FOR SALE.

BRIGHTON TANNERY, with its Steam Engine, Boiler, Splitting Machine, Stufing Machine and other Plant is offered for sale at private contract.

The above Tannery was formerly operated by the late Donald McKinnon, of the late firm of McKinnon & Co., of this city. It is fitted up on the most modern principle, and has hitherto paid a large percentage on the capital invested. To capitalists no better investment for their money, either by Bank or Manufactory, can be offered.

At Dundas—Alexander Martin, two cases, convicted and fined $50 each and costs; Philip Francis, for tampering with a witness, convicted and fined $50 and costs; Ronald McKenzie, for tampering with a witness, convicted and fined $50 and costs.

At Avondale—Isabella McAuley, two cases, convicted and fined $2 and costs.

At Georgetown—James Bourke, two cases, convicted and fined $50 each and costs; John McKinnon, late Chief Inspector and Prosecutor, three cases, convicted and fined $50 each and costs.

At Montague Bridge—John J. McDonald, two cases, convicted and fined $50 each and costs; George Weatherly, one case, convicted and fined $50 and costs.

At Sturgeon—James O'Connor, one case, convicted and fined $50 and costs.

Besides the above Mr. Clay has finished up a lot of work begun by his predecessor, such as executing warrants of commitment and collecting fines, altogether, a pretty good showing. I should say, for three months. But whether he is ever to be paid for all this I cannot say. But this I do say, that if the temperance people do not exert themselves to sustain him by every lawful means possible, and at the same time see that he is in some way, at least, fairly remunerated, they cannot long expect his services, as, with all his ability, he is not able to live on the wind. We have evidently got the right man in the right place at last; and all that is now wanted is "a long pull, and a strong pull, and a pull together" to hold up his hands and sustain him in his arduous and difficult task, when, I trust, by the help of the Almighty, we shall soon succeed in tramping out the dreadful and blighting cause of intemperance in King's County.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

A School Suggestion.

Sir.—It is the aim of modern educationists to infuse a spirit of rural pursuits in the minds of children attending school in the country, and perhaps the city too. This is as it should be, as we are solely an agricultural province. The Board has done well in putting a book in the curriculum bearing on this subject. What is necessary now is to go a step further and make this embryonic movement practical, by putting into the hands of the pupils, farm, garden and flower seeds, so that they may experiment on the knowledge gained from the text book, and also create in their minds a love for agriculture. Furbell tells us that theoretical education is of little use without the practical. Now, what I suggest is that seeds be distributed, at the expense of the Government, in the school district, among the pupils of each school, to be divided by the teacher about the first of May in each year. A nice selection of vegetable and flower seeds, sufficient for one school, would not cost more than two dollars, possibly less. The pupils, during the spring vacation, would have ample time to sow and cultivate the seed gratuitously given them. A competition would spring up among the largest squash, turnip or tomato, or the most beautiful, hardy, annual flowers.

I am yours, &c.,
J. A. McDONALD.

The Scott Act in King's.

Sir.—For the encouragement of the Temperance cause throughout the Island I give below, as near as I can ascertain, a list of the work done by our prosecutor, since his appointment:—

At Souris—Sarah Cantwell, one case, convicted and fined $50 and costs; Allan Boisner, one case, convicted and fined $50 and costs; James Morrison, one case, convicted and fined $50 and costs; Mary McDonald, two cases, convicted and fined $50 each and costs.

At Dundas—Alexander Martin, two cases, convicted and fined $50 each and costs; Philip Francis, for tampering with a witness, convicted and fined $50 and costs; Ronald McKenzie, for tampering with a witness, convicted and fined $50 and costs.

At Avondale—Isabella McAuley, two cases, convicted and fined $2 and costs.

Our enterprising Butcher, N. McKay, Esq., has done a large business in beef. He has disposed of 300 carcasses of beef and 200 of mutton, and says that he will soon commence to buy up fat cattle for the spring trade.

Dundas, Feb. 18th, 1886.

Black Bush Debating Club.

The regular meeting of the Club was held on Friday evening last. Besides the members, there were quite a number of ladies and gentlemen from adjacent districts in attendance. The subject for debate, "Who endures the more hardship, the Soldier or the Sailor?" was opened by Mr. J. A. McDonald without taking any side, after which the sufferings of the Soldier were elucidated by James McPhee, Esq., Jas. Morrison, Esq., J. J. McPhee (Teacher), Donald Leslie and the President. The hardships of the Sailor were described in glowing language by Esq. J. A. McDonald, Esq., Alex. Montgomery, Esq., J. A. McDonald, Esq., Charles Morrison, Esq., and Jas. Currie.

On motion, it was decided by an overwhelming majority that the Sailor suffers the greater hardship. It is worthy of note that the minority consisted only of the speakers on that side.

A vote of thanks was tendered the strangers for their presence and hearty cooperation, after which the meeting dispersed.

Scott Act Conviction.

On the 16th inst., before John T. Weeks and Henry Gordon, Esqs., the Justices of the Peace for Prince County, the Hon. Richard B. Reid, J. P., was fined $50 and costs for violation of the Canada Temperance Act, 1878. In the case, Mr. Reid pleaded that the person to whom he sold the four bottles of whiskey on the 12th and 13th inst., represented that he wanted the medicine for one Donald McArthur who owned a medical certificate; that the late License Commissioners had not cancelled his license, and that he would still sell on medical certificates. But this plea only exposed one more of the dodges resorted to by Mr. Reid to evade the law.—COM.
