The WEEK at S. D. U.

Truly, the fall season has arrived and is well advanced. Every passing day is becoming shorter and shorter. The trees, which seem to have reached the climax of their beauty, are beginning to lose their livery. Farmers are busy harvesting their potato crops and getting the fall plowing done before the snow begins to drift. Baseball is all over (with apologies to Peakes) for another year and already the winter sport of hockey has started. In spite of these preparations for winter, the past few days have been characteristic of those of July or August. Perhaps this is what they call "Indian Summer" is it?

The only two organizations whose executives for the coming year have not been given to you are the Glee Club and the Sigma Delta Sorority. Since they have been left to the last, we should perhaps elaborate on them a little more than we did on the others. The Glee Club provides various forms of entertainment for the student body and also for outside institutions such as the Provincial Sanatorium. The officers for this Club are as follows: President, Guy Germain; vice-president, Bethany MacDonald; Secretary, Merritt Crockett; Committee, Roy Grant, Andy MacDonald, Mary Gillis, and Eugene Mooney. The fact that we have not mentioned the coeds more often through this column is no indication that we regard them as an unimportant part of the institution. Perhaps we can find an excuse in that they don't seem anxious to disclose their activities to us. And then again, most women like publicity, don't they? Nevertheless, the girls have once again re-organized their Sorority which has as its aim the religious, social and cultural development of its members. The executive consists of Noreen Connolly as President, Marion MacPhee as vice-president, Beverly Fitzgerald as Secretary and a committee of Mary Gillis and Mary Huestis. With this executive and Father Sharkey as Faculty-advisor, we know they are in for a successful year. We have neglected to mention in "the Week" the fact that the Canteen this year is under the management of Billy McNeely. So far Billy has done a fine job, in consideration of the amount of work which it involves. We also have a correction to make this week: the orchestra that plays for the socials is not the Downtowners as we said last week, but the Charlottetownians. Sorry boys.

"The Week" expresses the deepest sympathy of the student body to Father Simpson on the death of his father last Friday. Also, the student body has been without the services of Father Sullivan for the past week since he is a patient in the Charlottetown Hospital. Everyone (especially the Philosophy students, Father) are hoping you will soon recover your health and return to the campus. Possibly, some of you saw the noon plane last Wednesday winging its way toward New Glasgow. But, I doubt if any of you knew that it was carrying two students from here to the annual Maritime Conference of M.I.D.L. The delegates from here were Regis Duffy and Lawrence Glover, President and vice-president respectively of the local branch of M.I.D.L. The Conference extends over Thursday and Friday and it will be there that the schedule will be drawn up by which each college will know with what other Colleges it will be debating against this year, where and when. The

M.I.D.L. branch here held its first meeting Sunday evening. Some new students became members and more are expected. An important move afoot on the campus concerns the high school representation in the Students' Union. As in other years, the question arose this year again, whether or not High School could have a Students' Union of its own. However, due to the small size of the student body and the added expense, it was decided at the Students' Union meeting on Tuesday night that such a project would be almost impossible. As a compromise, it was suggested that the representation from High School in the Students' Union be increased from one to three representatives—one from each of Grade XII, Grade XI, and Grade X and Commercial. The suggestion was discussed pro and con and the decision was to follow it. At present the Constitution is being amended to that effect and High School hereafter will have three representatives in the Students' Union. Congratulations high school!

that it is hard to keep up with them. The distasteful part of commenting on the activities of football is that it is not for the most part "new" news. For example, you must have already seen where first team Saints played to a 2-2 tie with U.N.B. last Saturday and where, on the same day, the Intermediate Saints dropped a 21-3 verdict upon the R.A.F. But the part of our comments consists of the congratulations we extend to the coaches and players of both teams. This Saturday, Mt. A. and U. N. B. will meet in another intercollegiate game, the result of which will be of concern to us. Before first team encounters U. N. B. here next Wednesday, it is expected that they will open the Island Senior Series with the Senior Abbies on Saturday afternoon in Charlottetown. This, however, is not as yet official. In the meantime the intermediates will play the first game of the Island Intercollegiate series against P. W. C. on Friday afternoon. With regard to the campus football leagues, we are forced to admit that the Sophomores defeated the Juniors for first place in entering the semi-finals of the Senior Intramural league. In the three-team Junior Intramural league, the Argonauts are still in the lead. The door of my room just swung open and a thick-set (?) gentleman with black, short-cropped hair inquired, "Hey, have you finished writing the Week yet?" "Why no, Weir, what's on your mind?" I answered. "Well, I'd like you to put in that the A.A.A. have decided to hold their football dance next Wednesday night in the gymnasium-auditorium following the game in the afternoon. The admission will be fifty cents and it is probable that this will be the only dance of its kind in the new gymnasium. So come one, come all." Did I miss anything, Jack? "Until next week, from all of us at S.D.U. to all of you, health and happiness."

NEWLY MARRIED COUPLE HONOURED

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Stead were pleasantly honoured when their neighbors and friends of Brackley and vicinity gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stead, on Friday evening, Oct. 5th, to congratulate them on their recent marriage. After being escorted to the chairs of honour by Mrs. Earl Clarke and Mr. James MacKay, a very touching speech was read by Mrs. Clarke, and a well-filled purse presented by Mr. Charles Mallett. Sidney in his usual pleasant manner, thanked everyone on behalf of himself and his wife for their thoughtfulness, after which everyone joined in singing "For

They Are Jolly Good Fellows". A delicious lunch was served and the remainder of the evening was spent in a sing-song and playing cards. A very enjoyable time was had by all, and each left wishing the new couple every happiness. Mr. and Mrs. Stead will reside in Moncton, where Mr. Stead is a medical representative with the Pfizer Drug Company, Canada Limited.
