasted, and other improvements effected.
Tignish.—The dredge "Prince Edward" was engaged until 27th August in deepening the channel at this place.
Vernon River.—The pier was repaired and much improved.
Victoria Pier.—One of the spans of this pier was repaired.
Respecting the work done by the steam dredge "Prince Edward," it is reported that: "The only work done during the year was at Tignish, when 3,775 cubic yards of gravel, sand and clay were removed at a cost of $1.56 per cubic yard."
Of the harbor works at Cape Tormentine it is said:—
"Owing to the failure of the contractors to prosecute the work, fresh tenders were called for, and a contract has been entered into for the completion of the work projected."

The Ideal Washing Machine.

One of the points noted in the recent discussions on "successful farming" was the expediency of "making it as easy as possible for women folk." While men can ride at their ease and sow and mow and reap, women should not be compelled to toil all day over the wash tub—while the Ideal Washing Machine can be obtained for a few dollars. This machine has been tested under the eye of THE EXAMINER, and we speak of that which we do know when we say that it does its work well and saves the time and labor of the women. It is of much more practical value in a household than an organ which the housewife hasn't time to play. "The Ideal" can be seen at any time at the auction room of Mr. R. Benairto in this city. Mr. Charles I. Morrison is the agent here.

Another of the most noted of the trotting stags that died in 1888 was Volunteer. He was thirty-four years old and had outlived his usefulness, but for all that he was taken care of at the Goldsmith farm as well as any horse possibly could be.

Dexter, the horse of all horses in his day, died in 1888, having lived to be over thirty years old. He attained a record more than twenty years ago of 2.17 1/2, at that time the fastest mile placed to the credit of any trotter. It was then that Mr. Robert Bonner paid for him $35,000. From that time until he died Dexter was an inmate of Mr. Bonner's stables. Dexter was remarkable in more ways than one. Up to the time of his death he was as active as a cat, moving around his stall with the restless stride of a panther, ready to attack any stranger who entered the precincts of his domain.

There is a renewal in Scotland of the movement of fifteen years ago in favor of union between two branches of the Presbyterian Church, the Free Church, and the United Presbyterian Church. The amalgamation of these two bodies has hitherto been prevented by the hostility of a determined minority. A party in the Free Church threatened to claim the whole property of that denomination if the union proposed were consummated, on the ground that the proposal was altering fundamentally the constitution of the Church. The present agitation has sprung up in both the bodies interested. The movement is voluntary, and so far unofficial. Leading men such as Principals Rainy and Douglas, Professors Douglas and Candlish have publicly spoken in favor of resuscitating the scheme. No opposition of a formidable character has yet appeared, but the movement is only just begun, and not much can with certainty be predicted of its future.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Missions in Africa.

SIR.—Recent despatches from Zanzibar confirm our worst fears as to the safety of the noble European missionaries, both men and women, who have been laboring on the mainland for many years past, and, despite the obstinate difficulty of their work and its multitudinous dangers, with so much of real success. As many eyes are now turning to the Dark Continent in which the heroic Stanley lies hidden and bloodshed and rapine are rampant, I have thought that your readers would be interested in the following statistics, which pertain to the missions carried on upon the Island and in the neighborhood of Zanzibar. They are based upon a report which appeared in a recent English newspaper:—

"1. British Missions.—(1) Church Missionary Society; (2) Universities' Mission to Africa; (3) Established Church of Scotland; (4) Free Church of Scotland; (5) London Missionary Society (Congregational); (6) United Methodist Free Churches. Roman Catholic, none. The missionary stations of each are as follows:—
"1. C. M. S.—This Mission has two distinct branches, each with a separate base. The first and oldest is the Mombasa branch, with its basis on that seaport; the other is the Victoria Nyanza branch, basis Zanzibar. The late Bishop Parker attempted to connect the two branches by successfully accomplishing a flank march from Mombasa to U-Sagara. In the first branch are the following stations, with indication of the political sphere within which they are situated:—1. Mombasa (Z.); 2. Frere Town (Z.); 3. Rabal (Z.); 4. Kamikeni (Z.); 5. Kisultini (Z.); 6. Shimba (Z.); 7. Taia (Sagalla) (B.); 8. Chaga (Mwali) (E.). This society possesses a sea-going steamer to connect Mombasa with Zanzibar. In the second branch are the following stations:—1. Mambwa (U-Sagara) (G.); 2. Mpwawa (U-Sagara) (G.); 3. Kisokwe (U-Sagara) (G.); 4. Uyu (U-Nyanzezi) (N.); 5. Mtungwa, (U-Sukuma) (N.); 6. Usambiro, south-east corner of Victoria Nyanza, (N.); 7. Masalala, south-east corner of Victoria Nyanza, (N.); 8. Nasa, south-east corner of Victoria Nyanza, (N.); 9. Kabog, alias Natele (U-Ganda) (I.). All these stations are not at present occupied, but they are underlined as 'C. M. S. Stations' in the annual report of 1887-8, which dates from May 1 last.

"2. Universities' Mission.—This has two distinct branches, each with a separate basis on the sea. The first is the Zanzibar branch, with that seaport as its basis; the other is the Lake Nyassa branch, with Kilimani, in the Portuguese colony, as its distant basis by the rivers Shire and Zambezi. In the first are the following stations:—1. Zanzibar and its environs on the island (Z.); 2. Mkusi U-Sambara (G.); 3. Amba, U-Sambara (G.); 4. Magila, U-Sambara (G.); 5. Misowe, U-Sambara (G.); 6. Masasi; 7. Nowada; 8. Chingwa; 9. Muta, all on or near the River Rovuma (G.); and many other smaller stations. In the second are the following stations:—1. Lukoma Island; 2. Chitesi; 3. Mayendianga; 4. Lake Nyassa, east shore (N.). The society possesses a lake-going steamer on the Lake Nyassa. The above stations are underlined as Mission stations in the annual report of 1887-8.

"3. Established Church of Scotland.—This Mission has one main station at Blantyre, on Lake Shiriwa, with adjoining out-stations (N.); its basis is by the rivers Shire and Zambezi, on Kilimani.

"4. Free Church of Scotland.—This Mission has the following stations:—1. Bandawa, alias Livingstonia, Lake Nyassa, west shore (N.); 2. A-Ngoni-land, Uplands (N.); 3. Kirengi, Lake Nyassa, north-west corner (N.); 4. Cape Maclear, Lake Nyassa, south shore (N.); 5. Kikusi, Uplands (N.). Its basis is by the Shire and the Zambezi, on Kilimani.

"London Missionary Society.—This mission has the following stations:—1. Urambo (U-Nyanzezi) (I.); 2. Kavala Island, Lake Tanganyika, west shore (N.); 3. Fumbo, Lake Tanganyika, south shore (N.). Although this society has only one Mission, it is in the peculiar position of having to rest on two separate bases. The access to the first station is from the basis of Zanzibar, through the German sphere of influence, and No-man's-land. The access to the two stations on Lake Tanganyika rests on the basis of Kilimani, in the Portuguese colony, and passes up the rivers of Zambezi and Shire, along the whole length of Lake Nyassa, and by the so-called 'Stevenson Road,' which connects the north-east corner of Lake Nyassa with the south shore of Lake Tanganyika. In the event of trouble this state of affairs would prove exceedingly dangerous.

"5. United Methodist Free Church.—This Mission has the following stations:—1. Ribe, near Mombasa, (Z.); 2. Juvvu, near Mombasa (Z.); 3. Golbanti, Gallaalad (N.), basis Mombasa. The last station is one of extreme peril. Last year the Missionary and his wife and many of the native Christians were murdered.

from the training college in North Wales; they have a station at Tete, on the Zambezi within the limits of the Portuguese colony, and possibly others; but no information has reached us of any advance in the regions north of the Zambezi, to which our present inquiry is limited.

"The total, therefore, of the missionary interests concerned is as follows:—British, six Missions; German, four Missions; French, three Missions; total thirteen. It is not above the mark to say that the Church Missionary Society alone has spent £100,000 in this region during the thirty years of the working of its Missions. The Mission of the French at Bagamoyo is the next in order of age. Both of these are anterior to the great Livingstone explorations; all the others are subsequent, and one or two are on an exceedingly small scale."

"Of the Universities' Mission (No. 2 above) I may say that, although it is connected with the Church of England; it was founded upon the earnest and urgent request of the intrepid Livingstone, who was a faithful Presbyterian. The brief history of this Mission is tragic and awfully interesting. Of its four bishops, two have fallen at their posts, one was forced to return to England, and the last the noble Bishop Larythis, is now at his headquarters, strengthening and encouraging his faithful and heroic band of fellow-workers, who are all in imminent peril. No less than twenty priests and deacons have laid down their lives in this Mission alone, and their number is continually increasing. Lord Salisbury has promised to protect them during the struggle, which is likely to be a protracted one. We know that a kind Providence, to whom they have ever been obedient, will not fail them in their time of trial and sore distress.

FRED. E. J. LLOYD, Rector of Georgetown and Assistant Priest of St. Peter's.

A Denial.

SIR.—I understand my name has been mentioned as the author of letters to the effect appearing in the columns of your paper under the name of "Agent."

I deny having written the letters referred to, or causing them to be written, and I am not aware who wrote them, nor do I know anything whatever about them.

Yours truly, A. S. URQUHART.

Echoes of Dr. Doyle's Jubilee.

The lion of the hour—Dr. Doyle. The celebration was in every respect a grand success.

The excursion to Kinkora was a very pleasant part of the programme. St. Dunstan's College Band added considerable to the success of the celebration. The many beautiful presents received by Dr. Doyle were greatly admired by all who saw them.

The sumptuous repast in the Convent Hall, which followed the procession, was all that could be desired. The torchlight procession was, in the opinion of many, the largest affair of the kind ever witnessed on the Island.

The illumination of public buildings, stores, etc., was general. In many instances the designs were exceedingly pretty. After Dr. Doyle had publicly thanked those who took part in the procession hearty cheers were given for the Dr., the Queen, etc.

The choir of St. Paul's Church is an excellent one. Their singing on Thursday was splendid. Mr. DesBrisay presided at the organ with his usual skill.

The grouping of the pupils at the Convent concert was very artistic, and the excellence of the entertainment throughout was the subject of much comment.

The fireworks display was excellent. Chief Engineer Large and Mr. Charles Hermans went up from Charlottetown to look after this part of the programme.

The ladies and pupils of St. Mary's Convent deserve every credit for the splendid entertainment given in the Convent Hall on Wednesday night. The ladies of the Convent also must be thanked for the excellence of their decorations.

We are informed that the chief-marshal of the procession—Mr. Frizzle—is one of the most prominent Orangemen in Prince County. This circumstance of itself shows that in Summerside, at least, the best of feeling exists among the different religious persuasions.

Among those who took an active part in the proceedings we may mention the name of Hon. Judge Kelly, who devoted a good deal of time and attention to the work, and to whose zeal and energy a large share of the success of the celebration may be attributed.

The interior and exterior ornamentation of St. Paul's Church was very pretty. The arch at the main entrance to the church bore an illuminated head-piece, inscribed: "1864—25—1889." The arches at the entrance to the church grounds and leading from the verandah of the convent were also very tasteful and pretty.

The Pope's Budget. The Pope has lately examined the accounts of his income and expenditure during the year 1888. The following are the principal figures:—From St. Peter's Pence he received $300,000; from interest of capital invested abroad, $100,000; from alms and other sources, $20,000; making a total of $420,000; to which must be added about $80,000 received during the jubilee. The ordinary and extraordinary expenses of the Vatican during the year have been as follows:—Alms given in Rome, $4,000; alms given abroad, $4,000; alms given in Italy, $4,000; ordinary subsidies in Rome, $2,000; ordinary subsidies in Italy, $3,200; ordinary subsidies to the church generally, $6,000; ordinary subsidies to poor priests, $5,000; sums for the Propaganda, $20,000; sums for the diplomatic service, $20,000; sums for missions, $40,000; administrative expenses, $40,000; maintenance of Apostolic palaces, $20,000; expenses of public monuments, $10,000; pay of the cardinals, $80,000; maintenance of seminaries, $90,000; divers expenses, $100,000. The total expenditure is $339,200, which leaves a surplus of not much less than a quarter of a million sterling.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

Troubled Ireland.

DUBLIN, Jan. 25. Several of the persons who were arrested at Carrick-on-Suir yesterday, during the disturbance at the time of arraignment of Wm. O'Brien, were conveyed to Clonmel last night. A large crowd had gathered about the railway station at Clonmel, and upon the arrival of the police and their prisoners, the mob prevented the police from passing, and demanded the release of the prisoners. The crowd stoned the police and the latter threatened to fire upon them. A priest interceded and prevented bloodshed. After two hours had passed the police received reinforcements and succeeded in lodging the other prisoners in jail.

The trial of Father McCarthy, charged with inciting boycotting, was resumed at Clonakitty to-day. Father McCarthy was found guilty and sentenced to four months imprisonment. Notice of appeal from the sentence was given when the trial of Wm. O'Brien was resumed to-day at Carrick on Suir. The defendant was absent. The trial, however, proceeded in his absence, and he was convicted and sentenced to four months imprisonment without hard labor. The police have as yet discovered no clue to Mr. O'Brien's whereabouts. It is estimated that eighty persons were wounded at the disturbance at Carrick yesterday.

Address to Gladstone.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Jan. 25. The Evening News publishes, this afternoon, an address to Gladstone contained in a testimonial album, prepared by the exile, John J. McBride, of the city, in favor of home rule for Ireland, to which President-elect Harrison has affixed his signature. Inasmuch as it places the President-elect on record as favoring Home Rule for Ireland, the matter is likely to be the subject of considerable comment. Gen. Harrison signed the address Dec. 7, after his election. Among other names in the album are those of Gov. Foraker, Rossell P. Flower, Allan G. Thurman, Henry Waterson, T. C. Platt, Col. Fred Grant, Archbishop Corrigan, and Archbishop Elder, of Cincinnati. The album will be sent to the Hon. Levi P. Morton for his signature.

Nova Scotia News.

HALIFAX, Jan. 25. Thirty-five fishing vessels are being built in Lunenburg County, the largest number for many years.

A large sum has been subscribed by Halifax Irishmen for the Parnell Defence Fund. Archbishop O'Brien, Bishop Cameron, T. E. Kenny, M. J. P., Mayor O'Mullin and Senator Power head the list.

The Nova Scotia fruit growers unanimously adopted a resolution strongly urging the Dominion Government to consolidate and operate the Windsor and Annapolis and Western Counties Railways as a part of the Intercolonial system.

Hon. William Ross is still in charge of the custom house, but expects to be relieved by Inspector Hill on Monday. A petition is being signed by all the leading Conservative business men asking superannuation allowance for the ex-Collector. The Liberals refuse to sign it, alleging that they want to be free to reinstate Mr. Ross when they attain power.

Ottawa Notes.

OTTAWA, Jan. 25. Lariviere's majority in Provencher will be about 200. Clarke loses his deposit.

Mr. Laurier is still in the circular business, and has issued a notice to his parliamentary disciples that he will this session resurrect the theory that Canada should negotiate her own treaties with foreign nations.

Inspector Hill, who will relieve Collector Ross at Halifax until a permanent appointment has been made, left here for Halifax this afternoon.

The Toronto World announces that it has authority for stating that a bill will be introduced by the Postmaster-General this session adopting the two cent letter postage.

Two Horrible Stories.

MONTREAL, Jan. 25. A horrible story comes from Allumette Island. A farmer named Cottleton dropped dead in his farmyard and was not discovered until several pigs had eaten his head entirely from his body.

Last evening an unknown man entered the residence of a lone woman named Outhbert, at St. William D'Upton and attempted to outrage her. The lady fought desperately and the tramp, not being able to accomplish his purpose, fatally stabbed his victim and left the house.

Missionaries Murdered.

ZANZIBAR, Jan. 25. An English missionary named Brooks and sixteen of his followers were murdered on Saturday near Saadani, by members of the coast tribe and natives of Zanzibar. These murders indicate the extent of the hatred to the whites the Germans have aroused. Saadani for many years has been the starting point of European missions, the natives welcoming missionaries and assisting them, especially the English. The murders have caused a sensation. The question as to the measures England will take to punish the murderers is eagerly discussed here.

The Samoa Muddle.

LONDON, Jan. 25. Salisbury had an interview to-day with Count von Hatzfeldt, German Ambassador. Germany's view of the Samoa muddle and the Zanzibar question causes distrust an Admiralty circles. A mysterious silence is maintained regarding her naval reinforcements.

It is stated at the Foreign Office that America means business, and American naval officers in Samoa express confidence in their ability to hold their own.
