

Jenkins-MacEachern Wedding

Trinity United Church, Charlottetown was the scene of a very pretty wedding on July 25th, at 3 o'clock, when Florence Mildred, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester MacEachern, Hopefield, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Arthur Ludlow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hector Jenkins, Marshfield.

Rev. A. Frank MacLean performed the double ring ceremony. The church was decorated with baskets of snapdragons, larkspur, delphinium, phlox and roses. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Keith Rogers. During the signing of the register Miss Nancy MacNevin sang "I'll Walk Beside You" and "O Perfect Love."

The bride, given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Mr. Vernon Duck of York, looked charming in a floor length gown of white net over satin with matching bolero bodice and long sleeves. Her finger tips were of French illusion fashioned with a tulle of net and held in place by lilies of the valley. She carried a cascade bouquet of red roses.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Maude MacEachern of Halifax, who wore a strapless floor length gown of orchid net over satin with matching bolero, headpiece and matching bolero. She carried a nosegay of mixed flowers, yellow being the outstanding color.

The groom was ably supported by his friend, Mr. Lowell Balderston of North Wiltshire. The ushers were Mr. Roy Pursey of Charlottetown and Mr. William Baker of Beach point.

The bride's mother chose for her daughter's wedding a dress of navy blue with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The groom's mother wore a dress of navy blue with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception and buffet luncheon was held for a large number of friends and relatives at Villa Waters. Pink and white carnations and a three tier wedding cake topped with miniature bride and groom adorned the bride's table. Rev. A. Frank MacLean proposed the toast to the bride which was capably responded to by the groom. Assisting in serving were a number of friends of the bride - Misses Elsie MacDougall, Marie Tiole, Betty Proctor and Aina MacEachern.

Amid showers of confetti the happy couple left on a honeymoon trip through the Maritimes. For travelling the bride chose a blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Prior to her marriage the bride was entertained by the staff of the Provincial Treasury at a Stanhope shower, also at a miscellaneous shower given by her girl friends at the home of Mrs. Howard MacLaughlan.

On returning from their honeymoon this popular couple will reside in Charlottetown where they are both employed.
